An important achievement of the strike so far is the extension of union organization to wide sections of officers who previously had remained aloof to union organization. Many of these officers coming directly into the industry from various training services had little contact with union organization. They are now learning to respect the power of union organization. NEW YORK, Oct. 4 - A regular meeting of the crew of the MS John Ericsson recalling for a sliding wage scale clause in CIO National Maritime Union contracts, the NMU paper, The Pilot, reported today. that the following clause be included in NMU contracts: "The company agrees that for every 5 per cent rise in the labor.

general cost of living, the wage and overtime rates incorporated matically raised an additional 5 per cent, and the cost of living index figures announced monthly by the CIO Research Department will be accepted as determining whether or not wage increases will be granted."

Uneasy Truce Marks Akron Central High Student Strike

(Special to The Militant)

AKRON, O., Oct. 4 - An uneasy truce prevails in the student strike situation at Central High School. The students have been back in school for a week after a protest strike against bad food and high prices in the school cafeteria, but many express the opinion that another strike to be issued Monday show that reprisals are being taken. There are many complaints of some teachers.

George Chomalou, student leader of last week's strike, has been compelled to transfer to another school. Appeals to the Board of Education this week to deaf ears.

At the board meeting, Lawrence Hockman, chairman of a parents' committee and a veteran, spoke in favor of reinstating Chomalou without reprisal. He compared the regime at Central to the brass hats in the army. Milton Genecin, Akron organizer of the Socialist Workers Party, demanded that the board return Chomalou to Central, that there be no reprisals against any students and that the board create a committee of board members and parents of students to investigate conditions at the school. STORMY MEETING

Last Monday night over 500 persons, including members of the Board of Education and CIO leaders, attended a stormy meet-

Student speakers defended their right to democratic participation in activities and demanded the right to express their opinions. An overwhelming majority of the parents supported them. Faculty members spoke in defense of Principal Stine. Stine agreed to give his side of the case only if the students would leave the hall. This they finally consented to do in order to smoke him out.

VICIOUS ATTACK

Stine launched a vicious personal attack on Chomalou. When Paul Fessenden, Executive Secretary of the CIO Council, protested, the teachers present got up and left the hall muttering that thè "Reds" were here. The meeting ended in confusion with small groups arguing in all parts of the hall.

> The Beacon Journal, only daily paper in Akron, has published an editorial raising the "red scare." This is designed to scare off supporters of the students and to forestall an investigation of conditions in the schools. However, the number of people interested in reforming the entire school system is constantly growing and these forces may yet be able to force an investigation on the city authorities.

Peasants Take Militant Action To Divide Mexican Estates

MEXICO, D. F., Sept. 29 - Armed farmers have invaded about 50 large estates and ranches in the state of Tlaxcala and demanded the land be turned over to them as phus. "ejidos" or communal holdings. These estates are devoted mainly to raising choice bulls for the bull-rings of Mexico. Camacho sent his special repian affairs, Silvano Barba Gonthe peasants' critical need for land. It limited itself to opposing the "illegal" way the peasants resolved their problem.

Barba Gonzales, in his report, admitted that stories of violence had been exaggerated and that the peasants were not armed. Nevertheless the military commander of the zone has instructions to disarm all peasants who do not belong to the local police. According to frantic reports published in the Mexico City no action had been taken to imdaily press, the peasants are killing the cattle, but these are probably stories circulated by the owners to discredit the peasants. Barba Gonzalez reported he found no evidence of this destruction during his inspection.

By refusing to consider their demands until they withdrew, and through threats to employ federal troops in enforcing "order," the president's representative drew promises from the invading peasants to return the lands to the owners. However, latest reports indicate that as soon as the investigating party. withdrew, the peasants returned to the estates and once more set about establishing themselves permanently.

Thus when the peasants in Tlaxcala petitioned the government for the division of neighboring estates into ejidos, they were following an established precedent. However the government decided that the estates in question were excluded from the law providing for division into ejidos. It promised to make land grants elsewhere in the country. Since imposed. plement this promise, the peasants took matters into their own hands and simply invaded the estates.

War Guilt

The long, elaborate trial staged at Nuremberg by the Allied powers had one main aim: To throw the whole blame for World War II on the German Nazis and to conceal the guilt of the Allied imperialists.

It was a foregone conclusion that the conquering powers, acting as judges, prosecutors and jury, would find their war rivals to be alone responsible for the war.

