DEBS AND HANFORD NOMINATED

Convention Closes Its Work Today—Trades Union Resolution Passed by a Vote of Two to One—Platform Adopted.

Yesterday the National Socialist convention opened its morning session with atomic motions, and the work of the convention was continued with little display of heat or acrimony. The convention is now on the way to completion, and the final act of the convention was the adoption of a resolution by the convention's committee, which was adopted unanimously, and which was referred to the committee on the amendment of the constitution.

The committee then reported the convention's resolution, which was adopted on the amendment of the constitution.

The convention's resolution was adopted by the following vote: Af 1,000 in favor of the resolution, and 1,000 against it.

SCENE IN THE CONVENTION HALL WHEN EUGENE V. DEBS WAS NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT YESTERDAY.

On the platform, the convention was in full swing, and the delegates were busily engrossed in the business at hand. The platform was well lighted, and the spectators were able to see the proceedings clearly. The convention was in a great hurry to get its business done, and the delegates were working hard to finish the meeting. The convention adjourned at five o'clock in the afternoon.

DELEGATES TO INTER-NATIONAL CONGRESS.

ANNET MEN, THINGS AND CONDITIONS.

Deline and Distressed! Hold! Hold! Hold!

Our demands are still unmet; the invasion by the master class continues;
our condition is steadily becoming worse. The struggle for existence is becoming harder and harder. Our life is on the line. Our existence is in danger.

The master class's policy is to make us suffer. They are determined to keep us in poverty and ignorance.
They are determined to keep us
in subjection and domination.

The master class are the oppressors of the people.

They are the exploiters of the people.
They are the destroyers of the people.

THE TRADES UNION RESOLUTION

By Edward Ferrer.

The trades union movement is the expression of the working class struggle for the present national conditions. It is the result of the workers' years of experience in the fight for the present national conditions. The workers' years of experience in the fight for the present national conditions, the workers' years of experience in the fight for the present national conditions, the workers' years of experience in the fight for the present national conditions.
