COMRADE DEWS WILL BE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF APPEAL NO. 456. HE WILL TAKE THE MOSS OFF CLEVELAND'S EPIDEMIRMS.

A BIT OF SENTIMENT.

The world's most drastic fight for liberty and freedom is on, and the outlook is dark. The struggle between the forces of good and evil is in full swing, and every citizen must do his part to help bring about this glorious victory.

This is the time to stand up for what we believe in. We must be ready to fight for our rights, and to defend our country against all enemies.

We must remember that we are not alone in this fight. We have the support of all those who believe in justice and freedom. Let us work together to achieve victory.

WAGES $350 A DAY.

The standard of living has been rising, but wages have not kept pace. The average worker is still living in poverty, even with two or more jobs. This is unacceptable.

We must demand better wages and working conditions. We must demand a fair share of the wealth created by our labor.

We must not be afraid to speak out and demand what is right. We must stand up for our rights and fight for justice.

STATISTICAL ACTIVITY REPORT.

The socialist movement is growing stronger every day. We must continue to organize and educate new members to our cause.

We must work hard to build a strong socialist movement that can take on the capitalist class and win.

Let us stand together and fight for a better world.

Isaac Newton's Law of Gravitation:

F = Gm1m2/r^2

where F is the force between the two masses, G is the gravitational constant, m1 and m2 are the masses, and r is the distance between the centers of the masses.
TO THE BITTER END.

Packing House Employees Would Force Conditions Through Strike

What promises to become the most violent labor dispute in the state of California is the strike of the packing house employees. The strike has been organized by the Northern California Bread Workers Federation, which has mandated a complete shutdown of all packing house operations. The union asserts that the company is violating the wage and hour laws and that workers are being exploited. The strike began on June 1st and is expected to last for months unless a resolution is reached.

On the Steamer "Potsdam".

By Nicholas Klein.

This is the first of a series of sketches which Olmsted Klein will write for apppearances in the Saturday evening paper.

I could hardly believe that I was sailing away from America. I was not grasping the fact that I was leaving behind the land where the night comes when the sun is low, and where the moon is high. I could not believe that I was leaving the country of my birth, the land of my ancestors, the land of my people. I could not believe that I was leaving the country where I was born and brought up, the country where I spent my childhood and my youth.

But I knew that I was leaving, and I knew that I was going to a new land.
I knew that I was going to a land of promise, a land of opportunity, a land of freedom.

The ship was moving slowly through the dark waters. The stars shone bright above, and the moon was high in the
sky. I stood on the deck, looking out over the sea. I saw the land of the soldiers, the land of the free, the land
of the brave.

I saw the land of the millions, the
land of the billions, the land of the trillions. I saw the land of the trilions, the land of the quadrillions, the land of the quintillions.

I saw the land of the multitudes, the land of the masses, the land of the numbers.

I saw the land of the many, the land
of the few, the land of the small, the
land of the large.

I saw the land of the weak, the land
of the strong, the land of the tired,
the land of the fresh.

I saw the land of the poor, the land
of the rich, the land of the hungry,
the land of the full.

I saw the land of the soldiers, the
land of the free, the land of the brave.

I saw the land of the millions, the
land of the billions, the land of the
trainings.

I saw the land of the trilions, the land of the quadrillions, the land of
the quintillions.

I saw the land of the multitudes, the
land of the masses, the land of the
numbers.

I saw the land of the many, the land
of the few, the land of the small, the
land of the large.

I saw the land of the weak, the land
of the strong, the land of the tired,
the land of the fresh.

I saw the land of the poor, the land
of the rich, the land of the hungry,
the land of the full.

I saw the land of the soldiers, the
land of the free, the land of the brave.

The ship was moving slowly through
the dark waters. The stars shone bright
above, and the moon was high in the
sky. I stood on the deck, looking out
over the sea. I saw the land of the soldiers, the land of the free, the land
of the brave.

I saw the land of the millions, the
land of the billions, the land of the
trainings.

I saw the land of the trilions, the
land of the quadrillions, the land of
the quintillions.

I saw the land of the multitudes, the
land of the masses, the land of the
numbers.

I saw the land of the many, the land
of the few, the land of the small, the
land of the large.

I saw the land of the weak, the land
of the strong, the land of the tired,
the land of the fresh.

I saw the land of the poor, the land
of the rich, the land of the hungry,
the land of the full.

I saw the land of the soldiers, the
land of the free, the land of the brave.

I saw the land of the millions, the
land of the billions, the land of the
trainings.

I saw the land of the trilions, the
land of the quadrillions, the land of
the quintillions.

I saw the land of the multitudes, the
land of the masses, the land of the
numbers.

I saw the land of the many, the land
of the few, the land of the small, the
land of the large.

I saw the land of the weak, the land
of the strong, the land of the tired,
the land of the fresh.

I saw the land of the poor, the land
of the rich, the land of the hungry,
the land of the full.

I saw the land of the soldiers, the
land of the free, the land of the brave.

