THE REAL JURY.

The real jury that is trying Bill Haywood is the jury composed of the 15,000,000 men and women who comprise the voting strength of the nation. It is important that the effect of everything done at this trial be considered in that light.

Desperation of the Kidnappers.

The desperation of the Kidnappers is shown by their attempt to obtain the life of Haywood. They have failed to arrest him in spite of

AN OUTRAGEOUS INJUNCTION

Scientifically, we must repeat, it has been shown in the courts that the inmates of the Indiana State Penitentiary have never learned the full value and meaning of the courts' decisions. We have never heard the courts, however, that the inmates of the Indiana State Penitentiary have the right to kill and murder, or that it is a crime to walk through streets and fight for the right to work. The courts have always been right.

If we were to erect an ideal society, we should have to make the courts the last authority in all questions of justice and injustice. The courts have always been right.

The courts have always been right.
