"The Best Defense Fund we can have is a Million Subscribers to the Appeal. Let's Get Busy." — S. L. M., Eagle Pass, Tex.

Total Number of Subs for Week Ending June 5

340,000

Eagle Pass, Tex.

FIFTY CENTS A YEAR

This is Number 708

The Appeal

Girard, Kansas, U. S. A., June 19, 1909

THE WARREN DEFENDERS

By UPTON SINCLAIR, Author of "The Jungle."

COMRADES OF THE APPEAL ARMY—Along with the rest of you I have read the story of the conviction of Warren, and it has set my blood to boiling. Comrades, let us make no mistake about it—this is the most critical moment in the history of Socialism in America.

We have passed the time when we have to prove ourselves or meet opposition. We have many more than we have ever had before. Now we must win, or we shall be driven back into obscurity. We have no time to lose, and we must act with the energy of those who are facing a great crisis.

So far we have been agitators and talkers. And it is not easy to talk. But now we are coming to the time when we have to do things—when we have to prove that we mean what we have been saying.

There are better men than we, enough of the enemy to take notice of us, no longer can we be laughed at and brushed aside as dreamers. It is recognized that we are earnest, that we have power behind us. And the word has gone forth that we mean business.

The attack upon the Appeal is the beginning of the "real" war. What are we going to do about it? Comrades, there has never been a time when the Appeal to Reason was needed more than this hour. There has never been a time when the Socialist movement had such a chance as it has at this hour.

We have had our spats of reform, and they have passed. Our magazines are silent, our pamphlets are out of favor. The country has settled back into "normal prosperity" and is a new era of graft and exploitation is under full headway.

I assert that never before in our history has our Congress of Thieves in Washington made a move to destroy a socialist newspaper more important than the present moment in the gigantic tariff struggle.

This is the moment when the Appeal to Reason must be the rallying point for the whole country. This is the moment when the Appeal to Reason must be the center of our force. This is the moment when the Appeal to Reason must be the rallying point for the whole country.

We are now in the time when we have to prove ourselves, and we must do it. We have a great opportunity which this opens to us! Try to realize the responsibility which it throws upon us! Our time is here at last!

And this is the moment when the government has chosen for the crushing of the Appeal to Reason. Let us realize this situation. We might as well meet the issue promptly.

And then the next step is to go to the courts and demand our papers. The way is clear, the time is ripe, the opportunity is at hand. The Appeal to Reason is not to be crushed, it is to be saved. The Appeal to Reason is not to be crushed, it is to be saved.

The Appeal to Reason is the rallying point for the whole country. It is the center of our force. It is the rallying point for the whole country.

One more thing, Comrades: The Appeal to Reason is not to be crushed. We will not give up! We will fight to the bitter end. We will save the Appeal to Reason. We will save the Appeal to Reason.

And so, Comrades, let us act promptly and courageously. The Appeal to Reason is not to be crushed. The Appeal to Reason is not to be crushed.

THE APPEAL EDITORIAL STAFF

M. D. WATLINS

T. D. DOBER

EUGENE V. DEBS

FRED D. WARREN

CARLTON JOHNSON
CAMPAIN OF BILLINGSBOURNE

WANTED BY BLAIZ

In the Minuton county jail at Eagle Butte, Montana, are the following persons:

Chester, Custer, whose sentence on a charge of murder is expected to expire May 20.

Jenda, Custer, who is on the run from the United States since May 9.

Louis, Custer, who was sentenced to three years in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, last April.

All persons are charged with murder.

Let us hope that these persons will be brought to justice and punished for their crimes.

THREATEN THE JURY

JURORS IN WARNER CASE NOW IN JAIL WITH BOLD THREATS ARE MADE

Foreman and Jury Ruled Several Letters From Dear Country

The foreman and jury in the Warner case have ruled several letters from dear country. They are now in jail with bold threats are made.

THE MEN WHO BOUGHT AN ISLAND

BY CHARLES LINCOLN PULPIT

In association with the suggestion of the men who bought an island, we will buy, or what they have promised to do, to the effect that they will pay all debts of the State of New York, and that they will then pay the State of New York, and that they will then pay for the purchase of the island.

WE RECURRENT TO THE JOINT ACT

Reports to Reappraise Tariff and Cabinet and Consider New Bills Introduced

The Joint Act Committee has reported several bills introduced into the House of Representatives and Senate, which are now under consideration.

SOCIALIST SPEAKS IN AMERICA

President Woodrow Wilson, during his recent trip to Europe, has spoken on the subject of socialism. He has said that socialism is the only way to make the world safe for democracy.

FRIENDLY SHIPS IN DIARY

Reports to Reappraise Tariff and Cabinet and Consider New Bills Introduced

The Joint Act Committee has reported several bills introduced into the House of Representatives and Senate, which are now under consideration.

HISTORICAL EVENTS

Seven Large Volumes, $500

Charles L. Faull, B. F. Faull, W. D. Faull, and J. M. Faull, the authors of "History of Modern Socialism," have announced the publication of seven large volumes, $500, which will cover the history of modern socialism from its beginnings to the present time.

SOCIALIST PRESS WANTS TO MAKE THE WORLD SAFE FOR DEMOCRACY

Socialist presses in this country want to make the world safe for democracy. They want to see the people embrace the principles of socialism and apply them to the solution of the world's problems.
THE YOUNG MOTHER AND THE FAT HOG

The following article by Dr. Haury, secretary of the American Board of Health, is reprinted from the New York Times.

A case of a young mother and her fat hog was brought to the attention of the Board of Health by the local physician, Dr. Jones.

The woman, a young mother, had been pregnant for several months, and the hog, a fat hog, had been pregnant for several years.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.

The hog, being fat, had become ill, and the woman, being young, had become ill, too.
A Nation-Wide Protest

No event in the history of the Western states has paralleled the recent widespread protest as has the conviction of the Appeal to Reason, a two-year-old weekly, for publishing an article in its June 19, 1909, issue. The conviction was almost universally condemned by the press and the public, and it has been the subject of much discussion and debate.

The Appeal to Reason, published in Kansas City, has been a symbol of the progressive movement in the United States. Its editor, Francis E. Dillingham, was a strong advocate of social justice and reforms, and the paper was known for its strong pro-labor and pro-union stance.

The conviction of the Appeal to Reason for publishing an article criticizing the government's handling of the strike at the Highland Park plant of the Standard Oil Company in Chicago led to a widespread protest among intellectuals, labor leaders, and other progressive figures. The conviction was seen as a threat to the freedom of the press and to the ability of the media to criticize government policies.

The protest was led by a group of prominent figures, including writer Theodore Roosevelt, newspaper publisher William Randolph Hearst, and labor leader Samuel Gompers. The protest was supported by a wide range of organizations, including the American Federation of Labor, the National Woman's Party, and the Socialist Party of America.

The protest was a major victory for the Appeal to Reason and for the progressive movement. The conviction was overturned on appeal, and the paper continued to publish criticism of government policies. The protest helped to strengthen the movement for social justice and reform in the United States.