PARRY SIDE-STEPS AGAIN.

In reply to the Appeal's last letter, Mr. Parry, now the Hon. Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, wrote the following letter:

Mr. Parry is certainly an amusing man. A few short weeks ago he was very busy, but today he seems to have disappeared entirely. I met him once or twice recently, but he has not been seen since then.

The Appeal, however, has been keeping busy, publishing many articles and letters. It is now the primary source of information for labor leaders throughout the United States.

Summary of Appeal Receipts and Expenses for 1904.

When the Appeal was small and just starting, its financial position was precarious. It was a bold venture, and the future was uncertain. But conditions have changed, and now the Appeal has a solid foundation.

The Appeal has been able to pay its expenses and to meet its obligations. It has maintained its independence and has not been subject to the influence of any outside agency.

The Appeal's success is due to the loyal support of its subscribers and to the efforts of its editor and staff.

The Appeal is now in a position to continue its work and to develop its influence. It is determined to continue to serve the labor movement and to advance the cause of justice and reform.
Nine Nations
New Use Liqueuow. Wou't You Try It-Free?

We Paid $100,000.

We paid $100,000 for this new use of Liqueuow. Liqueuow is an old-time apple cure. It’s a medicine that has been around for years. But now we’ve discovered a new way to use it, and it’s really effective. We found that when we added Liqueuow to apple cider, it made the cider taste amazing. It’s a natural remedy for many health issues and it’s also great for the environment. If you’re interested in trying it out, just let us know and we’ll send you a free sample!
ALL ABOARD FOR THE MILLION.

The situation in Colorado.

In No. 471 was printed a table showing the subscription lists for 1901 and 1902, in which the number of subscribers for the appeal list is given in the columns headed "Colorado". The figures were such as to make it evident that the public was alive to the need of the appeal and was willing to contribute to it. The appeal was in the hands of the Superintendent of the Colorado Department of Agriculture, who was in charge of the work of collecting the signatures of the people of the state.

The question of the day was: "Shall we give our money to help the appeal?" The answer was: "Yes, we shall give our money to help the appeal." The figures showed that the people of Colorado were willing to do their part in the work of helping to make the appeal a success.

The situation in Kansas.

In No. 472 was printed a table showing the subscription lists for 1901 and 1902, in which the number of subscribers for the appeal list is given in the columns headed "Kansas". The figures were such as to make it evident that the public was alive to the need of the appeal and was willing to contribute to it. The appeal was in the hands of the Superintendent of the Kansas Department of Agriculture, who was in charge of the work of collecting the signatures of the people of the state.

The question of the day was: "Shall we give our money to help the appeal?" The answer was: "Yes, we shall give our money to help the appeal." The figures showed that the people of Kansas were willing to do their part in the work of helping to make the appeal a success.

NOTES FROM THE ARMY.

Notes from the Army. (Continued.)

In No. 473 was printed a table showing the subscription lists for 1901 and 1902, in which the number of subscribers for the appeal list is given in the columns headed "Army". The figures were such as to make it evident that the public was alive to the need of the appeal and was willing to contribute to it. The appeal was in the hands of the Superintendent of the Army Department, who was in charge of the work of collecting the signatures of the people of the state.

The question of the day was: "Shall we give our money to help the appeal?" The answer was: "Yes, we shall give our money to help the appeal." The figures showed that the people of the Army were willing to do their part in the work of helping to make the appeal a success.

THE VERDICT!

In No. 474 was printed a table showing the subscription lists for 1901 and 1902, in which the number of subscribers for the appeal list is given in the columns headed "Verdict". The figures were such as to make it evident that the public was alive to the need of the appeal and was willing to contribute to it. The appeal was in the hands of the Superintendent of the Verdict Department, who was in charge of the work of collecting the signatures of the people of the state.

The question of the day was: "Shall we give our money to help the appeal?" The answer was: "Yes, we shall give our money to help the appeal." The figures showed that the people of the Verdict were willing to do their part in the work of helping to make the appeal a success.
COMING NATION

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL

ONE DAY IN CAPITALISTIC HELL