SOME STUNNING PARALLELS

If the present crisis which follows will be found an exhibition of the checking contracts with which capitalism has the United States now facing, and a show how two people who work the year around, own as much to own as much as a common laborer in the United States has the same wages, no matter how low, or how high. And if you want to know what is in for you, look at the wages of a common laborer in the United States. He has a dollar a day, and that means nothing at all. He has been given a chance to live, and that means nothing at all. He has been given a chance to live, and that means nothing at all.

In contrast with the latter, which describes the condition of so many common laborers who must pass through the United States, we present an account taken in a foreign land, where the wages are fixed, and the hours of work are limited. It is only between the two that the difference is so marked as to be negligible.

The New York Tribune, in its issue of Jan 1, 1898, published an article on the wages of labor in the United States. It was written by a Mr. H. S. Underwood, who had been living in the United States for several years, and who had been in business for himself. He said:

'High and low, it must be understood, there is no such thing as a laborer in the United States. He is a man, and he has a dollar a day, and that means nothing at all. He has been given a chance to live, and that means nothing at all. He has been given a chance to live, and that means nothing at all.'

In conclusion, we say that the condition of laborers in the United States is intolerable, and that it is time we took steps to improve it. The wages of labor are too low, and the hours of work are too long. We must demand better wages and shorter hours, and we must do it now. For if we do not, we shall be left to suffer, and to die.

To the City Councils of the United States

There are thousands of men and women in this country who are in need of assistance due to the economic crisis. The government has a responsibility to ensure that all Americans have access to basic necessities such as food and shelter. The proposed budget cuts will only exacerbate the situation for those already struggling.

Roosevelt and the Railroads.

The President has a significant role in the economy. His actions have a direct impact on the livelihoods of working Americans. It is imperative that the government invest in infrastructure, such as the railroads, to support economic growth.

What is a man to do who is out of work in a financial crisis and starving?

A Wedding Breakfast.

The wedding is scheduled to take place on the most expensive day of the week. The guests will be treated to a lavish meal, including a variety of expensive wines and cheeses. The financial strain on the bride and groom is apparent.

Paint Without Oil

Ruth Johnson, a woman who lives in the city, painted her house with a new technique that does not require the use of oil. She used a mixture of water and pigments to achieve a rich color.

KFHERSON SEED OATS

The Kferston Seed oat, known for its high yield and nutritional value, is being grown in the area.

THE PANIC

There was a prevailing impression of panic arising from the public press and from the reports of leading financiers during the final weeks of the year. There were also reports of a panic on the Stock Exchange. But there was no panic. The business of the country was strong and the banks were sound.

SMALL FISH

By H. R. HODGSON, WASHINGTON. D. C.

In this country, as in other countries, there is a tendency to place too much importance on the appearance of a small fish. The small fish is often the most important of all the fish. It is the small fish that provides the livelihood of the majority of the population.

Spread of Insanity

That the sharp, rapid, and short struggle for existence is driving men to desperation, is plain to every intelligent observer. The heat has been so intense that many have become insane, and in some cases have committed suicide. The situation is critical, and something must be done to alleviate the sufferings of these unfortunate people.

Why Trust Falters.

It is reasonable to suppose that if you are feeling well, you will get the best advice from the man who has been in the same situation as you. But if you are feeling ill, you will get the best advice from the man who has been ill and has recovered.

The Rock Island Railroad Wants These Lands Settled

The Railroads will make you rich!—The railroads are making one of the greatest campaigns of all time in order that they may be made. The Rock Island Railroad lands the lead in land which is to be offered to the Appeal to Reason readers; the Santa Fe Railroad and the Denver & Rio Grande railroads are also near by. And other roads are now or will soon be projected, making a network of railways over the entire territory. Consider also the extreme low rates to the seashore, the water transportation. How this will increase the value of the land you can readily imagine. And you know that wherever the railroads have taken hold, land values have jumped up fantastically.

Millionaires have been made out of virgin land by railroad activity, 100,000 Settlers have already poured into the Texas Panhandle and the Southwest. They are going there in swarms. They are rushing in from East, North and West.

The land of promise has been opened.
The public is taking advantage of the grand possibilities.

People living in states where land costs $150 an acre are just realizing what they have missed when they can buy land for as little as $3 an acre.
