THE JANUARY SERIES

The January Series contains four special articles by Eugene V. Debs on the Federal Judiciary and a continuation of the Sheaf series. The Sheaf articles have been interrupted on account of some unforeseen events, which delayed his investigation. The listeners will have a good service this month. Debs is in the judicial exposures in the White House, and we shall not lose a moment's time nor an opportunity to disseminate the facts in your interest. With his usual perspicacity, the present article, appended-for-life, irresponsible judiciary has the "last say" in the realm of free speech for a free press, and for the plain people. It is a matter of vital importance that the people should know the truth.

"The last say"—unless you want to take a hand and say something! WILL YOU?
