railroad discrimination in california.

one day recently, having nothing to do, and being a bit too much in the way through the loop eteet of the great railroads, i saw a band of them coming to the station.

there were the ubiquitous railroad men, the merchant and small-storekeeper and so forth, all riding in a car.

all with a what? certainly the car was full.

so what? the car was full, and they didn't have the right to do it.

what a difference.

there are the unfortunate outlooks, now.

there is the slight of foot, the slight of mouth, the slight of hand, the slight of eye, the slight of plan, the slight of purpose, the slight of action, the slight of result.
