SWP in Michigan Files Petitions For Fall Election

DETROIT, March 29 - The Socialist Workers Party this week successfully completed its petition campaign to secure a place on the Michigan ballot for the November elections. Nearly 16,000 signatures were filed after an intensive eight-week campaign, and the Secretary of State certified the party to appear on the November ballot. The SWP was the first of the minority parties to file this year.

The job of getting on the ballot this year was far more difficult than in 1952 because 50% more signatures were required. Yet the campaign was completed in less than half the previous time.

COURT VICTORY

Filing of the SWP petitions this year is proof that a successful campaign can be waged against the witch hunters. The thought - control Trucks Laws, passed by the Michigan legislature in 1952, was used in an attempt to bar the SWP from the ballot that year. Our appearance on the ballot in 1954 underscores the victory the SWP recently won in the courts against that reactionary law.

The success of the petition campaign was made possible only by hard work, enthusiasm, and receptivity among the workers. ### 'Workers' Party? Sure, I'll Sign!'

The most common response when someone was asked to sign a petition to put the Socialist Workers Party on the ballot in Michigan was, "For a workers' party? Sure, I'll sign!"

Many people, still intimidated by the witch hunt, were afraid to put their names to any type of petition. But those who signed because the party was socialist balanced those who refused because it was socialist. One man who wouldn't sign graphically formulated the reason motivating this whole grouping: "I'm afraid Mc-Carthy is looking over my shoulder."

In contrast to this were many who insisted like one woman while signing: "Something's got to be done about this Mc-Carthy. He's ruining our country!"

By Joseph Hansen MARCH 31- The Republican-Democratic opposition to McCarthy is deliberately abetting the fascist Senator in wriggling out of the reeking scandal over his brazen efforts to infiltrate the top brass of the armed forces. They want to bury the probe. This is the meaning of the assistance Wall Street's cynical political machines are obligingly giving the calculating American student of Hitler in prying open the jaws of an investigation which the liberals at first took to be a steel trap.

The McCarthy subcommittee voted March 16 to probe the sensational charges levelled by the Army about the special favors sought by McCarthy and his counsel Cohn for their crony Schine. Today, more than two weeks later, the subcommittee has not even selected a lawyer to conduct the investigation!

That's the same committee that customarily flies across the country to stage one-man, one-day "probes" of alleged "communists" in which batches of victims are smeared, badgered, pilloried, fired from their jobs and converted into community pariahs. Now, when it comes to investigating the fascist Grand Inquisitor himself, the gears of the Senate's high-powered witchhunting machine prove to be lub ricated with sand and molasses. # Notebook of an Agitator A Slick Distortion about Trotsky and Lenin

First Principles in the Struggle Against Fascism

The honorable Joseph Mc-Carthy is not much of a thinker himself, but he has certainly stimulated a lot of thought, or what passes for it, in the minds of others. His unbridled aggressiveness in recent months has stirred up quite a fluttering in the dovecotes of so-called liberalism. The pontifical pundits, who yesterday thought the specter could be exorcised by ridicule, or by pretending not to notice it, are now deep - thinking second thoughts about the Wisconsin demagogue and what he stands for.

Some apprehension of the deadly seriousness of McCarthyism has even begun to dawn in the thick skulls of the official labor leaders, and that alone is testimony to its penetrating power. It is now widely recognized that if the Wisconsin demagogue is crazy, he is crazy like a fox, and has to be taken seriously.

It would also seem that the liberals, and the labor leaders who farm out their thinking to the liberals, are catching up with the SWP, as far as the definition of McCarthyism is concerned. Lately we see more and more references to Mc-Carthy as an American Hitler. For example, Adlai Stevenson, who cannot justly be called an extremist, referred to McCarthy in his Miami speech as the apostle of a "malign totalitarianism."

