JURY DISAGREES.

Adams' Trial Results in Disagreement McPherson and Gorg of Northfield Described by the Jurors as a Very Close and Debatable Case.

MARTIN W. WALLACE, MARY, March 9—Two juries in the trial of the murder of Arthur Adams, the seventy-year-old ex-security guard, were dis-greed on the question of Adams' guilt and the jury was hung. The trial was adjourned to Tuesday.

The attitude of the jury was marked by a violent disagreement and the trial was continued until the jury could agree.

The disagreement arose over the question of whether Adams was guilty of murder or manslaughter. The jury was hopeful of reaching a verdict but was not able to do so due to the disagreement.

How we keep American Fence
the Standard of the World.

Eighty per cent of all wire fence sold is American Fence. It takes one fifth thousand of fence every month in America for orders for American Fence. That's why we make and sell more fence than all other fence manufacturers combined.

Let's keep American Fence
the Standard of the World.

Better galvanizing, better quality, better service.

We make back the cost of twenty dollars spent in improvements in fence wear.
