Socialist Party States Position on U.S. Policy In Latin America and War

The following is an official manifesto of the Socialist Party of the United States, adopted by the National Executive Committee during the War. The position of the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Party, in common with all other socialists, is that the Latin American nations have a right to self-determination, and for self-determination the Latin American nations must be given a platform from which to explain their position to the world. The Socialist Party wholeheartedly supports the Latin American nations in their fight against colonialism and war. The Socialist Party believes that the Latin American nations should be permitted to express their wills freely and without interference by any foreign power.

U. S. State Department Prevented Oil Agreement

Read very carefully this statement available in the Latin American journals. The statement was made by the Latin American statesmen in response to the attempts of the United States to obtain an oil agreement with the Latin American states.

From The Pen of Debs

State Oil Saved North Dakota One Million in 1926

From Return of Farmers to Political Life in North Dakota

Hindenburg Acts To Save German Army for Junkers

Bergen Exposes Shameful Policy in Latin America

Senate Votes to Arbitrate

Coolidge Closes Gate to Peace Opened by Mexico

A. F. O. L. Head Hits Arbitration Stand of Coolidge

President Ready to Risk War in Defense of Capitalist Investments

Coolidge Closes Gate to Peace Opened by Mexico

WASHINGrne—President Coolidge Thursday morning offered the American Nation his plow and his own personal self as a means of guaranteeing the peaceful settlement of the Far Eastern question, which is now on the verge of war. The President's statement is the result of an interview with the representatives of the United States. The interview took place at the White House, and the President said: "I am not going to take any action that will endanger the peace of the United States. I am not going to take any action that will endanger the peace of the world. I am not going to take any action that will endanger the peace of the world."

British Capitalism Puts Its O. K. On Italian Fascism

Winston Churchill, Foreign Secretary of the British Government, on Monday, announced that the British Government had decided to recognize the Fascist régime in Italy.

International Labor Is Against U. S. Imperialism

LONDON—American intervention in the Latin American republics is not the only threat to the world's peace. The Latin American republics themselves are threatened by the aggressive policies of the United States. The Latin American republics have a right to be represented in the United Nations, and the United States has no right to interfere with the internal affairs of the Latin American republics.

Most Oil Interests Signed With Mexico

Washington—The Mexican government has signed an oil agreement with the United States. The agreement provides for the United States to receive 50 per cent of the profits from the sale of Mexican oil, and the United States to receive 50 per cent of the Mexican oil production.

Final Renewal Warning

A general letter has been sent out this week to all who have been subscribers to the Appeal for a year or more. The letter states that all subscriptions will expire within the next month, and that the subscribers will receive a renewal notice unless they renew their subscriptions before the expiration of the month.

THIS IS THE LAST NOTICE TO THOSE WHOSE SUBSCRIPTIONS EXPIRE ON JUNE 15TH. PLEASE RE-NEW AT ONCE THEIR SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE CUTOFF.

Don't lose your connections with your paper, with the movement, and with your friends throughout the world this year! As you read this, the Appeal and the Movement needs your support and you need the Appeal and the Movement.
State Ownership Is Success Under Labor Government

New South Wales Industries Grow and Earn Money

By W. Francis Abern

SYDNEY—State-owned and co-operative businesses are making a profit in New South Wales, and a flying start has been made in the field of co-operative production. The director-general of industry, Mr. G. S. H. Kavanagh, has been exalted to a place on the board of directors, and the State Government has a large financial interest in the co-operative movement. The State Government is also making a profit in the field of co-operative production. The State Government is also making a profit in the field of co-operative production.

Ford Shows How Machinery Ousts Skilled Workers

The comparatively high wages of skilled workers are on the wane. As factories become larger and more modern, they are employing fewer skilled workers and more women. The result is that the cost of production is reduced. The cost of skilled labor is reduced, and it is cheaper to employ women in factories.

Municipal Socialism in Glasgow

The mayor of municipal socialism in Glasgow, the second city of Scotland, has taken a new step. There are two areas of the city, the west area and the east area. The west area is planned with a view to the reduction of cost and the raising of wages. The east area is planned with a view to the reduction of cost and the raising of wages. The area of municipal socialism is planned with a view to the reduction of cost and the raising of wages.

