Kadar Attempts ‘Popular Front’ Against Workers

U.S. Imperialists Aim In Eastern Europe

As Editorial

The imperialists of the West saw a big opening for their appeasement policies in Hungary’s recent political purges. Now, in the wake of the Kadar regime’s attempted purge of the Hungarian workers, the policymakers of the Western imperialists are facing a new dilemma. The Hungarian workers, under the leadership of the Hungarian Working People’s Party (MSZP), have launched a counter-offensive against the Kadar regime, and the imperialists are forced to consider new strategies.

Workers Councils Are Still Dominant Power

By George Lavan

Bloodshed and repression by the Kadar regime have failed to crush the determination of Hungarian workers. The workers continue to resist the imperialists’ attempts to undermine their power andister w. In the face of this, the imperialists are forced to consider new strategies to weaken the workers’ movement.

Between Dominance of the West and the East

By Fred Haines

A United Nations-wide general strike and anti-war movement is building momentum. The workers of the world are united in their determination to end the imperialist war and its consequences. The Kadar regime’s attempt to undermine the workers’ movement is just one more attempt by the imperialists to divide and rule.

Liberal ‘Revolt’ Against Dixiecrat Control Fizzles

By John Thayer

Themuch-advertised battle of the liberals against the Southern Dixiecrats did not materialize. The liberals were unable to capitalize on the momentum of the anti-war movement and failed to attract a broad base of support.

Full Justice for Kutcher Still Wound in Red Tape

By James Kilmurry

The case of Harry Kutcher, a working-class labor leader, has been stalled in the courts for years. The imperialists’ attempt to undermine the workers’ movement is just one more attempt by the imperialists to divide and rule.

Radio Gyor: "Form Workers Councils Everywhere!"

The workers in Gyor are calling on all workers to form workers councils to support the revolution. The workers councils are organizations that represent the interests of workers and are critical for the development of the revolution. The workers councils will help to distribute food and other necessities among the workers and will also be involved in decision-making processes. The workers councils are seen as a key component of the revolution, as they represent the direct interests of the workers and are in a position to make decisions that affect their daily lives.

The Catholic Church and the Revolutionary Government

Radio Gyor: "Defend Our Catholic Church!"

Radio Gyor: "Defend Our Catholic Church!"

The Catholic Church is an important institution in Hungary, and it is crucial for the Church to maintain its autonomy and independence. The revolutionary government is calling on the Catholic Church to remain neutral and not to intervene in political matters. The Church is asked to continue to defend its institutions and to protect the rights of its members.

MANIFESTO OF ARMED REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH

One of the most inspiring features of the Hungarian revolution has been the heroic role played by the young people, particularly the students. The revolutionary program is dramatically expressed in the following manifesto:

We stand in the name of youth, of the young generation of Hungary, we assure you, our friends, that we youth will account them, him and his houses, the responsible leaders of our nation. Without our strength, we will keep up the drive as long as a single miner is on our country's territory.

A neutral, independent, democratic and socialist Hungary.

We assure and the accusers must be answered.

Imperialism and East Europe

To armed to the teeth, the imperialists
Chiang has been demanding U.S. intervention against the communists for many years.

The instigators from Spain, too, the French regime ground its iron heel in the prosperity of the land, and it played the voice for the "democracy" of the Hungarian workers. Postal "defence of freedom" was the control of the puppet radio by the pro-British manipulators.

In this country, imperialist cynicism was revealed even more so when U.S. labor manipulators Money and Reuther lett their voices in their proclaiming "support" for the Hungarian workers.

The American labor movement has every reason to protest itself with the struggle of the Hungarian workers and to give it every possible aid. But isn't any principle of international working class solidarity that betrayal of Reuther and Money's stand on Hungary. Their "ultra-agitation" is really a double-edged sword when it meets with the approval of the U.S. State Department.

Sunday's Times ran in Big Business foreign policy article in which it is stated that the U.S. intends to interfere in Hungary. The aim of such intervention would inevitably be the restoration of capitalism in Hungary, something that is only possible if the American workers fight for it.

Any illusion that the imperialist's anti-communist propaganda is aimed at a demand for human freedom should be dispelled by the last July. The foreign minister loudly condemned British action in the Middle East, in the name of the right of self-determination of nations, for the first time.

The same government which was in demand for democracy in the Middle East is fighting for the very type of social revolution in which Hungary is fighting for independence and freedom in the future.
