Bankers in Move to Smash Europe's State Industries

We Were Dragged Into War by Lies, Says Wilson's Pal

Mexican House Sustains Calles Overwhelmingly

Advocates War Churches Join to Aid America

Government Secrets Held Dearer Than Sacco and Vanzetti Lives

British Miners to Fight Bosses To Last Ditch

Troops Used to Conscript Negro Labor in Miami

Big Business"
Nation-wide Activities of the Socialist Party

APPEAL FUND FOR THE WEEK

The Socialist Appeal is trying to raise $20,000 for the socialist cause in the United States. This money will be used to support the activities of the Socialist Party organization in this country.

CAMPAIGN ISSUE

The Socialist Appeal will be distributed to homes and offices in order to reach as many people as possible. The Appeal will be distributed to keep the Socialist Party organization informed of the latest developments.

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS DEFINE ATTITUDES TO AFRICAN ALLIANCE

The Italian Socialist Party has defined its attitude to the African Alliance. The Italian Socialists have decided to support the African Alliance and work towards its objectives.

WISCONSIN SOCIALISTS LAUNCH BIG CAMPAIGN

The Wisconsin Socialist Party is launching a big campaign to support the socialist cause. The campaign will be carried out in the state of Wisconsin and will involve distributing the Socialist Appeal.

CALIFORNIA CAMPAIGN NEWS

The California Socialist Party is also launching a campaign to support the socialist cause. The campaign will be carried out in the state of California and will involve distributing the Socialist Appeal.

9,000 AT PICNIC OF READING SOCIALISTS

The Reading Socialist Picnic will be held on the 15th of this month. The picnic will be attended by 9,000 socialist sympathizers who will be convinced of the need for the socialist cause.

YOUTH PACIFISTS IN NEW ALLIANCE

The Youth Pacifists are organizing a new alliance to support the peace movement. The alliance will be called the New Alliance and will be formed to work towards the establishment of a world where war is no more.

DOUGLES

John D. Rockefeller, Sr. and J. P. Morgan, Jr. donated $100,000 each to the campaign.

SINGLES

Mrs. A. B. Smith and Miss A. B. Smith donated $100 each to the campaign.

WOLFE

Of the 9,000 who attended the picnic, 4,500 were women and 4,500 were men.

VOLKSTMIME

German Socialist Weekly

Eugen Heidt, Editor

This week's editorial focuses on the need for unity among socialists in order to achieve their goals.

THE NEW LEADER

A new socialist weekly in Boston.

THE CAROLINA INDEPENDENT

A new socialist weekly in North Carolina.

VOERTWAERTS

A German socialist weekly in Baltimore.
American Appeal

The Appeal Question Box

About Competition

We are told that the question of the day is, 'What about competition?'

The filling station, Lincoln Phifer

The End of a Perfect Folly
By Adam Coalagar

The Edward Glenn

With the Workers Around the World

Sweet Land of Liberty

The Time to Strike
By William Herbert Garnett

We Must, We Can, We Shall Won't We?
By Lincoln Phifer

The Parish of Peace

SAVAGES
By Adam Prohl

The World of Shadows

With the Workers Around the World (Continued from Page 1)

POLICE RAID FOR BEATING A WOMAN

Demand U.S. Recall of Ambassador

Babson Warns of A Coming Slump

BANKERS IN MOVE TO SMASH

The appeal of competition is great, but it is not so great as the appeal of the filling station.

Of course I am not a man of peace, and I do not agree with all of the station's policies, but I am glad all the same.

The Edward Glenn

With the Workers Around the World

The Time to Strike

We Must, We Can, We Shall Won't We?

The Parish of Peace

SAVAGES
By Adam Prohl

The World of Shadows

With the Workers Around the World (Continued from Page 1)

POLICE RAID FOR BEATING A WOMAN

Demand U.S. Recall of Ambassador

Babson Warns of A Coming Slump

BANKERS IN MOVE TO SMASH

The appeal of competition is great, but it is not so great as the appeal of the filling station.

Of course I am not a man of peace, and I do not agree with all of the station's policies, but I am glad all the same.

The Edward Glenn

With the Workers Around the World

The Time to Strike

We Must, We Can, We Shall Won't We?

The Parish of Peace

SAVAGES
By Adam Prohl

The World of Shadows

With the Workers Around the World (Continued from Page 1)

POLICE RAID FOR BEATING A WOMAN

Demand U.S. Recall of Ambassador

Babson Warns of A Coming Slump

BANKERS IN MOVE TO SMASH

The appeal of competition is great, but it is not so great as the appeal of the filling station.

