WE CARRY SHEBOYGAN

Socialists Make a Clean Sweep of The Esther City.

Sheboygan, Wis., April 8—The municipal election yester-day resulted in the election of Comrade Born, Socialist candidate, as mayor; and Chas. Dean, Socialist candidate for city attorney. Shaw, treasurer, and A. J. Sautter, assessor. The fruits of the victory also include two justices, five aldermen, four supervisors and two school commissioners. It was a square three-cornered fight between the Republican, Democrat and Socialists, as the following vote indicates: Born, Socialist, 1,767; Tallmadge, Republican, 1,315; Dieckman, Democrat, 1,274.

This is a great gain, as the entire city last fall cast but 1,358 votes for the Socialist ticket. Republican and Democratic politicians are naturally consulting one another and making arrangements for fusion to beat the Socialists in future elections.

As a rule, the great bulk of the laboring classes break the law by peaceful means when they feel it necessary to do so. It is only when their cause is lost, and the laborers have no alternative but to use force, that they resort to it. The law is just as much as the laborer has a right to, and the laborer has as much right to the law as any other citizen.
