Workers Of The World, Unite!

400,000 STRIKING MINERS DEFEND RIGHTS OF ALL AMERICAN WORKERS

Growing Strength Of American Trotskyism Shown At SWP's 12th National Convention

Approaching Depression Heralds Social Crisis: Capitalism Is In U.S. Is Doomed, Delegates Hold

By Joseph Hansen

In the largest meeting of the American Trotskyism movement, 117 voting delegates, 25 alternate delegates, and 20 international delegates of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) gathered from Nov. 14 to Nov. 18 to deliberate on problems of the coming ar

This 12th National Convention of the American Trotskyism movement, strength, and viability of the movement

CSU Leaders Arrested In Studio Strike

By Barry Thompson

The entire leadership of the Chicago-based Counterspace Union (CSU) was arrested last week as a result of a strike by the members of the Chicago Grand Jury Press for the right to production and better working conditions.

The strike was called by the CSU following the arrest of four members of the group last month for damage to a radio studio at WBAI-FM. The group is demanding an end to management interference in union affairs and better pay and working conditions.

CIO Delegate Opens Wage Drive; Reject Red-Baiting With Hunt

By Art Preiss

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Nov. 29 — The Eighth Constitutional Convention of the American Federation of Labor, which met in Atlantic City to discuss the future of the union movement, opened with a dramatic statement by CIO delegate James M. Wollman.

The CIO, which includes the steel, rubber, and automobile workers, is the newest and largest of the unions that have organized in recent years. Its success has been due to its ability to recruit new members quickly and its effective organization.

The convention opened with a call for unity among all workers, regardless of union affiliation. The delegates agreed that the only way to defeat the employers' attacks on workers' rights was through unity and solidarity.

United Labor Action Is The Watchword!

An Editorial

Big Business and its white-gloved apparatchiks have unleashed a "fight to the death" campaign against the "Red Menace," so-called. This is a calculated attempt to pit the CIO and SWP against each other, and to divert attention from the real issues involved.

The CIO,headed by James P. Cannon, is the most militant of the American unions. It has been active in the struggles for better wages and working conditions, and against the employers' efforts to repress workers' rights.

The SWP, headed by Samuel Gompers, is the oldest and largest of the American unions. It has a long history of fighting for workers' rights, and is now more actively involved in the struggle against the employers' attacks on workers' rights.

The United Labor Action is the watchword of both the CIO and SWP. It is the only way to defeat the employers' attacks on workers' rights, and to win the support of the working class for a united front against the employers.

The fight to the death campaign is an attempt to pit the CIO and SWP against each other, and to divert attention from the real issues involved. The only way to defeat the employers' attacks on workers' rights is through unity and solidarity. The United Labor Action is the watchword of both the CIO and SWP.

Politics of the Rich

Rome's Fascist government

Rome, Italy

Rome's Fascist government is fast becoming the symbol for all that is wrong with the modern world. The fascist regime has imposed a brutal dictatorship on the people of Italy, using its power to suppress all opposition and to maintain its grip on the country.

The fascists have combated all labor movements and trade unions, and have imposed a strict control over the press and the arts. They have also effectively suppressed all social and political freedoms, and have succeeded in creating a climate of fear and terror.

The fascists have also pursued a policy of aggression and expansionism, and have brought Italy into World War II. The fascist regime is now in the process of collaborating with the Nazi government in order to advance their aggressive foreign policy.

The Rome's Fascist government is a threat to the peace of the world, and must be combated by all progressive forces. The fascist regime must be defeated, and a democratic and free Italy must be restored.

Politics of the Rich

Rome's Fascist government

Rome, Italy

Rome's Fascist government is fast becoming the symbol for all that is wrong with the modern world. The fascist regime has imposed a brutal dictatorship on the people of Italy, using its power to suppress all opposition and to maintain its grip on the country.

The fascists have combated all labor movements and trade unions, and have imposed a strict control over the press and the arts. They have also effectively suppressed all social and political freedoms, and have succeeded in creating a climate of fear and terror.

The fascists have also pursued a policy of aggression and expansionism, and have brought Italy into World War II. The fascist regime is now in the process of collaborating with the Nazi government in order to advance their aggressive foreign policy.

The Rome's Fascist government is a threat to the peace of the world, and must be combated by all progressive forces. The fascist regime must be defeated, and a democratic and free Italy must be restored.

Politics of the Rich

Rome's Fascist government

Rome, Italy

Rome's Fascist government is fast becoming the symbol for all that is wrong with the modern world. The fascist regime has imposed a brutal dictatorship on the people of Italy, using its power to suppress all opposition and to maintain its grip on the country.

The fascists have combated all labor movements and trade unions, and have imposed a strict control over the press and the arts. They have also effectively suppressed all social and political freedoms, and have succeeded in creating a climate of fear and terror.

The fascists have also pursued a policy of aggression and expansionism, and have brought Italy into World War II. The fascist regime is now in the process of collaborating with the Nazi government in order to advance their aggressive foreign policy.