But was World War II caused merely by the ambition and lust for power of the Nazis? Did this carnage on a world scale result only from the wickedness and evil designs of the leaders of the Nazi regime?

The Nazi regime has been crushed. The power of the German nation to make war has been destroyed. Yet the threat of world war remains. American imperialism in particular is engaged in a diplomatic offensive and military preparations for war against the Soviet Union.

The coming war, if it is not prevented by the revolutionary action of the world working class, will have the same basic cause as the last war. Its roots, like the first two world wars, are buried in the soil of world capitalism

The capitalist system is in a stage of advanced decay. It is torn by insoluble economic contradictions and social crises. Its productive capacity has long since outgrown the market permitted by private profit. To find outlets for goods and capital, to bolster up their profits, the capitalists of every country are forced to seek foreign markets, colonies, expanded spheres of influence.

It is the bitter competition for these foreign markets, colonies and spheres of influence that causes modern war. Monopoly capitalism caused World Wars I and II, and is paving the way for World War III.

Street, is turning to repression and witchhunts as a means of dividing and curbing labor. Unable to break the labor movement by direct assault, the American capitalists are seeking to weaken and undermine it by legal persecutions of its most militant elements.

At the same time, American imperialism is planning to silence all progressive opposition to its schemes to plunge this country into another world war.

Some union leaders, both CIO and AFL, are giving aid and comfort to Wall Street's drive to crush civil liberties and suppress opposition. These narrow-minded union leaders are conducting their own red-baiting drives against those of radical views inside the unions.

Such red-baiting must be vigorously condemned and fought. It is playing right into the hands of the Big Business reactionaries who plan to destroy all democratic rights and smash the unions.

Forewarned is forearmed! The American labor movement must mobilize all its forces and prepare to lead a real fight to preserve its democratic rights and liberties.

Aid To Reaction

Stalinist - led goons last Monday morning physically assaulted two young workers distributing The Militant to seamen entering the CIO National Maritime Union hall on 17th Street in New York City.

One of the distributors was struck on the head by a weapon and knocked unconscious. More than 500 copies of The Militant were stolen from the distributors and torn up in a typical Stalinist imitation of the Hitlerite book-burnings.

The issue of The Militant that the Stalinist hoodlums tried to prevent the NMU members from reading featured an account of the Democratic Party's conspiracy to throw the Communist (Stalinist) Party's candidates, as well as the Socialist Workers Party ticket, off the New York ballot. Prominently displayed on the front page was an editorial calling for a united fight of all labor and liberal forces against the plot of the Wall Street poilticians to deprive the minority parties of their rights.

Another editorial attacked the red-baiting drive of reactionary elements inside the CIO -a drive aimed in the first instance against the Stalinists themselves.

The Communist Party, together with all working-class organizations, faces a fearful attack from the reactionary red-baiters, as J. Edgar Hoover, FBI head, revealed last week. Stalinist leaders who inspire hoodlum attacks on Militant distributors are simply encouraging the fascists and reactionaries to attack the Communist Party members. The Stalinists are setting the example for the red-baiters and fascist hooligans.

As we point out in another editorial, the drive which the government is preparing to launch against "communists" is designed to terrorize the whole labor movement and destroy the workers' democratic rights. When the Stalinists try to prevent other workingclass organizations from distributing their literature, they are lending support to antidemocratic attacks on the whole labor movement.

The members of the NMU have the right to read whatever they please. The Stalinists use gangster methods in an attempt to deprive them of that right. It is up to the genuine defenders of democracy in NMU to put a halt to the actions of the Stalinists which are discrediting their union.

Democrats Seek Votes On A Program Of Lies

The election program presented by the Democratic Party's National Committee on Sept. 26 is nothing but the same old smelly package of lies and promises made by this Wall Street party before every election.

The resolution endorses the domestic policies of the Democratic Party over the past years, and promises to continue these policies in the coming period. It hypocritically pats labor on the head and promises to advance and protect gains made by labor. On this score, the workers can ask some embarrassing questions, particularly about the strikebreaking actions of Democratic politicians in federal, state and local office - from President Truman down to city mayors like O'Dwyer in New York and Lawrence in Pittsburgh.

With homes desperately needed by 4,000,000 voterans and their families alone, the resolution cynically declares that the Democratic Administration has made substantial progress toward providing adequate housing.

With a dollar that today buys only about half what it used to, and a staggering national debt, the resolution declares that the fiscal policy of the Democratic Party has left the country in a financially stable condition. While the cost of living keeps mounting, the Democratic Party assures the victims of high prices that it is holding down the cost of, living.