Poles Apart

But we are still poles apart from the liberals and the labor skates on the main question; that is, the analysis of the causes of this preliminary manifestation of a "malign totalitarianism" - the Stevensonian euphemism for fascism - and the program for struggle against

They all regard our revolutionary approach to the question as extreme and unrealistic. The unrealism, however, is on their side, because they separate Mc-Carthyism from the social causes which have generated it, and which in fact, make such manifestations inevitable. If Mc-Carthy did not exist American capitalism would have to invent him, or a reasonable facsimile. In every great social struggle, those who understand its laws and foresee how it must develop according to those laws. have a big advantage over those who deal with surface manifestations. If the Socialist Workers Party has been the first and only group in American political life to state categorically that the rise of a fascist movement in the United States is an absolute certainty; and likewise the first to recognize McCarthyism as the preliminary manifestation of American fascism, and to call it by its right name — this was not guesswork in either case.

world system in other countries. I am even willing to repeat it once again if such reassurance will do anybody any good. But there are points of similarity as well as of difference, and the former are more important than the latter. That is the main point. The American capitalists are richer and stronger than their counterparts in other lands. They are also younger and more ignorant, and therefore more inclined to seek a rough settlement of difficulties without diplomatic subtlety and finesse. All that does not change the fact that American capitalism.

operates according to the same laws as the others, is confronted with the same fundamental problems, and is headed toward the same catastrophe.

Of all the mistakes that can be made, in judging the nature and prospects of the present social system in this country -and it is safe to predict that the American labor leaders, being what they are, will exhaust every possibility in this respect - the worst and most disorienting mistake is to regard American capitalism as fundamentally different; as immune from the operation of the same laws which determine the evolution and development of the same social system - through crisis, revolution and counter-revolution -in other countries.

This pernicious theory of "American exceptionalism," which seized the leadership of the American Communist Party in the latter days of the great boom of the Twenties, disoriented the party in the great crisis which exploded soon afterward. This same theory, which is today held by the entire labor officialdom, is what disarms the American workers at the present time more than anything else, and gives the preliminary movement of American fascism such an easy advantage in the begining.

Our Concept

We Trotskyists never belonged to this school of "exceptionalism." In 1946, right at the time when the editorial spokesmen of American capitalism were proclaiming the advent of "The American Century," and the American labor leaders were adjusting their so-called thinking to this illusory prospect, the Socialist Workers Party outlined a different and more realistic perspective for this country. #### Main Point

Our approach to the question of American fascism, as to every other political issue, begins with and proceeds from a basic theory of American perspectives which is different from that of all other political parties and tendencies. That is not because we deny America's exceptional position in the world today. It is known, and has been said often enough, that American capitalism is in a different position from other sectors of the same

The overwhelming preponderance of American imperialism does not exempt it from the decay of world capitalism, but, on the contrary, acts to involve it ever more deeply, inextricably and hopelessly. ## Eisenhower OK's a New Korea

Secretary of State Dulles, speaking before the Overseas Press Club in New York on March 29, clearly confirmed the warning that the Militant has been sounding for several months: The Eisenhower administration is preparing to make another Korea out of Indo-China, up to and including the sending of U.S. troops to fight and die in Indo-China to make that French colony safe for imperialism.

The key statement in Dulles' speech was his declaration that "the imposition on Southeast Asia of the political system of Communist Russia and its Chinese Communist ally, by whatever means, would be a grave threat to the whole free community. The United States feels that this possibility should not be passively accepted, but should be met by united action. This might have serious risks, but these risks are far less than would face us a few years from now if we dare not be resolute today."

Translated into plain English, this means: The Eisenhower administration will not permit what it calls "communism" to be established in Southeast Asia "by whatever means" -that is, in any way. At present a civil war is going on in Indo-China in which the overwhelming majority of the people are trying to drive out foreign imperialists and their puppets, and establish a system of their own choice. Dulles serves notice that U.S. capitalism will not tolerate their victory. At the same time he serves notice that it will not tolerate the establishment of such a system "by whatever means" - including peaceful means not only in Indo-China but in all of Southeast Asia. Not even Hitler dared to make more brutal declarations of imperialist dictation to colonial countries.

