In this issue you will find a subscription blank. It is upon the assurance of the United States government, which has forbidden us to be bound by any other subscription agreement. The reason is that it is the aggregated wealth of the country, which is in the hands of the government, which is what we are buying. This paper is for sale as a natural substitute for the government, and we will accept no price other than the price of our stock. This subscription blank may be purchased for $760.00.

Wouldn't It Jar You, Mr. Capitalist—

BELL ON LABOR ALL THE TIME.

LABOR.

BELL ON LABOR ALL THE TIME.

BELL ON LABOR ALL THE TIME.

If you were to discover a big, honey-handed woman, whom you felt sure would be your slave for ever, to discover that he had issued a new declaration of freedom?

The Jungle

Written for the Appeal by UPTON SINCLAIR, author of Newsman. Copyright, 1905.

The Wilderness of Civilization.

These streets were huge canyons formed by towering black buildings, echoing with the clang of auto-gongs and the clatter of dolies; so many people crowded in them that by nine o'clock all the alleys had been cleared and it began to look like anything at all except a city.

The military trumpets-honking foreign, with water-soaked clothing, in baggy face and vicious eyes, was so much alike as he hurried past them, not noticed at all, as if he had been a deserted soldier in a wilderness.

Chapter XVIII

How does he go to the stockyards?

"Get up early!" "Why don't you get up early?"

The question of whether or not there is a negro labor strike is not a very important one, but it is a question which the negro laborer must ask himself every day as he goes to work and returns home at night.

THE COAL REGIONS CONTEST IN THE 1908 ELECTION

Philadelphia—a. The campaign in the anthracite districts is heating up. The miners are united, and Mr. Mitchell is leading the union. It is expected that he will be an elephant, regardless of the national change in the check weight system. He has received the endorsement of the miners, and he has a fund of $50,000 or more as a result.

It has been the intention of President Mitchell for many years to unify the strikes and labor unions in the anthracite districts in order that, as the head of the union, he may have full control of the mining industry.

Congressional Vote on the Wilson-Taylor Bill

Washington, D.C.—The House of Representatives has voted 49 to 11 in favor of the Wilson-Taylor bill to limit trusts. It is expected that the Senate will vote similarly.

The bill provides for the dissolution of all trusts with sales of $100,000 or more, and for the dissolution of all trusts with sales of $500,000 or more after one year.

The vote was 49 to 11, with the Republicans voting no and the Democrats voting yes. It is expected that the Senate will act similarly.

A SERIES OF SIDE-LIGHTS ON THE TRUSTS

Chicago, Ill.—The Trusts are on the defensive. They have been unable to influence the public opinion in favor of their policies. The public opinion is in favor of the government's policies.