The very hot question of the meat shortage, however, was not mentioned at the very brief public meeting. It was "fully and completely" debated only at a private luncheon given by Robert E. Hannegan, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

The most impudent lie in the resolution was the statement that the Democratic Party was securing equal rights for all races, colors and creeds this, in the face of a wave of lynch terror sweeping the whole country, not only the Democratic South.

Although on the domestic front, the election program is nothing but a pack of lies, it does tell the truth on one point - foreign policy. Here the Democratic Party voices its real program. It promises to "back to the limit" the American delegation now laying down U.S. imperialist law to the world at the Paris "peace" conference.

Thus the Democratic Party which, under Roosevelt, dragooned the country into World War II, now supports Truman's policy of getting tough with the Soviet Union in the drive toward World War III.

Profiteers Steal Millions On Soaring Dairy Prices

Two of the nation's basic food commodities, butter and milk, hit new high price levels last week, right in the midst of the Democratic Party's bid for re-election on the lie that it was interested in holding down the cost of living.

Butter went up to \$1 a pound, climaxing a rise of  $7\frac{1}{2}$  cents a pound in less than two weeks. Milk went up to 22 cents a quart and higher, after five price hikes since last May. And the people were warned that milk will continue to rise at the rate of a cent a month in the coming period.

Roy Thompson, Chairman of the Price Decontrol Board which removed all price ceilings from dairy products, promised that prices of dairy products would not go above the old ceilings, plus the amount of government subsidies.

But the former government subsidy amounted to 1.7 cents per quart, while milk prices have gone up from 3 to 6 cents a quart, or two to four times the amount of the subsidy. Butter under ceilings was 56 cents per pound. The subsidy was 18 cents a today butter h umped to - a rise of not 18 cents, but 44 cents. National Dairy Products, one of the big monopolists, robbed the people of $11,802,554 in profits after taxes for the six months ending July 30. This was almost double the $6,977,276 in profits for the same period in 1945. But just doubling profits isn't enough, With the aid of the Democratic and Republican politicians they aim to do lots better.

American monopoly capitalism is the mainspring of world capitalism. Despite its victory in the last war, American capitalism is being driven, by incapacity to solve its economic problems, into a still more horrible war adventure.

The Allied imperialists have tried to show that the last war was the personal responsibility of a gang of ambitious maniacs. At the same time, they absolve the capitalist system and the capitalists as such.

But the truth remains: ALL the capitalist powers were equally guilty for World War II. ALL of them will be equally guilty for the next imperialist world war.

Warning To Labor

After the first World War and the postwar upsurge of labor, the Department of Justice spearheaded a savage drive to suppress civil liberties, terrorize organized labor and silence any who dared oppose the policies of Big Business and its government.

Last week J. Edgar Hoover, anti-labor head of the FBI, gave sinister warning that the persecutions and violations of civil rights during the Palmer "red-raid" days are about to be repeated.

In a speech before the American Legion convention, Hoover delivered an attack on "reds" and "communists" that had ominous implications for all labor. "Let us no longer be misled by their sly propaganda and false preachments on civil liberties," said Hoover of the "reds."

Democratic rights and civil liberties, Hoover makes clear, will be the first victims of the government's anti-red drive. And by "reds" he also meant "their satellites, their fellowtravellers and their so-called progressive and phony liberal allies." In short, any one or any group the reactionaries choose to label "communist."

The Truman administration, acting for Wall

Build The Labor Party!

Road To War

The danger of war arises not because "any responsible official of any government wants war," but because "nations may pursue policies or courses of action which lead to war." said Secretary of State Byrnes in Paris last week. This was a reference to the Soviet Union, an inference that Stalin's policies will lead to war no matter what Stalin says in his public statements about wanting peace.

But how about the United States government-what kind of "policies or courses of action" is it following?

What does permanent peacetime conscription lead to?

What is the meaning of the Navy Secretary's declaration last week that in effect the Navy will go where it pleases, including the Mediterranean, even though it isn't "invited"? What would happen if some other nation announced such a policy about the waters around the U.S.?

Why does the government want a superespionage service for "foreign activities never before provided and not countenanced in existing law"?

What is behind the frenzied activity to build up military bases in every part of the world? Why are they still producing atomic bombs every minute of the day?

Why does more than 50 cents of every dollar spent by the government go to the military budget?

