LEWIS CALLS FOR MORE WPA JOBS

N.Y. JOBLESS IN THREE-DAY PICTURE LINE

Buy Lines

British Is Again Refused by Russia

BUILD OUR DEFENSE GUARDS

Socialist Worker

Official Organ of the Socialist Workers Party, Section—Issued Twice Weekly

VOL. III, NO. 34
FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1939

Sc. a Copy

LEWIS CALLS FOR MORE WPA JOBS

Britain Is Again Refused by Russia

Suspect Denies Association as World Powers Avert Events

The Soviet Union this week again rebuffed Britain's efforts to get it to send its military aid to China. For this, Britain has been in a state of alert ever since the beginning of the war with Japan. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.

The Soviet Union's refusal has been attributed to the fact that Britain is not ready to pay the price for China's military aid. The British government has been trying to persuade the Soviet government to send troops to the Far East to help China in its fight against Japan. The Soviet government has repeatedly refused to send any military aid to China.
N. J. Steel Workers for "30-Hours, $30"

Ask National Union to Include Demand in All Contract Negotiations

By J. W. WIDICK

At the Labor Unions Convention last week in Philadelphia with a membership exceeding 200,000, the National Labor Union of the Tinsel Workers Organization adopted a resolution calling for the demand on all contracts in the country of a 30-hour work week and a $30 weekly wage. The union is the largest in the country with over 40,000 steel workers as members. The resolution was adopted unanimously after a thorough discussion. The demand is based on the fact that the present system of work week and wages is not adequate to meet the needs of the present time. It is estimated that $1,000,000 weekly wages increase had been added to the national income, but the cost of living is still rising. The demand for a 30-hour work week is based on the idea that labor's contributions should be increased. If this can be realized, the income of the individual worker will be increased and the cost of living will be reduced.

Unions Will Discuss Problem of Jobless

(From the Socialist Appeal) At the Labor Unions Convention, the Socialist Party of America, through its delegate, Dr. R. E. Hopkins, asked the unions to consider the problem of jobless and to take practical steps to solve it. The Socialist Party believes that the unions should organize a jobless committee to study the problem and to develop plans for solving it. The convention agreed to the request and set up a jobless committee to study the problem. The committee will hold hearings and study the problem in detail. The convention also approved a resolution calling for the abolition of the federal government and for the establishment of a democratic republic.

Cool Mine Strike Ends In Victory

"Our Country Is in Danger"

"A public battle under the banner, "Our Country Is in Danger" was issued by the English Communist Party and signed by Harry Summer, in March of this year. The purpose of the banner was to arouse the English workers to the dangers of war and to fight against the policies of the government. The banner was widely distributed throughout the country. The banner was signed by the famous English writer and socialist, E. M. Forster, and by many other prominent English socialists. The banner was a call to arms for the working class and to fight for democracy and peace.

Ameringer Offers Pink Pill for Capitalist Ills

By ARTHUR HOPKINS

"In his book, "The Pink Pill," Dr. W. A. Ameringer, a one-time socialist who became a capitalist, offers a plan to cure the capitalistills of the country. The plan is based on the idea that the capitalistills are caused by the lack of wages and working conditions. The plan proposes that the government should provide a minimum wage and working conditions for all workers. This would eliminate the capitalistills and make the country prosperous.

USE NATIONAL GUARD AGAINST HARLAN MINERS

(Continued from Page 1) The National Guard was sent to Harlan to control the miners' strike. The miners were demanding a seven percent wage increase, and they were demanding the right to organize and strike for better working conditions. The strike was a result of the miners' dissatisfaction with the low wages and working conditions in the coal mines.

LEWIS ASKS MILLION MORE W.P.A. JOBS

"Let's go to work!" said Lewis, "Let's give the unemployed a chance to earn a living."

Finance Report

At the recent meeting of the Socialist Appeal, the national committee presented its finance report. The report showed that the Socialist Appeal had a deficit of $25,000. The committee is working hard to reduce the deficit and to increase the income of the organization. The committee has adopted several measures to increase the income, such as increasing the subscription rate, increasing the sales of the Socialist Appeal, and increasing the membership. The committee has also adopted a new policy of charging a small fee for the use of the Socialist Appeal. The committee is confident that these measures will help to reduce the deficit and to increase the income of the organization.

Socialist Appeal and New International Can Be Obtained at the Following Newsstands

The Socialist Appeal and the New International are available at the following newsstands:

2. Socialists' Bookstore, 1003 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.
3. Socialists' Bookstore, 110 S. State St., Los Angeles, Calif.
British Colonial Stirs Resentment Throughout Empire

By Paul G. Stevens

The British government has been accused of violating the rights of its subjects throughout the empire. colonial subjects have expressed their discontent with the policies of the British government, particularly in the territories where they feel their voices are not heard. The government has been criticized for its handling of colonial affairs, and there are calls for greater representation and autonomy for colonial peoples. The issue of colonial rule has become a focal point of anti-imperialist movements worldwide.

Chamberlain Offers Guiana to the Jews

Offical Government Book Describes Area "Benevolently" Offered by Great Britain to Jews as Virtually Uninhabitable

By DOVORITY WILLIAMS

The British government has offered the island of Guiana to the Jews as a "benevolent" offer, but it is described in the official government book as virtually uninhabitable. The offer has been met with skepticism and criticism, and there are concerns about the feasibility of settling the Jews in the area. The British government has been criticized for its lack of planning and preparation for the settlement of the Jewish community.

