COMING TO SOCIALISM.

Coming men of June 19th, in a fine article in the Chicago Daily News, discusses the failure of Socialism in the United States, and concludes that Socialism is destined to fail because of the great mass of individualism which exists among the people. The failure of Socialism, he says, is due to the fact that the country is too much divided into small communities, and that the people are not ready for a mass movement.

I would say that I should be glad that I was not in the position of having to explain my views to the masses of the people. I would rather be able to speak to them in a clear and simple manner, and without a great deal of cant and canting.

I would not like to have to explain my views to the masses of the people, and I would not like to have to explain them to the masses of the people who are not ready for a mass movement.