Why does the government violate its promises to withdraw the troops from China and other "non-enemy" countries?

All these and many other "policies or courses of action" not only "lead to war" but show that the present government is preparing for a war that may destroy civilization. And yet the people who have to do the fighting and suffering in such wars have no voice in deciding whether or not they should be waged. The decisions are made by a small group in Washington acting on the basis of the often-mentioned "bipartisan foreign policy"a fancy name for agreement by the two parties of Wall Street not to interfere with Wall Street's program for world domination.

Before it is too late, the people must make their opposition to war known and felt. They must take the war-making powers away from Wall Street's political agents. They must demand that the Congress elected on Nov. 5 adopt legislation providing for a referendum by the people on the most crucial question of all-war or peace.

No Meat Is Hot Potato For Democratic Party

Meat-starved millions in New York City got the good news last week that they can now buy buffalo steaks at one shop for $2.50 a pound. New York's Health Commissioner Israel Weinstein also touts the value of horsemeat and urges dealers in horsemeat to open up shop. Meanwhile Roy Thompson of the price decontrol board advocates two meatless days a week for the country, although we already have seven.

The reason for the scandalous meat famine is not in the lack of livestock. There is more meat on the hoof than ever before in the history of the country. But it's just not being processed until the meat profiteers can extort sky-is-the-limit prices. Figures released by the Agriculture Department on the quantity of meat now being produced under Federal inspection, show that for the week ending Sept. 28, 80 million pounds were produced, which is 73 per cent below the 292 million pounds processed during the corresponding week last year. In addition, there are millions of pounds of processed meat concealed in cold storage throughout the country, which won't be brought out of hiding until prices and profits go up. Inspection last week uncovered tens of millions of pounds hidden in New York, Boston and several other cities.

Range cattle, arriving in vast numbers in the stockyards, are going back on feeding lots for "fattening," say the meat profiteers. What they mean is that the cattle are going back to fatten up future profits for the meat barons as soon as they have demolished all price ceilings.

President Truman, advising the people to have "patience," backed up the profiteering meat barons in their fake excuses on Sept. 27: "To the extent that livestock . . . is being fed to higher grades and better weights, the result will be a greater quantity and quality in the near future." But some of the livestock are likely to burst from overfeeding before that "future" becomes the present.

Democratic politicians with their eyes on the coming elections, are concerned about the meat situation only because it is becoming a political hot potato. The Democratic National Committee didn't dars to mention it last week in their phony 9-point election program.

They discussed it only in secret at a private luncheon given by Democratic Party Chairman Hannegan. The committee came up with the brilliant suggestion that he talk it over with the Decontrol Board and other agencies of the Wall Street government.

Jim Crow Record Of Republican And Democratic Parties Is Exposed By Alan Kohlman At NAACP Convention

ist Workers Party candidate for Governor of New official white-wash to the murderer. We organized Jersey, before the State Convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored in New Jersey too. People in Trenton, N. J., Sept. 26, 1946.

Today, when the list of lynchings grows longer and longer, every man-not just office seekers, but every man-must take a stand. I take my stand, and our Party takes its stand, squarely on the side of the Negro people. We say: death to the lynchers! Full and complete economic, political and social equality for the Negro people!

I come here today to make no election promises, nor to engage in airy and high-sounding abstractions about "justice." As your President, Reverend Hardge, has correctly remarked, you must be careful of election promises. I feel under no compulsion to make any, because the record is clear, because actions speak louder than words. I'm going to talk about the record, the record of actions of the Socialist Workers Party, as contrasted to the record of the Republicans and Democrats.

All four representatives of the Republicans and Democrats who have spoken to you have said they oppose lynching. I ask you to remember that it is not a question of what individuals say, but of what their parties say and do. Let me give you some examples.

Some months ago, out in Fontana, California, under the Republican regime of Governor Warren, a Negro named O'Day Short moved into a white neighborhood. Somebody sneaked up in the dead of night and set fire to that house. O'Day Short, his wife and two small children were burned to death. The Republican administration did nothing.

Our party threw its entire resources into the fight to bring the murderers to justice, and to organize united action against this crime. Our Los Angeles organizer, Myra Tanner Weiss, took a leading part in investigating" this crime. She toured up and down the West Coast from Seattle, Washington to San Diego, California speaking and mobilizing against this Jim Crow terror. Here is a copy of the widely distributed pamphlet she wrote, Vigilante Terror in California.

