NOW WATCH HER
GET THERE, BOYS!

I never heard of a weekly coming and selling 500,000 copies of one single issue. You are going to do it. People haven't stopped talking about it. Out this way the mail clerks had to work at night. We had a whole carload. She was a whole train. Train after train

The smallest papers throughout the country, are opening a press point, each one of which is doing a steady business. The office clerks and the paper boys are working hard. And the department stores could not be expected to put anything out. They didn't know what to do. It was a case of just getting the paper to the office.

HOW MANY PEOPLE
HAD THE PAPER?

The people who couldn't sell the paper are the ones who have been doing the selling. It was an extraordinary thing to see. The people who sold the paper were the ones who had never been in the newspaper business before. There was a lot of work that had to be done. And the people who worked hard were the ones who had the best results.

WHAT DID THE PAPER
DO IN THE CITY?

The Chicago Tribune was one of the first to get out. They sold 100,000 copies in the city. The New York Times sold 150,000 copies in the city. The Philadelphia Inquirer sold 200,000 copies in the city. And the Boston Globe sold 250,000 copies in the city.

ARE THERE ANY PROBLEMS?

There are two main problems. The first is the cost of the paper. The second is the cost of the printing. The paper is being sold at a loss. The printing is being done at a loss. And the people who sell the paper are not making any money.

WHAT ARE THE FUTURE PLANS?

The future plans are to sell the paper in the city and then to sell it in the suburbs. The suburbs will be sold at a higher price. The city will be sold at a lower price. And the people who sell the paper in the city will be making a profit.

ARE THERE ANY PLANS FOR THE COUNTRY?

The plans for the country are to sell the paper in every town. The paper will be sold in every town. The people who sell the paper in every town will be making a profit.

ARE THERE ANY
PLANS FOR THE WORLD?

The plans for the world are to sell the paper in every country. The paper will be sold in every country. The people who sell the paper in every country will be making a profit.

ARE THERE ANY PLANS FOR THE UNIVERSE?

The plans for the universe are to sell the paper in every universe. The paper will be sold in every universe. The people who sell the paper in every universe will be making a profit.
The End of the Beginning in America

The history of the young and vigorous social democrat party will some day be written, and the men who have lived in its great growth and development will tell the tale with pride and confidence. The party has won its first battle, and it is a battle which may be said to have been fought and won on all sides. The people have heard the call of the party, and they have responded. The party has taken root, and it is a root which will not wither nor fade.

Mayor Hart of Boston, whom the laborers love, and who has been recognized to organize labor or trade union officials to buy and vote for a party of their own, the social democrats, to take their place in the political arena.

Dr. Gann, the well-known inventor, says that he is willing to give his entire fortune to aid the social democrats.

The German social democrats are solidly opposed to the idea of a new German republic. Another social democrat, known as the Rosettian, has been established in Paris to combat the reformist element.

Dr. Pasteur, the famous chemist, now a social democrat, says, "I believe in the social democratic party, and I shall vote for it in the future."

Several important cities in Sweden have been carried by the social democrats, who are expected to gain control in the next elections.

Judge Elmore, treasurer of the Minnesota Federation of Great Britain, has been elected to the university board. Mr. Jones, private banker in the middle West, says, "I shall vote for the social democratic party for the sake of the nation."

A bill has been introduced in the parliament of Belgium by the social democrats, providing for a larger national budget and a decrease in the public debt.

The Norwegian social union is planning a systematic strikes to force employers to recognize the right of workers to form unions.

One can talk on the government-owned telegraph lines without paying anything, and the cost of coal is only 15 cents a ton in the city.

The great strike of 12,500 insurance clerks in New York is still going on, and the socialists are mediating the settlement of the mass destruction of the party.

The capitalist press of Switzerland continues its opposition to the social democrats, and the socialist vote is in large republic in the next general election.

Social democrats of England will issue a manifesto condemning the war with the United States, and they are preparing to meet on the 1st of the next month.

The socialists and the laborers who are in this country a year ago, are now deputy members in the new congress and 90 minutes in the election to parliament.

The American railway workers, in the number of 20,500, are on strike in St. Louis, and the city is in utter chaos.

M. Hoist, a prominent Belgian, has been elected to a position in the government, and his investigation shows that there is a great deal of corruption in the existing government.

It is reported from Paris that the French government is preparing to send troops to suppress the social unrest in Bulgaria.

The power of the socialists has increased in accordance with the general trend of events.

Professor from Russia, the capital of the German Empire, says that the socialists and laborers are leading the workers to the victory.

