QUESTION Box

As the writer of this article, I have always been impressed by the way in which common sense guides the actions of the people in any given situation. The principle of "common sense" is one that is often overlooked in our day-to-day lives, but it is an important concept that can help us make better decisions.

Women and Socialism

As a socialist, I believe that women have the right to be treated with respect and equal opportunity. This is not just a matter of personal rights, but also a matter of social justice. Women should be able to make their own choices and live their lives as they see fit. It is important that we continue to work towards a society that is fair and just for all.

The Appeal Army

In the current political climate, it is more important than ever to vote for candidates who support the interests of the working class. The Appeal Army is a group of individuals who are dedicated to the fight for workers' rights and social justice. I encourage everyone to support their efforts.