But the Republican administration did nothing. Example number two: in Chicago, Illinois under the Democratic regime of Mayor Kelly, some one threw a fire bomb through the window of Mrs. Grace Hardy, seriously burning her and the house. Our Chicago organizer, Mike Bartell, began an investigation. The police just listed it as a fire. But our Party discovered it was an arson bomb. And more than that, when we checked into the records, our Chicago organizer discovered that there were 59 such bombings and beatings within the past two years! I repeat: 59 such crimes against the Negro people - and the Democratic administration did not make a single arrest or conviction. It did nothing!

Took the Lead

Our Party took the lead in organizing a broad united front with the NAACP and unions on the Grace Hardy case. To raise funds to pay the mortgage and repair the house, to pay Mrs. Hardy's hospital bills, and most of all: to organize against Jim Crow terror and the do-nothing Democrats.

More evidence: right in the next state, in Freeport, N. Y., under a Republican local and show? large protest meetings in New York, and here the Republican and Democratic congressmen voted

I have here a copy of a leaflet announcing a protest meeting that was held in Newark on against! Morch 18; we held one in Jersey City too. Here is more evidence: a copy of my letter, as Newark Organizer of the SWP, sent out to all unions. Negro and workingclass organizations on February 18. This was the first action on the Ferguson murders in New Jersey.

I spoke at this meeting together with representatives of the CIO, Rev. Charles Jackson, a former NAACP official, and Mr. Fred Martin, who is sitting out here as a member of your State Executive Board.

What Happens In The South

Is it necessary to give further evidence against the Democrats? All of you know what is happening in the South where under Democratic regimes they gouge out the eyes of Isaac Woodward, chop off the hands of John Jones, shoot, beat and lynch one Negro after another. And the Bilbos and the Rankins use public office to incite these monstrous crimes! All my opponents on the platform here, including the two Democratic candidates, have spoken against Bilbo. But individuals' statements are not enough. These two candidates remain in the same party with Bilbo and run for office for this party.

We say: impeach and prosecute the Bilbos and Rankins and drive them out of Congress! And there is a world of difference when the SWP says this, because we have a record of actions in this struggle, the record that I have cited here.

It is a question of party against party. The record shows that the SWP stands in the forefront of the fight against Jim Crow terror. The record equally shows that the Democrats and Republicans are to be condemned! (Prolonged applause.)

Now let us take up the important matter of legislation. You have correctly submitted a list of bills to the Republicans and Democrats and asked them to answer in writing where they stand. I listened to my four opponents here and each one of them has answered "yes" to every single question you have asked. It is good that you have their answers in writing. Our party didn't just send a single reply for your files. We published your questions and our answers. I have here a copy of the August 10 issue of The Militant which contains the answers of our nine Congressional candidates in five states. So you see how we printed and publicized the questions of the NAACP, and our replies.

Among our candidates is George Breitman, for U. S. Senator, well-known to thousands of New Jersey Negroes as an organizer of the unemployed Workers Alliance during the depression years. And in the 11th Congressional District, our party is running a Negro worker for Congress, William E. Bohannon. He is sitting out there in the audience and I shall ask him to stand up so that you will know him. (Bohannon rises and is greeted with applause.) And in the 13th District. Arlene Phillips is our candidate for Congress. As an active member of the Bayonne branch of the NAACP, she has already spoken today during your business session of the Mike Choice case. Now I am not going to read our answers to all these questions because copies of the August 10 Militant (and other literature) will be available to you after this meeting. We too have answered "ycs" to every question and I think you know that we mean what we say. These four individual candidates, my opponents here, have answered "yes." I shall not

. Wages, Prices and Profits _

Capitalist Waste And Profits Keep Living Standards Down

- By Warren Creel -

The employers have said that even modern industry s not able to produce enough to give a good standard of living for all the workers. Now history has answered this old excuse for low wages.

Marxists have proved in theory that industry could produce abundance for all right now. Then, as we saw in the last installment of this series, American war production proved that the Marxist theory was correct. American industry turned out goods at the rate of 200 billion dollars worth a year. It didn't provide a high standard of living because half the nation's output was taken for the war, to be burned up or sunk. But the same labor and machinery could proluce the same amount for peace.

That level of production, 200 billion dollars worth of goods a year, is the proven capacity of American factories and farms. If production goes below that, the reason must be that the profit system is holding production down. It isn't because American labor and equipment can't produce.

