To Women Socialists

There is a great amount of work to be done in the educational field. While it may be difficult to reach the masses with your friends, but so are you Socialists. We must be bold and forward. We must not be afraid of the possible results. We must be prepared to meet any opposition that may arise. We have the right to be heard. We must be bold and fearless.

We are not in a position to support or oppose the administration's policies. However, we do believe that the government should be透明化 and accountable to the public. We encourage open and honest dialogue between the government and the people to ensure that all voices are heard and considered in decision-making processes.
