Socialist Program.

The program of Socialism is the emphasis of the political platform of the Socialist party. It recognizes as the great central problem the necessity for the establishment of the socialist principle in the economic life of the country, based on the principle of the production of all the necessities of life by the whole people, and the distribution of the products of labor to the whole people.

We apply the doctrine of scientific socialism to the present problem of government, and believe in the complete organization of labor in the interest of the working class, in the solution of the economic problem.

We believe in the immediate application of the socialist principle in all cases, and the immediate establishment of socialism everywhere.

The principal objects of the program of Socialism are:

1. The complete organization of labor in the interest of the working class.
2. The establishment of socialism everywhere.
3. The immediate application of the socialist principle in all cases.

In summary, the Socialist program is the establishment of the socialist principle in all cases, and the immediate application of the socialist principle in all cases.
