The Election Estimate.

On October 16, the following letter was received from the Executive Committee of the National Anti-Saloon League:

To the Editor of the Appeal, Boston, October 15, 1919.

The purpose of this letter is to call attention to the great importance of the election year. Since the last election in 1916 there has been a radical change in the public sentiment, which it is expected will be further emphasized on election day. The Republican Party will be the only party in power since the war, and the President, who is the leader of the party, is expected to carry the state.

THE RIGHT TO LIVE.

The appeal to the individual to vote for the Republican Party is based on the following considerations.

1. The Republican Party is the only one that can bring about a solution of the great social problems.

2. The Republican Party is the only one that can bring about a solution of the great economic problems.

3. The Republican Party is the only one that can bring about a solution of the great political problems.

THE APPEAL FOR VAUXHAM.

The Appeal is made to the individual to vote for the Republican Party because it is the only one that can bring about a solution of the great social, economic, and political problems. The Appeal is made to the individual to vote for the Republican Party because it is the only one that can bring about a solution of the great social, economic, and political problems.

THE ARMY APPRENTICE.

The Appeal is made to the individual to vote for the Republican Party because it is the only one that can bring about a solution of the great social, economic, and political problems.

THE SOCIALIST AUTOMOBILE LECTURE.

It is going to be a small task to get the Socialist Party to enter in the election, but it is certainly a good thing to do. The Socialist Party should not be afraid to enter in the election, and if they do it, it will be a good thing for the Socialist Party.

THE DOG AND THE MAN.

On the surface, the Socialist Party appears to be a hard-hearted, unfeeling, and unphilosophical party. But this is not the case. The Socialist Party is a party of profound sentiments, of human and moral sympathy, of pure and noble aims.

THE AUTOMOBILE FUND.

As a matter of fact, the Socialist Party is a party of profound sentiments, of human and moral sympathy, of pure and noble aims. The Socialist Party is not a party of empty words, but a party of deeds, a party of action, a party of practical work.

From Dr. Munson of Burlington, Vt.

I have been repeating the following lecture, "The Appeal to the Individual to Vote for the Republican Party," to a number of clubs and societies, and I am greatly encouraged by the response. The people are responsive, and it is clear that they are eager to learn more about the Republican Party.

THE SCIENCE AND SOCIALISM.

It is important to remember that the Appeal to the Individual to Vote for the Republican Party is not a mere passing phase, but is a permanent part of the Republican Party's program. It is a part of the Republican Party's program that will last as long as the Republican Party exists, and will be a permanent part of the Republican Party's program.
