Fourth of July Is Shunned This Year In South America

Corrida Imperium Own
Latin Delegates to Labor

Thanks to the wisdom and statesmanship of South America, the Fourth of July, despite its national significance, is not being observed in any of the countries of the Western Hemisphere. This is due to the fact that the South American countries have decided to observe the labor holiday instead of their own national holidays. The governments of the countries of South America have declared the Fourth of July a legal holiday, and many of the workers in those countries have taken the day off to participate in labor activities.

150,000 Strike for Sacco and Vanzetti In New York Unions

From The Pen of Debs (Completely Different)

Politicans and Preachers

—Both sides have their men. Both have their Republics, both have their Governments, both have their Capitalists, both have their Labor Unions, and both have their Freemasons.

The labor strikers in New York are fighting for the right to organize and to strike. The government is fighting against them. The strikers are fighting for the right to have their voices heard. The government is fighting to keep them silent.

DIVIDENDS INCREASE AS EMPLOYMENT DECREASES

Monskey, power and machinery development, the creation of wealth—a three-headed monster, the engine of capitalism has been driven by the workers. To traverse the world, to conquer the West, to tear down the barriers of labor unions, to intensify the struggle of the worker against the employer, has been the purpose of the monster. But the divisions have increased as employment has decreased. A case of the popular condition, as applied to the present time, is the situation in New York City, where the strikers have been on strike for a week. The strikers are demanding a 10-hour day, and the employers are offering a 7-hour day. The strikers refuse to accept the offer, and the employers refuse to accept the demand. The situation is getting worse, and the workers are becoming more determined.

Unemployment Gains Throughout Nation

The April is May decrease, the May is June increase of employment has been the case throughout the nation. The total amount of unemployment has increased from 50,000 to 100,000. The total distribution in wages has decreased from $200,000 to $100,000. The total number of workers has decreased from 10,000 to 5,000. The total amount of money spent on wages has decreased from $1,000,000 to $500,000.

Is Socialism a Good Cause?
By Beryl Sydor

Is Socialism a Good Cause? is a question that has been debated for many years. Some people believe that socialism is a good cause because it provides a way for people to work together for the common good. Others believe that socialism is a bad cause because it leads to government control of the economy and an end to individual freedom.

Money Nationalization - Why It Alone Will Not Save Producer

Sears Farm Cure-all In Nationalizing Money

Sears, Roebuck & Co., the nation's largest retail store, has recently announced its plan to nationalize money. The company has stated that it is necessary to put an end to the current system of private control of money, which is detrimental to both producers and consumers.

Editor's Reply

It is important to put an end to the current system of private control of money. Nationalization of money would allow for a more equitable distribution of wealth and would benefit both producers and consumers.

How The Richest Nation On Earth Is Becoming Poorest

The Richest Nation On Earth

America's Unparalleled Career in Land, Exploration and Waste

By Stuart Chase

America's history has been one of unparalleled exploration and exploitation. From the early days of European settlement to the present, America has been a land of opportunity and growth. However, this growth has come at a cost, and America is now facing the consequences of its past actions.

The nation is in a state of crisis. The economy is stagnant, and the middle class is shrinking. The nation is also facing environmental challenges, and the climate is warming. The country is in need of change, and it is up to the people to make it happen.

Public Ownership

Public ownership under direct public ownership has been proven to be successful in many countries. It is important to take advantage of this success and move towards a more democratic economy.

Industrial Plant

There has been a trend towards the privatization of public services. This trend must be reversed, and public ownership must be restored.

Conclusion

The nation is facing a crisis, and it is up to the people to make the necessary changes. The time for action is now, and it is important to move towards a more democratic and sustainable economy.
