"The Plutocracy Versus The People," is the True Title of the Kidnapping Cases Now on Trial in Idaho.

Col. Ethan Allen of New York, the veteran republican, who was chairman of the national committee of the republican party in 1872, and conspicuous in its councils ever since, is now reaping the fruits of his labors. He is being tried for murder, and the case is exciting great interest in all parts of the country. At the time Col. Allen knew better than the American people, and recent developments are proving his words prophetic. We reproduce this caustic, literate, and incisive denunciation in full. The closing paragraph is as follows:

"He is an independent man who is sympathetic to power. He is a 'trust buster' who safeguards trusts and will not 'run amuck.' He is a hero who never fought a battle."

"HE IS A MAN OF TRUTH WHOSE WORD IS NOT WORTH A CONTINENTAL DOLLAR."

ETHAN ALLEN ON ROOSEVELT

Note: Republican Says that the San Juan Home Is a Farce and That Politically Speaking, the Stevenson Regulator Has Not an Honest Hair in His Head.

The name of Col. Ethan Allen, of New York, is well known to the whole country. He is the most influential man in the Democratic party, and is regarded by many as a candidate for the presidency in 1904. Asked the reason for his withdrawal from the race, Col. Allen said:

"It is not believed that politically speaking, I would make a good candidate."

The other day Mr. Roosevelt appeared at a banquet and denounced the administration. The president, he said, was not a good man, and he was glad to see his successor in office. Mr. Roosevelt then praised Mr. Roosevelt, saying that he was the best man for the job."