What Dulles means by "united action" was spelled out by the Washington reporter of the Wall Street Journal, obviously briefed by the State Department.

It means, he wrote, first that "The Americans will throw in whatever planes and supplies are deemed needed" to win the battle of Dien Bien Phu. Second, "no concessions shall be made to the Reds at Geneva." Third, "the U.S. intends, if necessary, to recruit the aid of the United Nations - or part of the United Nations — to bolster the units now fighting in Indo-China." Fourth, "State Department. officials are considering still another move — an appeal to the United Nations for quick, indirect action, like a naval blockade of Red China. This might be tried, if the Reds are recalcitrant at Geneva."

What are the "serious risks" that the Eisenhower administration has decided to take? "The decision," continues the report in the March 30 Journal, "is that if the French give up and decide to pull out that the U.S. must then call on the United Nations to send troops to Indo-China and enforce a blockade." If this provocation should produce retaliatory action by China, then "the U.S. would either bomb Red China or throw U.S. troops into Indo-China, or do both.

Kremlin, its allies and puppets on one side the allies and puppets of Washington on the other - that the U.S. government is determined to dictate the fate of Southeast Asia at any cost, including a new world war.

It wasn't only for foreign consumption that Dulles voiced these threats. It was also, and perhaps primarily, intended for another victim analysis of the world situation of the policy of "serious risks" - that is, the American people.

Dulles' speech, wrote Washington correspondent James Reston in the March 30 litical line of the International N. Y. Times, "reflected the apprehension that has been felt in official quarters here about the national leadership that will car-Geneva conference on Korea and Indo-China; ry out the line. And that is one of the most hopeful signs in the whole situation.

The war plans and timetables of U.S. imperialism have been shaken up and readjusted many times since the end of World War II by the revolutionary resistance of the colonial people and the European working class, and for this the whole world owes them a deep debt of gratitude. In fighting for their own interests, they also fought against and postponed the war of atomic annihilation projected in Washington.

But this is not the whole story. U.S. capitalism has had to cope with the resistance of the American people too, and with their strong reluctance to serve as troops in a general counter-revolutionary war. Their pressure made itself felt throughout the entire Korean war, and contributed considerably to the truce reached there. If Eisenhower, Dulles and Co. on Indo-China, it is because they understand Spanish refugee circles under the

The Board of Directors of the American Civil Liberties Union on March 24 backed Mc-Carthy's right to cross-examine witnesses in the "probe" that the fascist Senator's own subcommittee is scheduled to make of the scandal in his relations with the Army Brass. The ACLU has been smeared by McCarthy as a "communist front organization."

In the abstract, the right to confront an accuser is, of course, an indisputable norm of democracy. But we would like to remind the ACLU that it is not exactly McCarthy's democratic rights that are in jeopardy. He wants to be prosecutor, judge, and jury in his own trial. Behind McCarthy stands the fabulous wealth of the Texas oil and cattle barons. Powerful voices in the daily press, radio and TV champion his cause. He has strong support in both the Democratic and Republican parties. The government bureaucracy, including the FBI, is honey-combed with protagonists of his fascist cause. A sizeable middle-class grouping backs him to the hilt. Up to now this fascist demagogue has shown that he knows how to mobilize these forces in militant defense of his "rights." If the ACLU leadership were serious in its concern for a "fair hearing from which the full truth . . . can emerge," it would at least support unreservedly the demand that the investigation be transferred to another committee, although even a different Senate committee might prove to be loaded with Mc-Carthy supporters, Instead the ACLU timidly proposes that only the "fact-finding" aspect be relegated to another committee, leaving final determination of the charges to be made by plans in Washington called for a McCarthy's own committee.

