Letter V
My dear Jude,

I must write you tonight. I have something important to tell you. I have been thinking about our on-growing business and how we can improve it. I think we should be more aggressive. We should find new ways to make more profits. We should think about the future of our business. I believe we can do better. I have some ideas that I would like to discuss with you.

Yours truly,

Guaranteed Losers

By George B. Kirkpatrick

The case of the Socialist Labor Party is a far from happy one. The party is full of poorly organized sections, and the leaders are not at all energetic in their efforts to attract new members. The party is also full of poorly educated leaders, who are not capable of giving the party the guidance it needs.

The Socialist Labor Party has never been able to organize a successful labor movement, and it is likely that it will never be able to do so. The party is full of poorly educated leaders, who are not capable of giving the party the guidance it needs.