The Rome's Fascist government is a threat to the peace of the world, and must be combated by all progressive forces. The fascist regime must be defeated, and a democratic and free Italy must be restored.
CIO Convention Demands "Substantial" Wage Rise; Rejects Political Witch-Hunts

(Continued from Page 1)

Three of the thousands of laborers who left work 24 hours before the 32-hour week was scheduled to begin, protesting against John L. Lewis. The picture was taken at a railroad yard near the outskirts of the city. (Associated Press)

Miners Strike Defend Rights of All-Hunter

(Continued from Page 1)

The miners' complaints are that the company refuses to give them the recognition of the union and the right to organize. They are fighting for the recognition of the union and the right to finish their contract. They are fighting for the recognition of the union and the right to have their contract fully enforced. They are fighting for the recognition of the union and the right to have their contract fully enforced. They are fighting for the recognition of the union and the right to have their contract fully enforced. They are fighting for the recognition of the union and the right to have their contract fully enforced. They are fighting for the recognition of the union and the right to have their contract fully enforced.
Rising Unrest Of German Workers Shows Gravity of Economic Crisis

Labour and Hunger Riots Anticipated This Winter

With another disastrous winter facing the German working class, the unions and the Socialist governments in the Ruhr and the Saar are now making preparations for the winter. The unions are issuing warnings that the winter will be a time of severe hardship and that the workers will not be able to survive without state aid. The government is promising to provide food aid and fuel, but many workers are skeptical about the government's ability to deliver on these promises.

Socialist leaders are calling for a general strike to protest the government's inadequate response to the crisis. The strike is expected to last for several days and could disrupt normal life in the region.

The government is urging the workers to remain calm and to work together to find solutions to the crisis. However, the workers are determined to take matters into their own hands and are prepared to fight for their rights.

The situation is particularly dire in the Ruhr, where the industrial heartland of Germany, the economy is on the brink of collapse. The government has announced plans to nationalize the steel industry, but workers and their families are demanding more immediate action to address their basic needs.

In the Saar, the situation is also critical, with workers facing cuts in their wages and benefits. The government has promised to provide temporary jobs to the unemployed, but workers are demanding permanent employment and a living wage.

The Workers' Councils, the representative bodies of the workers, are calling for a unified front against the government. They are calling for the workers to unite and to fight for their rights, no matter what the cost.

The government is facing a growing crisis of confidence, with the unions and workers demanding more action to address the crisis. The future of the Socialist governments in the Ruhr and the Saar is in doubt, and the country is facing a potentially catastrophic winter.
Injunctions

Truman's action in obtaining an injunction to prevent workers from striking has brought the problem of so-called "yellow dog" contracts into the limelight. The use of the courts as a weapon against strikes and other labor actions has often been the subject of impassioned discussion in recent months. "Blacklisting" has been the subject of an investigation by the Agriculture Labor Relations Board, while "yellow dog" clauses have been a matter of concern for the National Labor Relations Board. In both instances, the courts have been called upon to decide whether these actions are legal or illegal.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.

The list of strikes broken by means of injunctions is long. In the Cleveland Press case in 1931, the strikers were stopped by an injunction. In 1932, the strike of the railroad shop workers was broken by an injunction. In 1932, several of the law courts of the country had record laws of the courts beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Injunctions are orders of the courts of law beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are necessary for the protection of the public from the immediate and serious consequences of disorder and violence.

Almost as soon as the federal judge was hearing an injunction against the workers of the International Typographical Union, the government of the United States, under the leadership of Attorney General George E. Dugger, Lawrence Declouer, and others, had already been active in seeking to defeat the strike by the use of injunctions.
Strength Of American Trotskyism Showed At SWP's 12th Convention

Continued from Page 1

Estes wrote and declared, "...the height of hysterics." He further decided to support the resolution of the Socialist Workers Party, which contained a call for a "comradely discussion" of the Trotskyist program.

Robert James, a member of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, told the convention that it was not a time to be "whipped" by the Social Democrats, but to "stand firm against the Americanization of the world and the world's Americanization." He added that the SWP was a "thoroughly American" party.

The_thread_to_the_convention

The thread to the convention was the question of the future of the SWP. The convention was divided on this question, with some members favoring a "radical" approach and others favoring a "militant" approach. The "radical" approach was represented by Max Shachtman, who argued that the SWP should not be afraid to challenge the existing social order. The "militant" approach was represented by Estes, who argued that the SWP should focus on organizing the working class and preparing for revolution.

Despite the divisions, the convention ended with a strong sense of unity and determination. The SWP was ready to face the challenges of the future, and the members were confident that they could build a strong revolutionary party in the United States.
On The Railroads

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

Political Sleight Of Hand

By Henry Adams

"When using the country club regulations," said the president of a large railroad company, "our club association will be made up of the employees of the company."

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.

The credit of the political machine politics.

Whiting expects to be in the country club regulations, but he says that it will be made up of the employees of the company.