Chances Good for Government-Owned Boulder Dam Plan

WASHINGTON—A five-day conference on the Boulder Dam project, held here, has been held. The conference was held to consider the future of the Boulder Dam project. The conference was held to consider the future of the Boulder Dam project.

9 Faiths Join In War On War

Representatives of nine great religions, offices and organizations have met in Washington for the purpose of organizing a National War on War. The representatives of the nine great religions, offices and organizations have met in Washington for the purpose of organizing a National War on War.

Low Muscle Shoals Bids Threat of U. S. Operation

WASHINGTON—Some bids for the construction of the Muscle Shoals dam project have been received. The bids are for the construction of the Muscle Shoals dam project. The bids are for the construction of the Muscle Shoals dam project.

British Labor Backs Way Leaders Handled

The General Strike in England was handled in a manner that was expected by the British Labour Party. The British Labour Party handled the General Strike in a manner that was expected by the British Labour Party.

U. S. to Stay In Nicaragua

WASHINGTON—The U. S. is determined to stay in Nicaragua. The U. S. is determined to stay in Nicaragua. The U. S. is determined to stay in Nicaragua.
American Appeal

Coolidge Behind Big Business
In Mexico, Rich Brokers Admit

The following is an excerpt from an article written by the National Industrial Conference Board and published in the New York Times. It discusses the American connection in the Mexican capital market and the role of American brokers and financiers in the Mexican economy.

APPEAL'S FEATURE DEPARTMENT

Harry W. Laidler, Editor

Twenty Years of American "Diplomacy" With Nicaragua

A Tale Kellogg

Has the United States, in its twenty years of "diplomacy" with Nicaragua, been treated as a friend or a foe? The answer, according to some observers, is "both." But the overall relationship has been one of "diplomacy" rather than "hard" power. This article explores the history of U.S.-Nicaraguan relations and examines the impact of American investments and influence on the country.

NEWS AND VIEWS

Mexico Puts Coolidge and Kelllogg on Trial

The Mexican government has decided to put Coolidge and Kelllogg on trial for their roles in the 1914 intervention in Mexico. The trial is scheduled to begin next month.

State Mill Saves Million in 1926

The state mill saved a million dollars in 1926 by implementing efficiency measures.

Will We Pay the Price?

The price of American stock and bond offerings in 1926. The discussion includes the impact of international markets on American financial markets.

Hindenburg Acts to Save Junkers Army

Hindenburg, the German commander-in-chief, has taken steps to save the Junkers Army from collapse.

Need of Organization (Continued from page 3)

The need for better organization in the rail industry. The article discusses the importance of standardization and the need for a national organization to promote these goals.

Radio Gag Foreshadowed

By Coolidge Statement

A statement by Coolidge foreshadowing the use of radio for political purposes. The article discusses the potential impact of radio on politics and the need for regulation to prevent abuse.

American Appeal

January 29, 1927

(Continued on page 4)
The Blood Lust

By Henry Flury

A report by the Associated Press on the matter in which the Royal Hungarian Airlines was involved in a most serious air crash recently revealed the existence of a secret society that has been operating in Europe for several years. This society, known as the Brotherhood of the Blood, has been engaged in a ruthless campaign to undermine the authority of governments and the stability of nations. It has been responsible for a series of acts of violence and terrorism, which have resulted in the deaths of many people. The society's宗旨 is to create a world order based on chaos and destruction, and it has gained a following from among the most powerful and influential people in Europe. The society's leaders are believed to be responsible for the recent events in Europe, including the war in Europe, the rise of the Nazis, and the establishment of the Soviet Union.

The society has a network of cells throughout Europe, and its members are known to be involved in criminal activities, such as smuggling and blackmail. The society's leaders are believed to be in control of a vast network of wealthy supporters, and they are believed to have access to large sums of money. The society's leaders are also believed to have access to advanced technologies and weapons, which they use to further their goals.

The society's leaders are believed to be in control of a vast network of wealthy supporters, and they are believed to have access to large sums of money. The society's leaders are also believed to have access to advanced technologies and weapons, which they use to further their goals. The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.

The society's leaders are believed to have a strong influence over the governments of Europe, and they are believed to have a direct role in the affairs of many countries. The society's leaders are believed to have access to powerful individuals, such as politicians, military leaders, and industrialists, and they are believed to have a great deal of influence over their decisions. The society's leaders are believed to have the ability to manipulate events, and they are believed to be capable of changing the course of history.