"From the Depths,"

Two Kinds of Postal Thieves.

The Shoe Pinches.

The scene described below is seen in a correspondant story, "We've a Friend," Daily News making the following point: The story describes a correspondent's experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office.

The Shoe Pinches.

A correspondent for the Daily News describes his experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office. The pinches is a person who steals letters from the mail, often targeting letters with valuable contents.

Idaho Overrun With Pickpocket Detectives.

Looks like the trend of the week is pickpocket detection in Idaho. The Daily News reports on the proliferation of pickpockets in the state, with law enforcement officials warning residents to be aware of their surroundings.

Copyright by J. M. Mitchell

"From the Depths,"

Two Kinds of Postal Thieves.

The Shoe Pinches.

The scene described below is seen in a correspondant story, "We've a Friend," Daily News making the following point: The story describes a correspondent's experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office.

The Shoe Pinches.

A correspondent for the Daily News describes his experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office. The pinches is a person who steals letters from the mail, often targeting letters with valuable contents.

Idaho Overrun With Pickpocket Detectives.

Looks like the trend of the week is pickpocket detection in Idaho. The Daily News reports on the proliferation of pickpockets in the state, with law enforcement officials warning residents to be aware of their surroundings.

Copyright by J. M. Mitchell

"From the Depths,"

Two Kinds of Postal Thieves.

The Shoe Pinches.

The scene described below is seen in a correspondant story, "We've a Friend," Daily News making the following point: The story describes a correspondent's experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office.

The Shoe Pinches.

A correspondent for the Daily News describes his experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office. The pinches is a person who steals letters from the mail, often targeting letters with valuable contents.

Idaho Overrun With Pickpocket Detectives.

Looks like the trend of the week is pickpocket detection in Idaho. The Daily News reports on the proliferation of pickpockets in the state, with law enforcement officials warning residents to be aware of their surroundings.

Copyright by J. M. Mitchell

"From the Depths,"

Two Kinds of Postal Thieves.

The Shoe Pinches.

The scene described below is seen in a correspondant story, "We've a Friend," Daily News making the following point: The story describes a correspondent's experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office.

The Shoe Pinches.

A correspondent for the Daily News describes his experience with a "shoe pinches" in the post office. The pinches is a person who steals letters from the mail, often targeting letters with valuable contents.

Idaho Overrun With Pickpocket Detectives.

Looks like the trend of the week is pickpocket detection in Idaho. The Daily News reports on the proliferation of pickpockets in the state, with law enforcement officials warning residents to be aware of their surroundings.

Copyright by J. M. Mitchell
TEACHERS' FUND.

Weekly, 50 Cents Per Year.

The System and the Diagnosis.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing a system and a diagnosis, but the specific details are not discernible.

ORGANIZATION.

A startup business venture.

Too Much Prosperity.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing a startup business venture, possibly related to agriculture, but the specific details are not discernible.

American History for the Workers.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing American history, specifically for workers, but the specific details are not discernible.

THE APPEAL STUDY CLUB.

American History for the Workers.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing American history, specifically for workers, but the specific details are not discernible.

Church and Politics.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing church and politics, possibly related to a campaign, but the specific details are not discernible.

Buying Elections.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing buying elections, but the specific details are not discernible.

OUTBACK.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing outback areas, but the specific details are not discernible.

Subsidies and Shoah.

The text is not clear due to the image quality. It appears to be discussing subsidies and the Shoah, but the specific details are not discernible.

For 30,000 School Teachers
And 5,000,000 Pupils

Appliances to Reason, Girard, Kansas:

I agree to pay 50 cents per month for three months—a total of $1.50—for the purpose of sending the appeal to 30,000 school teachers and 5,000,000 pupils, commencing December and running during the school year—7 months.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

TRIAL OFFER

Better Than 36s COFFEE

All the coffee lovers who are members of the Chicago Board of Trade, under date of Dec. 31, 1893, and who received a trial offer of 36s Coffee from the Coffee Company, are hereby informed that they have two months more in which to make use of this trial offer. Once this offer expires, it will be impossible to make use of it.

The Coffee Company is the only one that can offer such a special offer. If you have not already used your trial offer, you should take advantage of it immediately.

Sincerely,

[Signature]