It is true that part of the total war production is counted at high war prices, so the statistics are not quite the same as peacetime prices. But offsetting that is the fact that the war output was reached while a fourth of the labor force was drafted into the armed forces. Twelve million workers going back to industry and agriculture from the Army and Navy ought to raise the nation's capacity to produce to a. far higher level than it reached when their labor was withdrawn. It would under a rational economic system. condemned, I say to you: Build! Build the But we'll leave out that increase, and see what would happen to wages if capitalism could even allow industry to produce in peacetime at the level that it actually reached under the handicaps of war.

There are about 135 million people in the nation. So 200 billion dollars of production is enough to pay an income of $7,500 a year to every worker who is the head of a family of five. Or, counting the same thing another way. it means $1,500 a year for every man, woman and child in the United States. Such an income, $7,500 a year per family, is a moderate luxury income at a business and professional level. It is far beyond what even skilled workers are paid under capitalism. Yet that level of income for everyone is the actual output of American industry. That's not what the output could become, but what it is.

The government figures on employment show that industry reached this high production during the war by shifting only a small part of the working force from unproductive labor to productive labor. A sensible control of industry could raise the output of goods even higher, and give even better than this "business and professional level of income" for everyone, and at the same time shorten hours and increase leisure. That's what will happen under socialism, when industry is controlled by mankind, instead of being controlled by capitalist anarchy.

Exorbitant Profits

There are two costs that make capitalism expensive, that cause low wages and high prices. These two, in the words of The Death Agony of Capitalism, are: "the exorbitant profits of the capitalists and the overhead expenses of capitalist anarchy." Or, briefly, the two costs are profit and waste.

The most important cost is capitalist profit, because it controls the capitalists. They do the wasting to get their profit. But the larger cost, although not controlling, is the waste, the overhead expense of capitalist anarchy.

We can compare these two costs at the level of production reached during the war. On the average through the years about one-fourth of the national output each year goes to the capitalist class as income from ownership. That's the total of all rent, profit and interest.

Suppose we took incomes at the 200 billion dollar level production and we merely cut them down by paying a fourth of all production as profit to the capitalist class. Paying that enormous profit would lower every worker's income a fourth. Instead of $7,500 a year it would go down to only $5,600 a year for each working class family. Yet that still would be in the luxury level. The mere cost of profit is a small part of the cost of the profit system. The fact is that capitalism never allows peacetime production to reach such levels. The average income for working class families has been kept below the health and decency level, averaging about $1,500 a year per family. The heaviest cut in the standard of living comes from capitalism's low level of production, caused by capitalist waste of human labor.

Walker Demands Ohio Governor Act On Meat

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 3-Malcolm Walker, Socialist Workers Party candidate for Governor, sent a telegram today to Governor Lausche demanding that he use his powers to solve the meat crisis. The telegram said:

"In the name of the Socialist Workers Party, I wish to vigorously protest your continued inaction in the present meat crisis. It is within your power to declare an emergency and take action to put the entire state apparatus to work to end meat hoarding and refusal to produce by the profiteering meat packing industry."

In a statement to the press, Walker stated that if he were Governor he would not hesitate to use all the authority of the Governor's office against the meat packing industry which he is convinced is deliberately creating a shortage of meat in order to end price ceilings.

"And if, as Governor, I did not have enough power, I would call the State Legislature together in special session and ask for the necessary.authority." He added, "The people of this state and nation are hungry today because the public officials are only tools of entrenched monopoly demanding a sharp slash in the living standards of the people as the price of producing meat.

"Governor Lausche was elected in 1944 with the support of the labor movement. Before he was even elected he stated that he thought that labor had too much power. Since he has been in office he has had such a consistent anti-labor record that PAC could not endorse him this year.

"The only way the workers will get action in this crisis or in any other of the problems that they face is to elect labor men on a labor program."

Labor Squandered

Yet it would be wrong to look at these as two separate costs, one the cost of profits and the other the cost of competitive waste. The capitalists are compelled to do the wasting in collecting their profits. Rather it is true that every dollar collected in profits by the capitalists costs society an additional five dollars or more in lost production. In the words of The Death Agony of Capitalism, the waste is "that unconscionable squandering of human labor which is the result of capitalist anarchy and the naked pursuit of profits." (Emphasis added.)

In the world scene today this process takes place under conditions of monopoly. Capitalism now is in the monopoly stage. As the next step in analyzing wages and prices we will take up the nature of monopoly.

Next week: Competition Makes Monopoly.

