Socialist Workers Party Stands For...

TO THE WORKERS OF THE UNITED STATES:

May Day, 1939, finds the American worker in a position where it is necessary for them seriously and responsibly to prepare for the mighty struggles that are to come. Everywhere in the world, the people tremble under the dark shadow of the new world war. The war lends to every great power including the United States a war of billions of dollars into their military machines, and makes ready to drive tens of millions of its subjects into horrible death on the battlefields.

In the United States, of course, President Roosevelt is growing, bolder month by month. The courts, backed by the police, are smashing all the rights of labor. Unemployment increases again to staggering proportions. An outlawed is directed against the relief system, and hundreds of thousands of families are tossed aside into starvation and misery.

The PERVERSION OF MAY DAY

Thus, the tradition of two generations, May Day has been dedicated to the international solidarity of labor and to the struggle of labor to move for a better world. The present black march of the war is itself being set and destroyed. In Germany, the spectre of those great giant labor federations have crumbled. In France, there is a threat of social-democratic labor federations. In this country, the Soviet Union, the workers who the Roosevelt government in 1937, is distinctly to be fought with the workers of the social-democratic labor federations. A POLICY OF MILITANT WORKERS’ STRUGGLE AGAINST THE BOSSES—not cramping in the anterooms of Roosevelt, LoGuido, and all the lackeys of the bosses who say they are “pro-labor,” but take labor in the back every time the bosses need it.

A POLICY OF ACTIVE, AGGRESSIVE ACTION AGAINST THE AMERICAN CAPITALISTS

through workers’ defense guards—

not empty pleas to the strike-breaking police and government authorities or futile literary campaigns.

A POLICY OF FIGHTING THE WARMONGERS—not betraying helpless in the toil of the bosses and tying the workers to the capitalist bandwagons.

A POLICY OF INDEPENDENT WORKERS’ POLITICAL ACTION WITHIN A LABOR PARTY—not trailing helplessly in the toil of the bosses and parties and tying the workers to the capitalist bandwagons.

A POLICY OF FIGHTING MILITANTLY FOR EXPANDED RELIEF AND PUBLIC WORKS FOR THE UNEMPLOYED—not simply lying down in the face of the New Deal offensive against the meager benefits given the workers at the 13,000,000 unemployed.

A POLICY OF UNITING THE WORKERS OF THIS COUNTRY AND OF THE WHOLE WORLD TO BRING ABOUT THE END OF THE BOSS SYSTEM AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A WORLD SOCIALIST COMMONWEALTH OF PEACE AND PLenty FOR ALL.

Minn. Enacts Vicious Union Busting Laws

Reactionary Legislature Aims at Outlawing Strikes and All Union Activity

MINNEAPOLIS: The Minnesota Legislature, dominated by a conservative wing of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor party, has enacted a series of antilabor bills. In response, the State Labor Federation joined with the AFL-CIO in a national campaign to defeat the legislation.

One example of this "progressive" legislation is the bill outlawing strikes and all union activity. This bill, which was signed into law by Governor Olson, is designed to make strikes illegal and to deny workers the right to organize. The bill has been described as an attack on the rights of workers and as a threat to the future of unionism in Minnesota.

Another example is the "right-to-work" law, which was enacted to deny workers the right to join a union. This law is part of a national trend to weaken unions and to undermine workers' rights.

The legislation has been opposed by workers and their allies, who have vowed to fight back. The State Labor Federation, in conjunction with the AFL-CIO, has launched a campaign to defeat the legislation and to protect the rights of workers.

The legislation has also been challenged in court. Several unions and workers have filed lawsuits to challenge the constitutionality of the legislation. The cases are currently pending in court.

In addition to the legislation, Governor Olson has signed a number of executive orders that have been described as anti-labor. These orders include a ban on public strikes and a requirement that workers obtain a permit to strike.

Down Your Tools on May Day in Protest Against the Slaughter Into Which the Bosses Are Preparing to Send You

In the Sacrifices of Eight Men May Day’s Tradition Was Born

By CHRISTopher ANDREWS

The owners claim that they cannot operate "profitably." Very well! If they can’t run them, let someone else run them. Opium can be grown in China with the aid of government funds, and operate them under the control of the workers! I-T-U, JOBS AT THE UNION UNIONS FOR ALL UNEMPLOYED! With 13,000,000 out of work, the profits now being made by the already privileged small WPA rolls. Let the labor movement assert with the demand for jobs for all! Every man has the right to a job at decent wages. If industry won’t provide it, then we must force the government to do so.

A TWENTY BILLION DOLLAR PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAM! There is plenty of money when you consider the non-essential, non-economic purposes of the millionaires. Congressmen are buying railroad and banking corporations. There is plenty in the coffers of the sixty families. Let it be used for a gigantic program of public works, featuring front-line housing for workers, for the third of the nation which now lives under conditions not far removed from those of the South.

THIRTY DOLLAR WEEKLY OLD AGE AND DISABILITY PENSIONS! The aged, who have given the best of their lives to the profit-makers, the injured and sick, have a right to better than destitute and dishonored bread riots. Jobs for all who can work and pensions for those who cannot.

THE STRUGGLE AGAINST FASCISM! The bosses are the puppets of the fascist unions and fascist movements within the United States. Fascism is the gangsterism of the capitalist class. In Fascism, the same means employed to protect the interests of the oligarchy of labor.

INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY OF LABOR! May Day is the occasion when every worker recalls those who have worked under the seamy, inhuman conditions of the old order of the world. To the workers of every other nation, we extend our greetings, and to the workers of every other nation, we extend our greetings.

