Is Washington Back Of Indictment Of Germer And 12 Others At Grand Rapids?  May Clear Mystery at Hearing, June 25

The indictment of Adolph Germer, national secretary of the Socialist Party, and 12 others who are in Grand Rapids, Michigan, is no longer a mystery in the district court at Grand Rapids. Michigan. The indictment was filed June 12, but for some reason it was not made public until now. The indictment charges Germer and his associates with阴谋 to produce the intended destruction of the Republican party, and to bring about the destruction of the government of the United States. The charges are based on statements made by Germer and others that they intended to overthrow the government by force and violence.

The indictment is significant because it is the first case of its kind in which a Socialist has been charged with the intent to overthrow the government. It is also significant because it shows that the Socialist Party is not afraid to stand up for its principles, even if it means going to jail.

The trial will be held in the federal court at Grand Rapids on June 25. It is expected to last for several days. The defendants will be represented by a team of lawyers who specialize in constitutional law.

The Socialist Party is a revolutionary socialist party that was founded in 1901. It is one of the oldest socialist parties in the world. The party is committed to the overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a socialist society. The party is known for its strong defense of civil liberties and its opposition to war and militarism.

The party has a strong presence in the United States, and it has a large number of members and supporters. The party is also active in other countries around the world.

The party is led by a national committee, which is elected every four years. The national committee is responsible for making policy decisions and for representing the party in the media.

The party publishes a monthly newspaper, the "Socialist Review," which is distributed free of charge. The newspaper is available online at the party's website, www.socialistparty.org.

The party has a strong social and educational program. It sponsors lectures, seminars, and workshops on a wide range of topics, including economics, politics, and culture.

The party is committed to the principle of direct democracy. It believes that the best way to make decisions is by the direct participation of the people. The party is also committed to the principle of equal rights for all people, regardless of race, gender, or sexual orientation.

The party is committed to the principle of international solidarity. It believes that the struggle for social justice is a global struggle, and that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people.

The party is committed to the principle of nonviolence. It believes that violent action is never justified, and that we must work to resolve conflicts peacefully.

The party is committed to the principle of internationalism. It believes that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people, regardless of where they live.

The party is committed to the principle of scientific socialism. It believes that socialism is the only way to achieve a just and equal society.

The party is committed to the principle of democratic socialism. It believes that democracy is essential to the success of socialism.

The party is committed to the principle of solidarity. It believes that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people.

The party is committed to the principle of internationalism. It believes that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people, regardless of where they live.

The party is committed to the principle of nonviolence. It believes that violent action is never justified, and that we must work to resolve conflicts peacefully.

The party is committed to the principle of scientific socialism. It believes that socialism is the only way to achieve a just and equal society.

The party is committed to the principle of democratic socialism. It believes that democracy is essential to the success of socialism.

The party is committed to the principle of solidarity. It believes that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people.

The party is committed to the principle of internationalism. It believes that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people, regardless of where they live.

The party is committed to the principle of nonviolence. It believes that violent action is never justified, and that we must work to resolve conflicts peacefully.

The party is committed to the principle of scientific socialism. It believes that socialism is the only way to achieve a just and equal society.

The party is committed to the principle of democratic socialism. It believes that democracy is essential to the success of socialism.

The party is committed to the principle of solidarity. It believes that we must work together to make the world a better place for all people.
THE Flag Day Speech

BY IRWIN S. JOHN TUCKER.

It is the object of this address to impress upon the minds of the citizens of America the necessity of making the celebration of the Fourth of July a sacred day of national thanksgiving and of patriotism. The day should be observed with true national pride and joy, and with a deep and lasting love for our country.

The Flag Day Speech

THE CALL OF THE WILD

BY J. JACK LONDON.

This address calls for the recognition of the importance of the national flag in the life of our nation. The flag is a symbol of our country, and should be respected and revered by all citizens.

THE Riches of the Nation

BY W. H. THOMAS.

This address speaks of the wealth of our nation and the importance of preserving it. The nation's riches are its greatest asset, and must be protected at all costs.

For Majority Report

The majority report of the recent committee meeting is presented, with a discussion of the issues at hand. It is hoped that the report will be of benefit to all citizens, and that it will guide them in making informed decisions.

Leaflets!

"The Price We Pay" by Irwin Tucker.

This leaflet highlights the economic struggles faced by citizens, and calls for action to address these issues. It is hoped that the information provided will be of benefit to those who are struggling.

"Protect Your Rights" by Ralph Kornblut.

This leaflet provides information on the rights of citizens, and encourages them to stand up for their rights. It is hoped that the information provided will be of benefit to those who are unaware of their rights.

Anti-War Proclamation and Program (Adapted for Circulation)

This address calls for the end of war and the establishment of a more peaceful world. It is hoped that the message will be of benefit to all citizens, and that it will inspire them to work towards a more peaceful future.

The National Office, Socialist Party

803 West Madison St., Chicago, Ill.
$1,000 For Subs In One Week Smashes All Records In History Of Our Paper

HERE'S good news for the comrades on the firing line. The receipts for subs for the week ending Saturday, June 16, tallied an even $1,000—the biggest week in the history of the paper. COMPARABLE THIS TO THE $500 received DURING THE ENTIRE MONTH OF MARCH, THE EXACT DAY AT THE Beginning-of-month of the Socialist stuck on the job last Saturday until the last mail was in. We just made it. We want to smash this record this week. We can do it easily. At their great annual picnic, Sunday, June 17, attended by 50,000 men, women and children, the Comrades took in 1,900 subs to the Socialist and 1,000 subs to the New York and New York Socialists. Let the comrades in every city, town and hamlet of the nation take up the pace set by our Chicago comrades. Do your bit and do it now!
United Socialists Victorious In Petrograd Municipal Elections; Rout Liberals

UNITED SOCIALIST Party has scored a smashing success in the municipal elections in Petrograd. The Socialists are completely in the majority, according to the official returns of the qualified electors, 355,000, of whom 330,000 voted for the Socialists, or a majority of 21,000. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists were opposed by the Liberals, who ran a bad second. Those who voted on the Socialist ticket numbered 330,000, while those who voted on the Liberal ticket numbered 270,000. Of the total number of votes cast, 80,000 were cast for the Socialists, or a majority of 40,000. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.

The Socialists are the only political party that has a majority in the city council. The Socialists are in the majority in all the wards of the city except one, which is a small ward of the left bank. The Socialists have also a majority in the city council.