CIO Publication Explodes Myth The NEGRO That High Wages Force Up Prices STRUGGLE

A devastating reply to the employers' lie that "wage, increases necessitate price increases" is given in the Sep-tember CIO Economic Outlook. The entire issue is devoted 1,000 Picket to a single article, "Explod-.

Price' Myth."

Average hourly earnings of all manufacturing workers increased less than five per cent between April, 1945 and July, 1946, the CIO shows. Yet prices soared 13 per cent between April. 1945 and August, 1946, according to the government's own worker who got the average conservative estimate, and are maximum increase of 18 per still climbing.

The hourly wage increases could not raise prices even five per cent, the article makes clear. For "although the proportion of $47.12 a week. Well, this inlabor costs to total costs vary crease of 18 per cent that everyfrom industry to industry, wages one is talking about should have and salaries average about 25 pulled him up to about $55 a per cent of all costs in manufacturing . . . This means that Department of Labor figures even if higher wages did necessarily raise prices, every 10 per cent wage raise would increase the total production cost only 1/4 as much, or by two and a an increase of 18 per cent." half per cent.'

In reality this meager increase in hourly wages did not raise production costs. Added of overtime pay. That has hit costs have been more than compensated for in the same period by "great increases in productivity resulting from the use of new and improved machinery and the return of millions of young workers, plus the repeal of the excess profits tax.'

PROFITS ARE CAUSE

The CIO Economic Outlook concludes that "the drive for any other essential goods as he higher prices has not arisen did in April, 1945. MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 3 -Wall Street is driving desperately toward a war with the Soviet Union." This charge was made by Grace Carlson, Socialist Workers Party Senatorial candidate, at an election rally here last Friday.

Speaking on "Wallace, Wall Street and World War III," Comrade Carlson pointed out that the dismissal of Wallace means that the American capitalists who want war with the Soviet Union now, are the dominant power in Washington today. Wallace, she said, represents that section of American capitalists whose business interests would best be served by making a "deal" with Stalin at the present time. He is no sincere

In the face of the capitalist encirclement of the Soviet Union and the threat of the atomic bomb, Stalin bases his defense of the USSR on building a "strategic bulwark." Comrade Carlson contrasted this with the policy of Lenin and Trotsky who nerve to come around and tell placed their confidence in the us about their "sympathetic atworking class of the world, the titude!" Jimmy reached into his pocket, an expression of scorn on his face that I should suspect such things of him. Carefully he drew out a clay-spattered old blue bandanna handkerchief, unfolded it and took out a battered wallet, from which he extracted a torn, dirty newspaper clipping.

"Here it is," Jimmy said, holding the clipping. "It happened out in Hollywood. Some - went and stole a poor rotten son of a ---girl's purse. He just sneaked up and stole it, and there she was left with no money, no keys, no nothing .... " His voice trailed off into silent pity and righteous indignation.

I looked at the clipping which told of one Hazel Forbes, who got up in a night club to dance and left her purse on the table. When she got back, it was gone, gone forever. And gone with it were $500, a diamond-studded gold lipstick and perfume set, a solid gold memorandum pad and pencil, a diamond-studded gold money clip, a diamond-studded gold cigarette lighter, a diamond-studded gold compact, a diamond-studded gold coin purse, 40 solid gold keys, and a diamond-studded pill box. "What's the poor girl going to do now?"

I looked over the clipping once more. It certainly was pathetic. With her 40 gold keys gone, how would this poor toothpaste heiress gone, how would this poor toothpaste heiress ever be able to unlock those 40 gold locks and Draft Dencunced get into gold houses, gold autmobiles, gold safe And without her diamond-studded pill box, By Bohannon deposit boxes, and what-have-you?

how would she ever be able to take a diamondstudded aspirin to get rid of the diamondstudded headache that the theft would cause liam E. Bohannon, Socialist her?

"What's she going to do now?" Jimmy asked again. "Maybe get a job washing dishes or scrubbing floors. "Might get married if her boy-friend still wants her." "He won't want her anymore. Jimmy. The diamond-studded gold lipstick and perfume set are gone.'

"O.K.!" Jimmy tightened his jaw in determination. "I'm going to take up a collection up and down the blast furnace line. These fellows

Mothers And Sons By Grace Carlson -

It was a rainy Sunday, so the children had to play indoors. My sister and I were trying hard to concentrate on our coffee and our con-into imaginary enemies.