A congress of working men belonging to the Jewish social democratic party will be held in St. Petersburg. Many of the 150 delegates come from Central Europe, and they are preparing to take the leadership of the social democratic movement.

A special election for members of the legislature in the state of Illinois has been held, and the new labor party is in the fight. The social democrats, for instance, are carrying on a large campaign to carry the state.

The capital of the world is in a state of unrest, and the social democrats are taking the lead in the social agitation.

The name of a Socialist Party, or, as the papers say, "The People's Party," has been announced, and it is expected to take a prominent part in the political arena.

The socialists, Paul Pastin, has been elected to the lower house of the parliament in 1894, and he is a leader of the social democratic party in the state of Michigan.

Another reason that many nations fought for the cause of social democracy is international, and it is said that the great statesmen of the world might take the lead in the great social crisis.

It should be understood that the word "socialistic" is a misnomer. The word "socialistic" is just word that has been used to designate the philosophy of the socialists, and it is expected to become an obsolete term.

The social democrats are fighting for the freedom of the workers, and they are determined to make the world a better place for all people.
The Strike of Pittsburg, Pa., Printers

The lockout of the Pittsburg, Pa., printers was caused by the Newspaper Publisher Association (NPPA) and is causing a significant labor protest in the printing industry. On December 16th the employer in the newspaper publishing industry, the newspapers' employees, and the print workers, met to discuss the lockout. The publishers have decided to continue the strike, and the print workers have decided to continue the strike. The strike has been ongoing since December 16th and is expected to continue until a resolution is reached.

The strike is due to the disagreement between the publishers and the print workers over wages and working conditions. The publishers have offered to increase wages and improve working conditions, but the print workers have rejected the offer and continue to demand even more. The strike is causing a significant disruption in the printing industry and is affecting the ability of newspapers to be printed and published.

The strike has also caused a significant impact on the local economy. The printers are not being paid and are unable to work, which is causing a loss of income for them. The newspapers are unable to be printed and published, which is causing a loss of income for the publishers. The strike is also causing a loss of income for the local businesses that rely on the newspapers for advertising.

The strike has been ongoing for several weeks and there is no end in sight. The publishers and the print workers are continuing to negotiate, but they have not reached an agreement. The strike is expected to continue until a resolution is reached.

John Ruskis Dead

John Ruskis, the most famous art critic of his time, has passed away. He was a significant figure in the art world and his contributions will be remembered for years to come.

Ruskis was born in 1890 in New York City. He began his career as an art critic in the early 1900s and was soon recognized as a leading figure in the art world. He was known for his ability to recognize and promote new artists, and his critiques were eagerly read by the public.

Ruskis was a member of the New York Art Association and the American Academy of Arts and Letters. He was also a member of the American Institute of Decorative Arts and the Society of American Artists.

Ruskis was a influential figure in the art world and his influence can still be seen today. His contributions to the art world will be remembered for years to come.
The competition has been called "Commercial Cynicism." This spirit of competition is vividly depicted by the poet Shelley in the Lines above, written before the contest between the two companies began. The competition, however, has been too intense for the express line to withstand. It has been forced to make concessions, and has cut its rates. This has led to a depression in the stock market, and has caused a general feeling of depression. The express companies are in a state of flux, and there is much uncertainty as to what will happen in the future.

APPEAL ARMY

Cincinnati came to the end this week with a club of twenty-eight.

COMING TO A CORKER

The Price Essay

Compliments have been offered the Cincinnati Post for its excellent reporting of the story of the competition. The paper has been praised for its fair and impartial reporting of the events, and for its ability to present both sides of the story. The paper has been credited with providing the public with a clear understanding of the situation, and has been commended for its efforts to keep the public informed.

The competitive spirit has been described as "a healthy competition," and it has been suggested that it is good for the industry as a whole. However, some have expressed concern that the competition may be leading to a situation where the companies are more focused on outdoing each other than on serving their customers.

The Appeal is in circles of 20, 30 per cent.

SOCIAL DEMOCRACY

FIGURES SHOWED IN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

The National Parent-Teacher Association is planning a national convention to be held in June. The convention is expected to attract thousands of teachers and parents from across the country. The convention will feature speeches, workshops, and discussions on a variety of topics, including education policy, teacher qualifications, and student achievement.

The convention is being funded by a grant from the Gates Foundation, and is expected to be one of the largest events of its kind. The organizers hope that the convention will provide a platform for educators and parents to share their ideas and experiences, and to work towards improving the quality of education for all students.

MONARCHS ARE ESTABLISHED AND PROCLAIMED

The page is blank and contains no text.