I saw the land of the millions, the
land of the billions, the land of the
trainings.

I saw the land of the trilions, the
land of the quadrillions, the land of
the quintillions.

I saw the land of the multitudes, the
land of the masses, the land of the
numbers.

I saw the land of the many, the land
of the few, the land of the small, the
land of the large.

I saw the land of the weak, the land
of the strong, the land of the tired,
the land of the fresh.

I saw the land of the poor, the land
of the rich, the land of the hungry,
the land of the full.

I saw the land of the soldiers, the
land of the free, the land of the brave.

I saw the land of the millions, the
land of the billions, the land of the
trainings.

I saw the land of the trilions, the
land of the quadrillions, the land of
the quintillions.

I saw the land of the multitudes, the
land of the masses, the land of the
numbers.

I saw the land of the many, the land
of the few, the land of the small, the
land of the large.

I saw the land of the weak, the land
of the strong, the land of the tired,
the land of the fresh.

I saw the land of the poor, the land
of the rich, the land of the hungry,
the land of the full.

I saw the land of the soldiers, the
land of the free, the land of the brave.
SOCIALIST CAMPAIGN OPENS SEPTEMBER 1st.

Preparations Being Made for the Greatest Campaign Ever Instituted by a Third Party—Governor Kelly’s Views.

From the Times State, In., Gazette-Tribune.

William Lloyd, of Chicago, National Secretary of the Socialist party, was the speaker at a meeting held in Chicago last night before a crowd of nearly 2,000 people, with Governor John T. Kelly, of Illinois, as the chief speaker. The meeting was held at the Chicago Avenue Hall, and was addressed by Mr. Lloyd in strong language against the “two parties” system in the country, saying that he would not vote for either of the two candidates for President, but would vote for the Socialist ticket. He pointed out the need for a third party, and said that the Socialist party was the only party that stood for the working class, and that it was the only party that could bring about social and economic changes.

Important Notice.

The following is an important notice.

The Socialist party has ordered all its candidates to cease their canvassing immediately. The party is opposed to the use of money in the campaign, and the candidates are not to accept any financial assistance from any source. The candidates are to conduct their campaigns as individuals, and are not to have any financial dealings with the party. The party is opposed to the use of money in the campaign, and the candidates are not to accept any financial assistance from any source. The candidates are to conduct their campaigns as individuals, and are not to have any financial dealings with the party.
COMING NATION

The Growth of Socialism.

For five years past the Appeal has been in constant conflict with the bosses in an effort to maintain the standard of wages fixed by the Contracts. The bosses have been demanding a cutback in wages, but the Appeal has stood firm. The Appeal has always been the champion of the worker, and it will continue to be so.

The Making of a Socialist.

Ten years ago, I joined my first socialist organization. It was the Social Democratic Party of New York. Since then, I have worked for the advancement of socialism.

The Truth about the Coal Strike.

The coal strike is a workers' struggle. The bosses are trying to break the union, but the workers are determined to hold on. The Appeal will support the strikers and will continue to fight for their rights.

The Appeal's Policy.

The Appeal is committed to the socialist cause. We will fight for the establishment of a workers' state and the abolition of capitalism. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message.

The Appeal's Message.

We will fight for the rights of the workers. We will fight against the bosses and for the establishment of a workers' state. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message.

The Appeal's Future.

The Appeal will continue to fight for the rights of the workers. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message. The Appeal will be there for the workers.

The Appeal's Call.

Join the Appeal and help us in our fight for the establishment of a workers' state. We need your support.

The Appeal's Address.

The Appeal, 360 W. 47th St., New York City. We will be there for you.

The Appeal's Message.

We will fight for the rights of the workers. We will fight against the bosses and for the establishment of a workers' state. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message.

The Appeal's Future.

The Appeal will continue to fight for the rights of the workers. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message. The Appeal will be there for the workers.

The Appeal's Call.

Join the Appeal and help us in our fight for the establishment of a workers' state. We need your support.

The Appeal's Address.

The Appeal, 360 W. 47th St., New York City. We will be there for you.

The Appeal's Message.

We will fight for the rights of the workers. We will fight against the bosses and for the establishment of a workers' state. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message.

The Appeal's Future.

The Appeal will continue to fight for the rights of the workers. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message. The Appeal will be there for the workers.

The Appeal's Call.

Join the Appeal and help us in our fight for the establishment of a workers' state. We need your support.

The Appeal's Address.

The Appeal, 360 W. 47th St., New York City. We will be there for you.

The Appeal's Message.

We will fight for the rights of the workers. We will fight against the bosses and for the establishment of a workers' state. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message.

The Appeal's Future.

The Appeal will continue to fight for the rights of the workers. We will continue to publish the Appeal to spread our message. The Appeal will be there for the workers.

The Appeal's Call.

Join the Appeal and help us in our fight for the establishment of a workers' state. We need your support.

The Appeal's Address.

The Appeal, 360 W. 47th St., New York City. We will be there for you.