This seemed like a pretty. grisly business to us so Dorothy tried to persuade Jimmy to play some other game. But Jim was having lots of fun playing "soldier" - all the more, now that he had an audience! His bayonet work increased in speed and vigor; so did his yelling! Dorothy was just getting set to end the 'war" when Jimmy stopped playing to say, "Mama, when real soldiers use these, they have to be careful where they stick people so they won't hurt them, don't they?" After we had Jim safely started on a quieter game, we laughed a little over his childish notion of war, but not for long. Dorothy's face sobered and she said in a half-embarrassed way, "Remember that old song, 'I Didn't Raise My

Let nations arbitrate their future troubles. It's time to lay the sword and gun away. I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier."

We didn't have time to finish the conversation then because it was already eleven o'clock and the twins had to be bathed before lunch time. But the words of "I Didn't Raise My Boy To Be a Soldier" have been running through my mind ever since. Sure, it's sentimental! But the relation between mothers and sons is sentimental. What's really sad about this anti-wan song is that it has no effective anti-war program. Dorothy isn't raising Jimmy and Vincent and Raymond to be soldiers! But she isn't depending upon capitalist nations "to lay the sword and gun away." She's a Trotskyist fighter ing over Station WLIB this against war!

not reunion, but disruption." "Their marriages had survived the war but could not withstand the peace." The figures are very imposing. In the country as a whole, there are 31 divorces for every 100 marriages in 1945 — the highest rate in the history of the United States. In Los Angeles, where divorces are relatively easy to obtain, there are 3,000 monthly. In Oklahoma City and several other citles in the Midwest and Southwest there are more divorces than marriages.

We can not say that this problem hasn't achieved wide publicity in the capitalist press. Headlines have been shrieking such captions as RETURNED VET STRANGLES WIFE or WAR HEROES CAUGHT IN LOVE TRIANGLE. To the scandal sheets of the bosses these social tragedjes make wonderful copy. None of these papers has the slightest interest in explaining the reasons for these tragedies. If they can get some woman to pose with her dress above her knees, the story is good enough for the front page.

It's not very often that we refer to an "Advice to the Lovelorn" column for any sort of enlightenment but this week we saw a question sent to one of the professional cupids that we can't resist restating here. A young housewife wrote to the "love expert" in the N. Y. Daily News stating that her husband was continually griping about the housing shortage and she didn't know how to patch things up. They have a young child, and the dark, damp, furnished room they and degrading the Negro peolive in is a menace to the health of all three. The answer to this question summed up the the working people . attitude of the capitalists to this sort of problem. The columnist complained that this sort of question was unfair. "I have been hoping to avoid this sort of question for a long time," she says. When arguments of a secondary nature lead to marital break-ups then she's glad to comment

But please, she pleads, don't ask her what to do when a couple's happiness is threatened by unemployment, low wages or lack of a decent apartment. That doesn't come under the heading of "Advice to the Lovelorn."

The Use Of "The Law"

-By Evelyn Atwood-

"The law" is a curious thing. Full of loopholes and technicalities, it can be and regularly is, manipulated in the interests of the ruling class. Even when it is ostensibly used to punish crimes against the people, it often turns out to be an instrument for protecting the criminals.

After months of delay, during which local authorities failed to take any action against the cop who gouged out the eyes of Isaac Woodard, Jr., Negro war veteran, the U.S. Department of Justice last week brought charges against Linwood L. Shull, police chief of Batesburg, South Carolina.

But the white police chief is not being charged with committing murderous assault and -torture of his victim, leaving him blinded for life. He is charged only with violating the Federal Civil Rights Statute.

If the courts uphold the charges of the Justice Department, the worst punishment that the race-hating cop can get is a possible oneyear imprisonment and $1,000 fine. This maximum penalty was meted out just this month in a case of outright murder.

In Suwanee County, Florida, another white constable was convicted under the same statute for beating a Negro farmhand with a pistol and cow whip until he was pushed into the river and drowned. A year after the crime was committed, the constable was charged not with murder, which carries a maximum of the death penalty, but with violation of the Civil Rights Statute. He got off with a one-year sentence and $1,000 fine.

The seldom-used statute was passed by Congress in 1870 to give civil rights to Negroes and implement the 14th Amendment to the Constitution which abolished slavery. It declares that a Negro has the "right and privilege not to be beaten and tortured by persons exercising the authority to arrest" and has the right to be "secure in his person and immune from legal assault and battery."

But the statute is so narrow and the penalties so light, that in the few cases where it is invoked it is used to protect lynchers' from suffering the death penalty they deserve.