May Day, 1919—A Lesson In Workings Of Boss Democracy

By STANLEY LAUREN

The morning of May Day 1919 was fine. The sun was shining, and the air was cool. The distribution of poster propaganda was long since over, and the streets were deserted except for an occasional pedestrian. The workers were going to work, but there was no sign of a struggle. The May Day pageant, which had been prepared by the workers’ organizations, was to be held that day, but there was no excitement.

By 11 o’clock the morning post was busily alive. The unions had already rallied in the park. The street cars were crowded, as were the offices and stores. The workers were on their way to work.

May Day is the occasion when every worker recalls those who have worked under the seamy, inhuman conditions of the old order of the world. To the workers of every other nation, we extend our greetings, and to the workers of every other nation, we extend our greetings.

Every Worker Must Master the Teachings of Marx and Engels

Frederick Engels

The working class may well pause to think of the fact that they have brought in two rulers of nations, in the shape of the leaders of the great class struggle. Marx and Engels led the working class in this great struggle. Their teachings are the foundation of the ideology of the working class.

With the treasurers of German philosophy, the development of English economic theory, the French Catholic, the French liberal, the Italian social democratic and the English social democratic workers’ organizations have been carried on.

The principles of Engels’ Socialism, as expounded in the “Communist Manifesto,” are the basis of the modern working class movement. Engels was the first to see the necessity of the working class for its own emancipation and for the emancipation of others.

A Workers' Defense Guai Is the Only Answer To the Fascists

COUGHLIN FOLLLOWERS WHOSE HE SAYS HE'S PRO-LABOR

By GRACE SANDERS

In the discussion period at a recent Socialist Workers Party meeting in Chicago, a resolution was presented for a group of workers to form a union of Coughlin followers. The resolution was carried by a vote of 25 to 2. Coughlin followers have been dominated by an old school of CIO leaders, who believe that the CIO is the only union movement for the working class. However, some CIO leaders have decided to form a new group called the Coughlin Union of America, which is based on the principles of the New Deal.

We Workers at the Courtyard are not going to let the CIO leaders impose their will on us. We are going to stand up for our rights and organize our own union. We are going to fight for the CIO leaders to leave us alone and let us organize according to our own ideas.

The CIO leaders have been trying to impose their will on us by force. They have been trying to throw us out of the union and to prevent us from organizing our own union. We are not going to let them do this.

We are going to stand up for our rights and organize our own union. We are going to fight for the rights of all workers to organize and to have a voice in the running of their own union.

The CIO leaders are not going to be able to impose their will on us. We are going to stand up for our rights and organize our own union. We are going to fight for the rights of all workers to organize and to have a voice in the running of their own union.

We Summon American Youth to Struggle for a New Life, Not to Find Foul Death in Fighting the Bosses' Battles

The Path of Roosevelt is the Path Not to Peace and Plenty But to Suffering and Death and Name-losing Gravies on Distant Fields Drenched with the Blood of Our Fellow-Workers of All Countries.

There are more than 100,000 American boys and girls, mostly of the working class, who are struggling for a new life in the bloody streets today. They are fighting to break the chains of capitalist slavery. They are fighting for democracy. They are fighting for freedom.

We Summon American Youth to Struggle for a New Life, Not to Find Foul Death in Fighting the Bosses' Battles.

JOIN THE SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY IN THE FIGHT FOR FREEDOM!

By BILL MORGAN

The most important issue in this election is not who will be in office, but who will be in office at all. The most important issue in the world today is the future of humanity. The Socialist Workers Party is the only national party in the United States today which is fighting for a world in which workers can control their destinies and decide their own future. This is where the Socialist Workers Party stands and this is why we are fighting.

DEATH AGONY OF CAPITALISM—A Transition Program Leading to Socialist Victory

The founding congress of the Fourth International, held in New York City in 1930, emphasized the role of the Workers’ International in the struggle against imperialism and capitalism. The resolution stated: “(1) The Socialist Party must give a consistent lead in the struggle against imperialism and capitalism; (2) The Socialist Party must give a consistent lead in the struggle against the working class.”

The resolution of the Fourth International is still valid today. It is essential that all sections of the working class unite in the struggle against imperialism and capitalism. The resolution of the Fourth International also emphasizes the need for the working class to build a strong political party to lead the struggle against capitalism and imperialism.

Belgian Elections

Swing to "Moderate" Right

Gregory, Belgium—In a stunning turn of political tide, the moderate "rightist" party in Belgium, the Christian Democrats, emerged as the largest force in the country's general election yesterday. The shock victory is the first electoral triumph for the moderate right in a generation and sets the stage for a possible coalition government that could reshape the political landscape.

Labor Unions...
The Champions of Democracy

By James Burnham

Several months ago President Roosevelt announced the formation of the "Champions of Democracy," a group of American industrialists and financiers who would work to counteract "agitators from abroad." This group, according to Secretary of State Cordell Hull, was formed "to bring about the change in the attitude of the United States toward totalitarianism that has taken place in Europe." The members of the Champions of Democracy are said to be leaders in business, industry, and finance, and they are expected to work actively in influencing public opinion in favor of democracy.

The Champions of Democracy was formed in response to a growing sense of concern among American industrialists and financiers about the threat posed by totalitarianism. The group is composed of a wide range of individuals, including corporate executives, political leaders, and prominent citizens. The purpose of the Champions of Democracy is to promote democratic values and principles, and to prevent the spread of totalitarianism in the United States.

The Champions of Democracy is expected to play a significant role in shaping public opinion on issues related to democracy and totalitarianism. They will work to influence the policies of the government, as well as the attitudes of the American people. Their efforts are expected to have a profound impact on the course of American society and politics.

The Champions of Democracy is a powerful force in American politics, and its members have a significant influence on the direction of the nation. As the group continues to work to promote democracy, it will face many challenges and obstacles. However, its dedication to the cause of democracy and its commitment to the principles of freedom and justice will ensure its success in the years to come.
