Pease Park, the largest of the city's parks, is a popular destination for outdoor activities. With its scenic beauty and abundant green spaces, it offers a range of facilities such as picnic areas, sports fields, and playgrounds. It is a cherished local landmark where residents and visitors alike enjoy its serene atmosphere and recreational opportunities.

The park's history is rich, reflecting the evolution of the city's green spaces over time. Its well-maintained trails, open fields, and vibrant gardens are a testament to the community's dedication to maintaining a shared natural retreat. Whether it's a leisurely stroll, a game of frisbee, or a picnic under the trees, Pease Park offers a tranquil oasis amidst the urban landscape.
SOUTHERN SLAVES
Florida Governor Denies Appeal Correspondence's Story—Florida Paper Good

SUREAL months ago, when the Appeal's special correspondent, Mr. F. W. Zacarias, was in Florida, he obtained photographs of the 'black slaves' who were then working in the fields during the cotton harvest. The pictures were made at the request of our Florida correspondent, who informed us that the condition of the negroes was very bad and that the slaves had not been properly fed or clothed.

Following the disappearance of our correspondent, we learned from reliable sources that the negroes were being treated with even greater severity than before. The colored people were not only denied the right to vote, but were also subjected to constant threats of violence. The negroes were forced to work long hours in the fields and were not allowed to take proper care of their health.

We have reason to believe that the condition of the negroes in Florida has improved since then, but we are still concerned about their welfare. We hope that the Florida governor will take steps to ensure that the negroes are treated with respect and that their rights are protected.

DOUBLE NIGHT GUARD AT BOISE BARRACKS

CA. Deputy Sheriff, after receiving a report of a disturbance at the Boise Barracks early Saturday morning, ordered a double night guard to be placed at the barracks. The guards were armed and were instructed to maintain order at all times.

The disturbance at the barracks was caused by a group of negroes who had been arrested on charges of theft. They were protesting their treatment and demanding their release. The guards were able to control the situation and prevent further disturbances.

NOW TO CONGRESS

Scarcity in Washington Legislature Seek Congressional Intercession

A group of Washington legislators have written to Congress, asking for help in dealing with the scarcity in the state. They have requested that Congress take steps to ensure food supplies for all citizens.

The legislators have also suggested that the federal government should provide assistance to those affected by the scarcity. They have called for a national fund to be created to support families in need.

For more information, please visit the website of the Washington Senate. You can also contact your local representative to express your support for these proposals.
THE DAWNNG OF A NEW ERA

By MOTHER JONES

The whole country is huddled up in this/tool under the shadow of a new era. The industrial system, and its political manifestations, are no longer the same as they were. The struggle for freedom is not over, but it is no longer a struggle against an external enemy. It is a struggle against the power of the industrial system itself, and against the political machines that sustain it.

The history of the country is still to be written, in the sense that it is still to be made. The whole country is huddled up in this new era, and it is up to us to make it a new era of freedom and equality.

Hurt's Labor Romance

Socialism and Kidnapping

If Hurt's influence on the labor movement was great, so too was his influence on the socialist movement. He believed in the need for education and organization to achieve social change, and his influence helped to spread these ideas.

The War of Humanity

Hurt's influence on the labor and socialist movements was significant, and his legacy continues to be felt today. His belief in the power of the people to change the world remains relevant, and his work serves as a guide for those who seek to create a more just and equitable society.
