Seek to Kill Protection Bill of Rights Provides McCarthy's Victims

By Murry Weiss

A bill to deprive victims of Congressional inquisitions of their last legal refuge was quietly slipped through the U.S. Senate July 9 in a little-publicized night session that devoted not more than an hour and a half to the far-reaching measure. The Senators said little about the dangerous implications of the measure. They Representatives, as the witchhunters plan, it will have the effect of nullifying the Fifth Amendment, the important provision in the Bill of Rights which holds that no man may be required to testify against himself. Passage of the witch-hunt bill through this sneak play is a big victory for Sen. McCarran (D. Nev.) who has singled out the Fifth Amendment since 1951 for wrecking job.

Witnesses dragged before Congressional committees and griled about their political beliefs and affiliations, or the alleged political beliefs and affilations of their friends, have invoked the protection of the Fifth Amendnent to the U.S. Constitution which states that "No person . . shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself." Under this provision, written into the basic law of the land more than a century and a half ago by demand of the American people, a witness can refuse to testify on the ground that it

Americanizing "Pravda's" Lies

The lying and squirming of the American Stalinists, in their crude attempt to explain away the revolutionary movement of the East German workers against a hateful and tyrannical regime, is an ugly sight. With firing squads, mass arrests and other forms of terror, the Kremlin satraps are acting as strikebreakers trying to crush a genuine workers struggle.

And where are the American Stalinists in this picture? On the side of the counterrevolutionary strikebreakers!

This treacherous clique masquerades as a communist movement. They have nothing in common with the interests of the working-class struggle either in this country or elsewhere. Venal agents of the bureaucratic caste in the Soviet Union, they try to give an "American twist" to Pravda's monstrous slanders against the East German workers.

For instance, the Stalinist Michigan Worker complains in a July 19 editorial that Reuther made a radio speech calling "upon the workers of East Germany to rise up against their government." The editorial appeals to "workers who yearn for "peace" to recognize that Reuther's speech is an abandonment of the "line of the recent UAW convention resolution on foreign policy which called for negotiations with the Soviet leaders for peace."

There are at least three major lies in this one editorial of the Michigan Worker: (1) Reuther is depicted as an organizer of the East German workers revolt. Actually, Reuther follows the line of Wall Street's State Department, and he was trying to sell that line to the anti-capitalist East German workers, who believe Reuther is fighting for their freedom even less than competition of alternate plans the American assembly-line worker believes Reuther is fighting against the climate and to get the full benspeed-up.

(2) The UAW foreign-policy resolution organize huge migrations with years, even under the new sois depicted as a "peace" resolution. Actually, the Reutherite bureaucracy supports the Big Business policy of heading toward World War III.

(3) The Kremlin line in East Germany is represented as a "peace" policy. There is as much peace in the Kremlin's actions in Bar Harbor, Maine, where it's neers who will find this out, will in East Germany as there is in the "pacifi- | cool and breezy and their winters | write letters back and the word -cation" campaigns of western capitalism to put down revolutions of the workers and colonial peoples.

The Kremlin's counter-revolutionary terror in East Germany today serves the same aim as the Kremlin's sell-outs in Europe to Anglo-American imperialism after World War II. Through these various forms of betraval of the interests of the Explore the Great Universe forms of betrayal of the interests of the working class, the privileged bureaucratic caste in the Soviet Union seeks to maintain its despotic rule.

Both sell-outs and repressions weaken war plans of the capitalists. By the same token, the rise of the East German workers enormously strengthens the world socialist revolution.

The "Little Tiger"

Witch hunters McCarthy, McCarran, Dirksen and Jenner were hailed at a Nazi meeting in Mannheim, West Germany. July 19 as "true friends" of Germany, according to the N.Y. Times. The speaker was an American pro-Nazi, Edward A. Fleckenstein, who said he had been touring Germany for weeks in search of "true Germans."

He appears to have found the type he was seeking among the representatives of the 30 neo-Nazi groups he addressed at the launching of the National Rally party. This new party aims at the return of Nazi rule in Germany. This is the kind of audience that can take to its bosom American McCarthyism and embrace the American witch hunters as "true friends."

The new German Nazis can find much to admire in their American friends. Mc-Carthyism fosters views similar to those of the Nazis. It attacks the democratic rights of the people and seeks to destroy the Bill of Rights. It hunts down and persecutes dissenters. It pillories anyone who dares criticize its practices. It enthrones bigotry in the Congress and State Department and puts books to the torch in its drive to stamp out any expression of free thought. In a sense the McCarthyites are the disciples of Herr Hitler. They may even dream of seizing power in America the way Hitler did in Germany. But this does not mean that they are agents of Hitler or of the new German Nazis. They are ground for the rise of a homegrown fascist movement. This is attested to by even so prominent a figure as the Democratic 1952 presidential candidate, Adlai E. Stevenson. In Paris last week he admitted that when McCarthy started out he "could be in the struggle for the conquest the present-day state and which all evil, oppresion and violence considered a little tiger," but that "It of those diseases which lay him devours so much of the substance and enjoy it to the full." Just seems to me that McCarthyism runs the risk of presenting from now on a rather serious threat, so much so that it would not be out of place to make an analogy with certain aspects of the beginning of ing solved the problems of ma expression of the class struggle; lence."