On the Line... with Bill Morgan

When John Doe, the inventor of the latest computer technology, received the offer to settle in the new colony, he was overjoyed. However, he was soon confronted with the harsh realities of life in the colony. The environment was hostile, the infrastructure was inadequate, and the locals were hostile. Despite these challenges, Doe persevered and eventually became a successful entrepreneur in the colony.

Oppressed Jamaican Labor Raises Its Voice against War

Anti-war movements in the British empire are growing as people become more aware of the suffering caused by the war. Workers in Jamaica are calling for an end to the war, and there are protests and demonstrations across the island. The government has been criticized for its support of the war, and there are calls for a peace settlement.

Chinese Patriots Handed to Japanese Warlords

Chinese patriots are being handed over to Japanese warlords by the Chinese government. The Chinese government has been criticized for its cooperation with the Japanese, and there are concerns about the fate of the patriots. The Japanese government has been accused of using Chinese warlords to further its own interests.

Fascism and Big Business — The New International Socialist Appeal

An Unusual Combination Offer! (Until June 15th)

In Combination

Order from:

PIONEER PUBLISHERS 16th University Pl, New York City

HOLLYWOOD MERRY-GO-ROUND

No Jobs for Youth Under Capitalism

The Young Peoples Socialist League Has Called a National Youth Day "Fight to Win Its "Jobs-for-Youth" Campaign"

By MARTIN EDEN

The Young Peoples Socialist League has called a national youth day "Fight to Win Its "Jobs-for-Youth" Campaign" to demand job opportunities for young people. The league has been critical of the capitalist system and its failure to provide a decent future for the youth of the country. The youth have been encouraged to participate in the campaign and to demand a fair share of the wealth for their generation.

Society's Glamor Girl & Glamour Gaggle in Going to Work

Bert, the wealthy and beautiful heroine, and her friend Quiny, find her greatest happiness to be the glamour of work. With her look of distaste, she becomes a member of the working class and works in a factory. Quiny, on the other hand, is a typical working-class girl who finds happiness in the excitement of the factory.

Society Will Not Shoot Himself But Can Be Had

For Ten Bucks a Week

How to Avoid a Wreck in the Corporate World

A new book, "How to Avoid a Wreck in the Corporate World," offers advice on avoiding the pitfalls of corporate life. The book covers topics such as managing stress, dealing with difficult coworkers, and maintaining a positive attitude.

Gentlemen's Club

222 Broadway, New York, N.Y.

Order your copy today!
The Record of Anastasio Somoza

Bloody Dictator of Nicaragua

(Continued from Page 1)

In 1936, when the Monorakeos brot down, Somoza himself was the new dictator. He established a dictatorship and ruled through the use of force. He placed his family in positions of power and control. In 1944, Somoza was assassinated by General Mario de la Cruz, who was a member of the opposition party. Somoza's family continued to rule Nicaragua through various means, including corruption and violence.

Later, his son, Anastasio Somoza Debayle, took over the leadership of the Somoza family, and he continued his father's policies of corruption and violence. He ruled Nicaragua with an iron hand, suppressing any opposition to his rule. In 1969, Somoza was assassinated by members of the Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN), who overthrew the Somoza regime.

By James Burnham

Government

The New Deal Confesses Failure

The New Deal, a series of economic and social reform programs initiated in the United States in the 1930s, was designed to alleviate the effects of the Great Depression. However, the New Deal has been criticized for its failure to achieve its goals, as evidenced by the persistence of poverty and inequality in the United States.

What is more evident about the present agrarian situation than the fact that the average of the seven most advanced countries... is that the American farmer is the most prosperous of the world...

The Farmers as Red Riding Hood

The Farmers, as Red Riding Hood, are the most prosperous of the world...

The New Masses Returns to Its "Exposure" of Walter Krivitsky

The New Masses, a left-wing socialist journal, published an article exposing Walter Krivitsky, a Russian revolutionary, in 1920. The article alleged that Krivitsky had been a member of the Communist Party and had been involved in socialist activities.

The New Masses was founded in 1912 as a platform for American socialists andCOMMUNISTS. It was later taken over by the Soviet government in 1920, and its editors were arrested and imprisoned. The article exposing Krivitsky was one of the few works published by The New Masses that was not censored by the Soviet government.

Krivitsky had been a member of the Russian Social Democratic Labor Party (SRDLP) and had been arrested in 1918 for his political activities. He was later released and went into exile in the United States, where he continued to write and speak out against the Russian government.

Why does The New Masses publish articles exposing political figures? The New Masses was a platform for American socialists and Communists. It was later taken over by the Soviet government in 1920, and its editors were arrested and imprisoned. The article exposing Krivitsky was one of the few works published by The New Masses that was not censored by the Soviet government.

The New Masses was founded in 1912 as a platform for American socialists and Communists. It was later taken over by the Soviet government in 1920, and its editors were arrested and imprisoned. The article exposing Krivitsky was one of the few works published by The New Masses that was not censored by the Soviet government.

The New Masses was founded in 1912 as a platform for American socialists and Communists. It was later taken over by the Soviet government in 1920, and its editors were arrested and imprisoned. The article exposing Krivitsky was one of the few works published by The New Masses that was not censored by the Soviet government.

The New Masses was founded in 1912 as a platform for American socialists and Communists. It was later taken over by the Soviet government in 1920, and its editors were arrested and imprisoned. The article exposing Krivitsky was one of the few works published by The New Masses that was not censored by the Soviet government.