ECONOMICS IN POLITICS.

by the appeal by leader ludlow

This is a political war to win not in the courts but in the street. The issue of the present battle is not whether we shall have a republic or not, but whether we shall have the right to support the republic.

The more men who take part in this war, the more likely we are to win.

Our army is the army of the people. It is the army of men who are not afraid to risk their lives for the cause.

The appeal is to every man who believes in the republic to join this army. The appeal is to every man who believes in the republic to stand with the people who are fighting for it.

The appeal is to every man who believes in the republic to support the republic.

The appeal is to every man who believes in the republic to vote for the republic.

The appeal is to every man who believes in the republic to help elect the republic.

The appeal is to every man who believes in the republic to help build the republic.

Appeal Army

Here are the youngest soldiers in America. But younger is not necessarily better. They have been in the service for over a year. They are on their way to Europe. They are on their way to victory.

The latest news from the front is that the young soldiers are doing a great job. They are fighting hard and they are winning. The country is proud of them.

The younger soldiers are not the only ones who are doing a great job. The older soldiers are doing a great job too. They are fighting hard and they are winning. The country is proud of them.