The society of the free and equal will have no need and no room for violence and will not tolerate it in any form. This was the profound conception of the great Marxists.

I recall that when I was very young, I read Jack London's Iron Heel and got from there for the first time, in one single reference, a glimpse of the socialist future wherein violence will be unknown. In a footnote to the manuscript in this great book about the ruthless class war in capitalist society, ostensibly written by an editor in the socialist society, the author calls attention to an enig-

Why Do They Revolt?

What is the great driving force that is bringing one and a half billion people in the vast undeveloped areas of the world to revolt against the domination of the capitalist powers of the west?

The answer is poverty and the dawning realization that this poverty need not be. As a pamphlet recently published in England puts it, these teeming populations "live in mud huts or tin shanties, in rags and in ignorance; they are almost always underfed, often ill and hungry, sometimes starved."

Some of these areas are among the most fertile and richly endowed on earth. But the great natural wealth is either siphoned off to the capitalist countries or development is sabotaged by the imperialist powers. Thus the gap between the poor countries and the rich ones constantly widens. [

The shocking fact is that the 19 richest countries with 16% of the world's people monopolize two-thirds of the world's income. The 15 poorest countries, with more than half of the world's population, have to make ends meet with 9% of the world's income.

These figures graphically reveal the basic source of the urge for freedom and independence in the countries reaching from Korea clear around Asia to Africa and across the Atlantic to South America.

Every American worker who believes in progress and the possibility of building a better world must feel encouraged and inspired by the mighty spirit of rebellion that is stirring abroad. That is not because the American workers simply have a humanitarian interest in seeing other peoples improve their living standards. They too are acquainted with poverty.

The prosperity in America, most prosperous of all lands, happens to be somewhat lopsided. Alongside the fabulous profits raked in by the capitalists, the working class has little tc boast of.

For instance, the Federal Reserve Board, gleaned perhaps from an Assorecently noted that one out of every three ciated Press report that this is the town "where Polish tank skilled and semi-skilled workers doesn't have a dime set aside for emergencies. Among the unskilled or service workers, who constitute insurgent workers fraternized the pendulum of official Stalinist Stalinist purges, with all their 55% of the total labor power, one out of two with the Red Army that the policy is swinging towards open frame-ups, can be seen the inter-Stalinist repression would is living from hand to mouth. readily convertible to cash. To round out the picture, we would have to know how deeply in debt the average worker is, but the above figures are sufficient to show that in the United States itself poverty remains an everpresent menace even to steadily employed workers.

A downward turn in the economic cycle, and it is quite clear that the American workers will feel not only solidarity with their class brothers abroad, but an irresistible impulse to join them in breaking through the limitations of the capitalist system.

That, in our opinion, will prove decisive in the world-wide struggle of the masses to end poverty. When the American workers decide that the time has come to put our economic system in order, then the socialist society of lantic City, on July 9. The Negro Struggle — Cleveland Scandal

Cleveland, Ohio, is faced with the danger of an outbreak of anti-Negro violence such as occurred in Cicero, Illinois, two years ago, but city officials nervously weigh political expediency against the costliness of a "race riot" instead of acting decisively.

On Monday, July 13, Wendell and Genevieve Stewart moved into their new home at 15508 Talford Ave. despite anonymous threatening phone calls and a meeting the previous Saturday night of 500 whites in the neighborhood who "wallowed in an orgy of racial vituperation" for three hours, according to eyewitnesses.

Mr. Stewart, determined to exercise his right to live in the home he had found with difficulty and bought despite all pressures to prevent title-and-loan companies from handling the transaction, hired a moving van with former heavyweight boxer Jimmy Bivins in the cab to prevent the advocates of force and violence from carrying out their threats.

That night he refused the offer of a three-man committee of the neighborhood whites to buy him out.

Tuesday, a meeting of the Mayor's Community Relations Board tried to figure out how to claim the whites and at the same time protect the Negro family. A police car patrolled the area. The Board passed a resolution urging the Mayor to issue a strong statement on the Stewarts' rights under city, state and federal laws and a clear warning that the City would act swiftly against anyone who engaged in further threats or violence.

This is the mush-mouthed statement Mayor Burke gave at a meeting with a committee of the neighborhood bigots, as reported in the press:

"As a matter of law, if Stewart buys a Liberals Pick home and wants to live in it, there is nothor I can do about it. We are proud of the race relations record of this city. The hoard wishes to rive fact board wishes to give further consideration to this matter."

Members of the city anti-subversive squad and the head of the Community Relations Board attended the hopped-up meetings of the white supremacists. The sessions were referred to as "leaderless protest meetings." Why didn't the officials who characterize the danger as "clear and present," identify the advocates and instigators of force and violence and cite the law against them?
