POVERTY AND RICHES.

Roosevelt has written another angry letter to Joubert, the President of South Africa, protesting against the methods which are being used to carry on the war with the Boers. He charges that the Boers are being treated unfairly, and that there is a widespread belief that the war is carried on for the purpose of extending British control over the Union of South Africa.

The government has been forced to take energetic steps to prevent the spread of this information, and has arrested several of the leading newspaper editors.

Racial animosity.

It is clear that the government is determined to put a stop to this kind of propaganda, and to prevent the spread of any information that might be calculated to injure the interests of the country.

RITCHIE.

Ritchie, the American consul at Shanghai, has been arrested by the Japanese government, and is accused of having taken part in a pro-Chinese demonstration.

He is said to have been involved in a dispute with a Japanese merchant, and his arrest is the result of this incident.

Ella Gingles is going on trial for the murder of a child.

The girl was discovered in the forest, and the child was found dead. The case has attracted a great deal of attention, and the trial is expected to be a very public one.

Trials are being held in many other places in the United States, and the situation is very serious.
