Let us have your $10.00 contribution to the fund for sending the Trust Edition to ONE MILLION business men.

500 contributions of $10 each are requested for the purpose of sending a copy of the Special Trust Edition, to each of the 500,000 Members of the LUMBERMAN's Association, in the United States. The total amount contributed will date...

$710.00

This is Number 565

J. A. Wayland

Girard, Kansas, U. S. A., August 5, 1905

The newspaper organization that has the railroad managers and the railroad stockholders to deal with the railroad companies is the Alliance. The Alliance is a corporation, not a union, but it is organized on the lines of a labor union. It has a constitution and a set of by-laws, and it is governed by a board of directors. The Alliance is a national organization, and it has local unions in many cities and towns.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance, and they are afraid of the railroad workers. They are afraid of the Alliance because it is a powerful organization, and they are afraid of the railroad workers because they are organized and they are determined to fight for their rights.

The railroads are also afraid of the Alliance because it is a political organization. It has its own candidates for office, and it has its own influence in the legislature. The Alliance is a political force, and it is a force that is growing.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a labor organization. It is a labor organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a social organization. It is a social organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a political organization. It is a political organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a labor organization. It is a labor organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a social organization. It is a social organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a political organization. It is a political organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.

The railroads are afraid of the Alliance because it is a labor organization. It is a labor organization because it is composed of railroad workers, and it is organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the railroad workers.
The Bloody Week in Poland

The Jungle

Copyright, 1905.

The Modern Financier.
PETITION TO JAPAN

In Behalf of the Russian Political Prisoners on Sakhalin Island.

Yokohama—June 26.—Arrests are now accustomed to the Russian political prisoners, and it is only by force that they can be transported to the capital of Japan. They have been kept in the central prison of Yokohama, and are now on their way to Tokyo. These prisoners have been kept without trial for over a year, and are now in a worse condition than they were when they were first arrested.

The petition, signed by the prisoners, is now in the hands of the Japanese government, and is expected to be presented to the emperor. The prisoners are asking for their release, and for the right to return to Russia.

The petition is signed by all the prisoners, and is supported by the Russian government.

The petition is also supported by many Japanese citizens, who believe that the Russian political prisoners are being treated unfairly.

The petition is now being forwarded to the Russian government, and is expected to be presented to the emperor soon.

The petition is signed by all the prisoners, and is supported by the Russian government.

The petition is also supported by many Japanese citizens, who believe that the Russian political prisoners are being treated unfairly.

The petition is now being forwarded to the Russian government, and is expected to be presented to the emperor soon.

The petition is signed by all the prisoners, and is supported by the Russian government.

The petition is also supported by many Japanese citizens, who believe that the Russian political prisoners are being treated unfairly.

The petition is now being forwarded to the Russian government, and is expected to be presented to the emperor soon.

The petition is signed by all the prisoners, and is supported by the Russian government.

The petition is also supported by many Japanese citizens, who believe that the Russian political prisoners are being treated unfairly.

The petition is now being forwarded to the Russian government, and is expected to be presented to the emperor soon.

The petition is signed by all the prisoners, and is supported by the Russian government.

The petition is also supported by many Japanese citizens, who believe that the Russian political prisoners are being treated unfairly.

The petition is now being forwarded to the Russian government, and is expected to be presented to the emperor soon.
Working Class Unionism.

By Eugene V. Debs.

The labor movement is more widespread and more popular than ever before in the history of the United States. The international interest is now at its highest point, and every day of his life every laboring man is more conscious of the fact that he is a member of a class of workingmen who are fighting for the rights of the working class.

At the close of the recent strike there was a great deal of talk about the possibility of a general strike, and many people thought that the strike would be a failure. But the strike was a success, and it proved that the working class has the will to organize and to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.

The strike was a tremendous victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights. It was a victory for the working class, and it showed that the working class is not afraid to fight for its rights.