Of course I am not a man of peace, and I do not agree with all of the station's policies, but I am glad all the same.
Public and Private Ownership in New York—A Contrast

The New Spiritual Forces Among the Youth of Russia

Monstrous War Debt Hoax Is Punctured By Maynard Keynes

Capitalism Versus Socialism

Debated by Shaw and Garvin

Extent of Municipal Ownership in U.S.

Covington Hall Flays Legion Attack on Workers' College

American Appeal, 2122 Washington Blvd, Chicago, Ill.

SUBSCRIPTION LIST

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Street Name</th>
<th>City</th>
<th>State</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Editor's Note

The following is a reprint of an article written by Carmen J. Stanyer, editor of the New York Times.

The question of public and private ownership in New York is a pressing one today. The city is faced with a crisis due to the rapid growth of its population and the need for additional infrastructure. The debate between public and private ownership is a complex one, with each side having its own advantages and disadvantages.

Comparison of Capitalization

New York, March 1, 1919—The difficulty of obtaining capital for public works projects in New York City is critical at present. The city's population has grown rapidly, leading to a need for additional infrastructure. However, the availability of capital is limited, and the city is facing a challenge in securing the funds necessary for these projects.

The city is currently considering the possibility of issuing bonds to raise the necessary funds. This would provide a means for the city to access capital, but it also raises concerns about the impact on public finances and the potential for increased debt.

The city is also exploring the possibility of partnerships with private companies to fund these projects. This approach has the advantage of leveraging private capital, but it also raises concerns about the potential for private interests to influence the direction of the city's infrastructure projects.

The debate between public and private ownership is complex, and there are no clear answers. The city must carefully consider the pros and cons of each approach to ensure that it is making the best possible decision for the city and its residents.

The New Spiritual Forces Among the Youth of Russia

While American youth is largely concerned with the material aspects of life, the youth of Russia is embracing a new spirituality. This new spirituality is characterized by a renewed interest in traditional values and a desire to connect with the spiritual traditions of the past.

The movement is gaining momentum, with many young people finding solace and meaning in their faith. This is particularly true in the nôngst, the rural areas of Russia, where the tradition of farming and the connection to the land are seen as vital to spiritual well-being.

While the movement is still in its early stages, it is already making a significant impact. Many young people are finding a sense of purpose and a sense of community through this new spiritual practice.

Monstrous War Debt Hoax Is Punctured By Maynard Keynes

The so-called "war debt" is a huge issue in today's world, with many countries struggling to pay back the massive amounts they owe. In his article, Maynard Keynes punctures the myth of the "war debt," arguing that it is a monstrous lie.

Keynes points out that the "war debt" is a figment of the capitalist imagination, and that it is in fact a means for the capitalist class to maintain their power and control over the world economy. He argues that the "war debt" is a tool for the exploitation of the masses, and that it is time to reject this monstrous lie.

Capitalism Versus Socialism

Debated by Shaw and Garvin

The debate between capitalism and socialism continues to rage, with each side citing its own advantages and disadvantages. In his article, Shaw and Garvin provide a balanced perspective on the issues.

Shaw argues that capitalism is a system that rewards innovation and creativity, and that it has been a key driver of economic growth and progress. However, he also acknowledges the negative effects of capitalism, such as inequality and the exploitation of workers.

Garvin, on the other hand, argues that socialism is a system that provides for the needs of all its citizens, and that it is a more equitable system. He points out that socialism has been successful in many countries around the world, but also acknowledges the challenges that come with implementing such a system.

The debate between capitalism and socialism is complex, and there are no clear answers. However, it is clear that both systems have their advantages and disadvantages, and that the key is to find a balance that works for the people.

Extent of Municipal Ownership in U.S.

There is a growing trend towards municipal ownership in the United States, with many cities and towns exploring the possibility of taking on more responsibility for public services. In his article, the author provides a detailed look at the extent of municipal ownership in the country.

The author points out that municipal ownership can provide a number of advantages, such as increased control over decision-making and a greater focus on the needs of the community. However, he also acknowledges the challenges that come with municipal ownership, such as the need for financial management skills.

Covington Hall Flays Legion Attack on Workers' College

Covington Hall, a prominent member of the labor movement, has been harshly critical of the American Legion's attack on workers' college. In his article, he argues that the Legion is an organization that is fundamentally opposed to the workers' movement.

He points out that the Legion is a group of rich men who are trying to maintain their power and control over society, and that they are using their influence to undermine the efforts of those who are fighting for a better world. Covington Hall calls for a united front against the Legion, and for the workers to continue their fight for a more just and equitable society.

The article concludes with a call to action, urging the workers to continue to fight for their rights and to refuse to be intimidated by the Legion.