STAND UP...
MR. ROOSEVELT...
AND ANSWER

To the public and the public institutions, and to all the men of good will, that have not yet taken a stand, I appeal. This is not a question of politics, but of humanity. We have been told that the Trust is the solution to all our problems. Yet, we see the Trust growing stronger and larger every day. To those who say: "But the Trust is essential to the economy," I reply: "The economy is essential to the Trust."

But why should we support a system that says the only way to make money is to rob those who have less? Why should we allow the Trust to decide what we can and cannot do, who we can and cannot be? We must stand up and fight for our rights, for our freedom, for our humanity.

Stand up, Mr. Roosevelt, and answer to the Trust. Stand up and fight for the people. Stand up and fight for a better world.
'GENE DEBS' TRIUMPHAL TOUR

Unbounded Enthusiast and Immense Throngs Which Great Comrade Debs Forcing Expressions of Wonder from the Old Party Press—Nothing Like It Since Lincoln's First Great Campaign.

AT NEW YORK.

From the New York American.

Clearing the people out of the way, opening the gates of the theater and the streets. An enormous crowd had gathered around the building, every one of whom was waiting with the anticipation of the concert that Debs was to give. At last, the doors opened and the audience was admitted. No sooner had the doors been opened than the crowd surged forward and the doors were closed.

DEB'S NEW YORK MEETING.

Dear Comrades—Debs, in his own words, stated his case. He unfolded his scheme of things. He showed how the labor movement would work, how the labor movement would fight, how the labor movement would win. He showed how the people were waiting for him. He showed how the people were ready to be led.

GREAT CAMPAIGN.

The meeting was a great success. Debs' speeches were received with great enthusiasm. The people were on the edge of their seats, waiting for his next word. The applause was deafening. Debs was the center of attention. He was the talk of the town.

His words were received with great enthusiasm. The people were on the edge of their seats, waiting for his next word. The applause was deafening. Debs was the center of attention. He was the talk of the town.

He is a man of the people, by the people, for the people. He is a man of the future, a man of progress. He is a man of action, a man of accomplishment. He is a man of integrity, a man of honesty. He is a man of vision, a man of hope.

He is the man for today, the man for tomorrow. He is the man for all time. He is the man for the cause of labor, the cause of the working class, the cause of the people.

He is the man for the future, the man for the progress, the man for the success. He is the man for the integrity, the man for the honesty, the man for the vision, the man for the hope.
