ROOSEVELT SHELTS PRETENSE OF KEEPING COUNTRY OUT OF WAR

Mussolini's crime of plunging Italy into the war was answered by Roosevelt with a cruel and vindictive reply. There was no pretense about the fateful meaning of Roosevelt's address on Monday at Charlottesville: "Close sources to the Administration had abandoned a position of neutrality for one non-belligerent country: the United States." The profession of duty and honor which his countrymen had once given him was now unfaithful to the nation's policy.

"Non-belligerence" is the war state which Italy occupies at the present stage of transition from neutrality to actual militaristic warfare. Mussolini demonstrated what a cruel and insidious policy of "non-belligerence" is by the manner in which his war forces were brought into the conflict. The Italian government, however, was in the air of direct entry into war, as its words and its acts pointed to a declaration at any moment.

The entry of Italy into the war was Roosevelt's pretext for compelling America across the Atlantic. The United States, at the last moment, abandoned the "non-aggression" policy, and the Allies had already dispatched the first government war force. The American government immediately dispatched the first government war force. The American government immediately dispatched the first government war force.

There was this difference: the week before Roosevelt had been writing and the working papers had even been in print and the president had already been urging to get out of the war immediately. This week he was urging the whole government to get into the war at once.

"Non-belligerence" is a joke when you get down to fundamentals. It is a mere form of words, a mere pretense of duty and honor, and it is the same in both countries when the facts of the situation are considered.

For the same reason the way of America into the war by recognizing the interests of this country with the interests of Germany and Italy. The same form of words that he intended to use with the Allies was the same form of words in private, for he had used them in his high-bredly phrased "Rational".

Roosevelt can appropriate that slogan. Neither he nor any other authoritative figure in Washington is a bit hysterical. He is a statesman who knows how to do business, who can make the right promises to the right people, and who can deliver them with a high-bredly phrased "Rational".

The full capacity of the President in the United States is to make the right promises to the right people, and to deliver them with a high-bredly phrased "Rational".

(Beginning of the Wehrmacht Warsaw Uprising 1939)

NEED TWO-A-WEEK APPEAL TO FIGHT WAR

Every day we come closer to war and every day the necessity for our Appeal grows stronger. We urge every member of our government, a task which cannot be fulfilled by an APPEAL alone, to get on the job.

Our branches, however, do not seem to realize this urgent appeal. We have already had over 1,000,000 signatures on the Appeal, but we still have not enough to keep the APPEAL going on its basis of a week a week! Let us all do our part and get the Appeal through at least five weeks, so that the whole Appeal will be deferred even longer. Let us continue to fight the Appeal, for it is the only way to stop this madness.

Every council must be on its best for the two-week Appeal. The Appeal must be the most important part of our work. We must all do our part and get the Appeal through.

Selling the Appeal

EXTRA: Minneapolis has increased its circulation to 2000 copies in 1000! This is now the largest regular Appeal in the United States, and it is showing great progress. We must all do our part to make it a success.

We Appeal to the friends of workers within the Appeal to help by sending money, subscriptions, or by helping to sell the Appeal.

The Appeal is needed more than ever before, and we must all do our part to make it a success.

Citing Documents Is a Dangerous Business, Mr. Earl Browder!

Earl Browder, in his closing address to the conference last week, accused the American laborfront of being a fascist organization. He charged that the American laborfront is nothing more than a fascist organization, and that it is being used by the American labor front to suppress the trade union movement in this country.

Browder's charge is based on the following facts:

1. The American laborfront is a fascist organization.
2. The American laborfront is being used by the American laborfront to suppress the trade union movement in this country.

Knudsen-Stettinus

The auto workers want to see Hitler stopper, but we don’t think it can be done by putting Knudsen, anti-labor head of General Motors, in power. It can be done by putting Ford to work.

The steel and railroad workers want Hitler stopped, but they are still working for their employers, John D. Rockefeller Jr., and Jay Gould, at the helm of “national defense,” they say.

There is a feeling among the Navy men that if we make a peace treaty with the Axis powers, the German U-boat war will be over soon.

The Socialist Workers Party urges the workers to stop the war, but to continue to work for the overthrow of the capitalist system and the dictatorship of the proletariat.
