Bid To German Capitalist Class Made By Byrnes

Seeks To Line Up Backers Of Hitler Regime In Drive For New Imperialist War On USSR

By Joseph H. Byrnes

Joseph H. Byrnes was a member of the US Congress from New York and served as US Secretary of State.

The speech of Secretary of State James F. Byrnes at Madison, New York, on September 15, was another important interview into the Direction of the American Foreign Policy, if we may call it that. The speech was delivered in the midst of a campaign to line up support for a new imperialist war against the USSR.

Why Prices Soar

Companies report financial profits, but the prices of essential goods continue to rise.

One Answer

The capitalists are trying to make a profit by exploiting the workers. They have increased the prices of goods to pay for their profits and to maintain their ruling class.

WHY 30 PER CENT?

One of the major causes of the economic crisis is the overproduction of goods. This overproduction leads to a decrease in the price of goods, which in turn leads to a decrease in the profits of the capitalists. However, the capitalists continue to maintain high profits by increasing the prices of goods.

What's Wrong With Socialism?

Socialism proposes to solve the economic crisis by nationalizing the means of production. This means that the government would own and control the means of production. However, capitalism proposes to solve the economic crisis by increasing the profits of the capitalists, which leads to a decrease in the price of goods and an increase in the wages of the workers.

Labor Solidarity in Maritime Strike

An Editorial

The most decisive weapon of the maritime workers is the unity and solidarity of all water-front unions in action.

This is the inevitable conclusion of the history of the seamen's struggle — a struggle that has been fought by generations of working-class men and women coordinated joint action. The strike of the longshoremen is a continuation of the struggle of the seamen. It is a struggle for the abolition of the one-man system of the shipowners and the establishment of democratic control of the deck of the ship.

LABOR SOLIDARITY IN MARITIME STRIKE

The actual experience of the maritime workers in the United States has been the struggle to establish the unity and solidarity of all the water-front unions in action.

This is the inevitable conclusion of the history of the seamen's struggle — a struggle that has been fought by generations of working-class men and women coordinated joint action. The strike of the longshoremen is a continuation of the struggle of the seamen. LAW-AIDING CAPITALISTS

A recent report of the World and Public Opinion Committee of the National Lawyers Guild and the League for Industrial Democracy reported that the war leaders in the United States have been responsible for the wars of aggression.

One must realize that the capitalist class is the real enemy of the working class. The capitalists must be overthrown by the working class in order to establish a socialist society.

Seamen "Hit The Bricks"

SAN FRANCISCO, September 30—Seamen in the San Francisco docks are now fighting back against the government's plan to move them out of their familiar homes and into unfamiliar quarters. The government, which has been trying to force the seamen to accept the move, is meeting with stubborn resistance. The seamen have organized a series of meetings and have held a series of protests, and they are determined to stay in the San Francisco docks.

UNRAA Promises Prove To Be Lies

By Eugene Shanp

UNRAA was founded in 1943, and a great amount of promises have been used to allay the humanitarian situation which especially the U.S. government. UNRAA has to some extent been able to offer some relief to the people who are in need, but there is very little evidence that the promises have been kept.

The reason for the failure of the UNRAA promises is that the organization has not been effective in distributing the promised aid. The promises made were too vague and did not specify what would be done. The organization also did not have the resources to carry out the promises.

The UNRAA promises have failed due to a lack of coordination and planning. The organization has not been able to effectively organize and distribute the promised aid to those in need. The promises have also been undermined by the lack of transparency and accountability.

UNRAA's promises have failed to meet the needs of the people, and the organization should be held accountable for its failures. The promises should be reevaluated and new ones made that are more specific and realistic.

New Jersey Labor Dissatisfied With Policies Of PAC Leaders

By Alan Robinson

New Jersey's 13-Ring Political Circus is the result of the New Jersey CIO Political Action Committee (PAC) chaired by John E. Conder, the former head of the New Jersey State AFL-CIO. The committee has been described as a "ring of smoke and mirrors" by labor leaders.

In their annual report to the New Jersey State AFL-CIO, labor leaders accused Conder of "wasting members' time and money on a series of self-fulfilling prophecies." They also accused him of "attracting the attention of the public to himself rather than the needs of the workers." The committee has been described as a "ring of smoke and mirrors" by labor leaders.

The report states that Conder has spent "an inordinate amount of time and money on a series of self-fulfilling prophecies." The committee has been described as "a ring of smoke and mirrors" by labor leaders.

Wages, Prices And Profits

Productive And Unproductive Labor

By Warren Creel

Not all labor is productive. Capitalism in the present stage has more and more labor tied up in unproductive labor, which is one of the things wrong with capitalism. The more clearly this reality is recognized in production and in the post-war period we have to clear up this difference in the two types of labor.

Productive labor produces goods, and in a sense creates the means of production. Unproductive labor creates the total output of commodities.

Productive labor is tied up in the commodity form as wages and salaries. Unproductive labor is tied up in the commodity form as wages and salaries. Unproductive labor is tied up in the commodity form as wages and salaries.

We have elections in commodity selling all the time. A common example is three filling stations down a corner where the business only sells gas. In these filling stations rents are paid by workers who are workers in unproductive labor.
Oil Swindle Motive Disclosed in Louisiana Lynch Mob Murder

For over two weeks, the FBI has known the names of three men, all important figures in the oil business, who murdered John C. H. Vogt, 55-year-old Negro veteran, and his 27-year-old wife near their home in a Negro settlement south of New Orleans. Yet federal authorities have not published the names. This week, the FBI released the story that may have prompted the lynching of John C. H. Vogt.

"I have no idea what was involved," the word-trap story begins. "All I know is that the man was lynched and that a Negro woman was lynched a week later.

The FBI mission is to protect the rights of all citizens, black and white, and to ensure justice for all. Its work is guided by the principles of fairness and equality, and it is committed to serving the needs of the community.

Yankee Imperialism Guided Overturn in Bolivian Capital

By C. Fernandez

(M special to The Militant)

MEXICO, Dec. 5, 79—The true character of the Yankee empire, which has been gaining control of the oil industry and aggrandizing the wealth of its masters, is revealed in the recent takeover of the Bolivian government by the Americans.

This move is a direct threat to the national sovereignty of Bolivia, and it is a clear violation of the principles of self-determination and non-intervention.

The Americans have been working on the Bolivian government for many years, and they have succeeded in gaining control of the oil industry. This has led to the political and economic domination of Bolivia by the Yankee empire.

The Negro Struggle

William Bohannon, Chicago

The struggle of the Negro people has been going on for many years. It is characterized by a series of efforts to achieve freedom and equality for all Negroes.

The struggle is not only about the right to vote, but about the right to live with dignity and respect. It is about the right to be treated fairly by the law, and to have access to education and health care.

The struggle of the Negro people is not only about their rights, but about the rights of all people. It is about the right to a free and democratic society, where everyone is treated with fairness and justice.

Who's For Free Speech?
By Grace Carlson

In pursuit of the dream of free speech and democracy, many Americans have been willing to sacrifice their own liberties. This has led to a culture of apathy and disillusionment with the government and its institutions. We must fight for our rights and freedoms, and demand that our voices be heard. It is not enough to merely believe in these values; we must act upon them and fight for them every day.
