The average circulation of the Appeal to Reason for the past 4 weeks has been 253,500. At the present rate of increase it will double in a few months.

The Socialist Campaign for 1904

The Appeal to Reason. 25 Cents a Year.

Girard, Kansas, U. S. A., Nov. 9, 1902.

OWNERSHIP of the EARTH

By ALL THE People, for ALL the People. The Property in EARTH is shared not OWNED. The Appeal to Reason.

The Washington Post of October 26 is the organ of the capitalist class in the Dominion of Canada, and has an active and open policy to promote the interests of that class. We at the Appeal to Reason, on the other hand, are striving to promote the interests of the working class and of the whole people.

Pace the Russian People

For a moment, let us consider the most important interests of the Russian people. First, their livelihood. The average Russian farmer has not enough to eat or to drink; he is constantly on the point of starvation. His work is endless; his labor is an endless toil.

Russia in 1861

The year 1861 was marked by a series of events which placed Russia on the threshold of modern civilization. The Emancipation Act of 1861 abolished serfdom and granted the peasants freedom of trade and travel. This was a great step forward.

A Note to the Editors of the Saturday Review

Mr. Editor: I have read your recent article on the subject of the Russian revolution with great interest. I am of the opinion that the Russian revolution is a just and necessary movement, and that it is the only way in which the Russian people can hope to achieve their rights and liberties.

A Letter to the Readers of the Appeal to Reason

Dear Readers: I would like to express my appreciation of your concern for the Russian people. The Appeal to Reason is doing its best to promote the interests of the Russian people, and I hope that you will continue to support us in our efforts.

The Appeal to Reason

We are committed to promoting the interests of the Russian people and to helping them achieve their rights and liberties. We believe that the Russian revolution is a just and necessary movement, and we are working towards its success.

Volunteer No. 209

J. R. M. A.

In answer to your request I am sending you some information about the Appeal to Reason. We are a group of volunteers who are working towards the success of the Russian revolution.

A Note to the Editors of the New York Times

Mr. Editor: I have read your recent article on the subject of the Russian revolution with great interest. I am of the opinion that the Russian revolution is a just and necessary movement, and that it is the only way in which the Russian people can hope to achieve their rights and liberties.

A Letter to the Readers of the Appeal to Reason

Dear Readers: I would like to express my appreciation of your concern for the Russian people. The Appeal to Reason is doing its best to promote the interests of the Russian people, and I hope that you will continue to support us in our efforts.

The Appeal to Reason

We are committed to promoting the interests of the Russian people and to helping them achieve their rights and liberties. We believe that the Russian revolution is a just and necessary movement, and we are working towards its success.