The Negro Struggle

Lester Granger's Profession

Negro youth who show special promise, intelligence and idealism in school are often advised to seek careers in the field of social work. But there is no longer room for intelligence, idealism and liberalism in that field, and young people should be warned to avoid it like the plague.

If Lester Granger, executive director of the National Urban League and probably the best known Negro leader in the field of social work, is an example and an authority — and we deny neither - only cynical, opportunistic careerists belong in it.

In a lecture to the annual meeting of the Neighborhood Settlement Association meeting in Cleveland recently, Granger laid down the Eisenhower-McCarthy line. Because social workers have hitched their wagon to a political star "with a liberal label on it," he said, they have failed to gain the whole-hearted support of the American people.

Which American people? - The Eisenhower administration. That is why social workers were not consulted when the new Department of Welfare, with Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby at its head, was formed, he pointed out.

"Too many of our profession have shown a lamentable tendency to join the screaming throngs of those who seek status by grabbing on to a cause with a liberal label on it," Granger charged.

"We are too prone to look for miracles which don't exist in reality - whether they are called new deal, fair deal or cleaning up the mess."

Chiding his audience on the gloom among social workers following Eisenhower's election, he said: "We seem to forget that social work is a free enterprise activity, and no matter how

Then, having pledged his allegiance to capitalist wars, depressions and insecurity, he ghoulishly painted a picture of a profitable future for social workers who play it smart:

There is always work to be done in settlement houses, he said, among juvenile delinquents, broken families, the handicapped, persons dependent on public assistance. A change of administration doesn't really affect such basic problems or needs. Social workers don't need to become frantic "liberals" or 'bleeding hearts" to accomplish their jobs. Their primary needs are patience, understanding, tolerance, the ability to smooth out the rough edges.

That's the role of social workers today. If their work brings them in contact with young veterans, crippled for life mentally or physically; with starving, cold, frightened people; with children embarked on the dead-end road of criminal careers without a chance to know any other life; with people whose lives are blighted by racial discrimination - if they come in contact with any of the senseless misery and injustice of capitalist society, social workers must not become "bleeding hearts." must not become indignant, must not use their intelligence to try to find the cause and the cure.

Youth should be told the truth: If you are prepared to crush every decent human impulse you have, give up your right to think scientifically, and resign yourself to mental and moral wage slavery in the interests of the parasitic capitalist class, join 'Lester Granger's profession.

Irvin Faces Death By Harry Ring

Walter Lee Irvin, now the sole defendant in the notorious 1949 "Little Scottsboro" case of Groveland, Florida, is facing imminent death in the electric chair, a victim of murderous Southern Jim Crow "justice."

On March 23 the Florida Parole Board callously denied a final plea to save Irvin's life. Twice in January the Supreme Court turned a deaf ear to pleas for a retrial. Only the Governor of Florida can now save him from the chair by commuting his sentence to life imprisonment. The National Association for Advancement of Colored People reports that the Governor will shortly set the day and. hour for Irvin to die.

Irvin, now 27, and three other Negro youths, Ernest Thomas, Charles Greenlee and Samuel-Shepherd, were accused of "raping" a white farm housewife in Groveland on July 6, 1949. The accusation was made when local Ku Klux Klan elements were being inspired to increased tried and found guilty by a local all-white jury. Irvin and Samuel Shepherd were sentenced to death. Sixteen-year old Charles Greenlee was sent to a road camp for life. He decided not to appeal the verdict.

So brutally in violation of any kind of justice was the entire trial, that the U.S. Supreme Court in 1951 reversed the decision and ordered a new trial. Justice Jackson declared the trial "one of the best examples o one of the worst menaces to American justice, and branded it "but a legal gesture to register a verdict already dictated by the press and the public opinion which it generated."

On the night of Nov. 6, 1951, while trans porting Irvin and Shepherd for retrial the next day, Sheriff McCall stopped the car, ordered and almost fatally wounded Irvin.
