President Taft, Congressman Campbell and a Pardon

I presume I shall fall on Mr. Campbell's neck and call on him for a pardon. I took the personal method of calling the pardon proisseur, Mr. Morgan, who got me to him. He had heard that Mr. Campbell was in the capital region. Mr. Morgan gave me to understand that Mr. Campbell was among the people who had been released by the pardoning power of the President. I have not heard from him since. I do not know his whereabouts.

JUDGE POLOCK, HYPOCRITE

Two weeks ago I asked you to send
Mr. Polock, my friend, to Washington, and I am still on the lookout for him.
I would like to know where he is and what has become of him.

THE WAR IS OVER

According to the treaty of peace which the United States and Japan have signed, the war is over. The Japanese have agreed to withdraw their forces from Manchuria, and the United States has agreed to support the Chinese government in its efforts to reunify Manchuria. The treaty also includes provisions for the exchange of prisoners of war and for the establishment of diplomatic relations.

Don't let the rule of the smallest state stop the holdup. It is true that the smallest state, such as Wyoming, has brought a lot of attention to itself. But the rule of the smallest state is not
the rule of the United States. The United States is a
nation, and a nation
must be governed by
the wishes of the
majority, not by the
wishes of the smallest state. The United States is a
nation, and a nation
must be governed by
the wishes of the
majority, not by the
wishes of the smallest state.

The Frank Lane Case Is "News"

Frank Lane, a helpless pedi-cab driver in Los Angeles, was recently arrested, according to the Los Angeles Times, for having been in the possession of a dead body. The body was found in a trash can and identified as that of a woman. Lane was charged with the crime and is in jail awaiting trial.

Two Vices of Warren Case

President Harding has announced that he will not campaign in the vice-presidential election. He said that he felt it was not necessary to campaign for the vice-presidential election, as he would be satisfied with his own record. However, some of his supporters are urging him to campaign actively.

Charles Summer on the Courts

He stands free, in the history of the working class, for a new determination to be united and to fight for their rights. His success in the courts demonstrates the strength of the working class movement. Let us all support his efforts and continue to fight for the rights of the working class.

Form Mortgages

From an article commenting on the current mortgage crisis, it is clear that the working class is being exploited by the banking system. The crisis has led to a rise in foreclosures and evictions, and the working class is struggling to keep their homes.

The Inside of Washington

Honest

The government is accused of corruption and dishonesty. The spending of public funds has been questioned, and the government has been accused of not doing enough to help the working class.

For a Good Today

There is no "inside track" for the big dealer in buying Kellogg's. His competitors are all on even footing and fresh goods are always at hand.

The Storm of the Century

There is a storm coming. The working class must be prepared. The government is not doing enough to help the working class. The working class must take matters into their own hands.

Bread and Money

The working class is struggling to afford basic necessities. The government is not providing enough support. The working class must continue to fight for their rights.
SHALL WE ABANDON THE DEBS-IRVINE LECTURES

By FRED A. WAREHURST

I have been asked, many times during the past week, by different members of the organizing committee of the local Socialists, what is the present status of the Debs-Irvine Lectures. I have tried to answer these questions as accurately as possible, but in view of the hurried and chaotic conditions, I believe that the answer is not as clear as it might be. However, I will try to give a broad outline of the situation as it stands today.

The Debs-Irvine Lectures were announced in The Appeal to Reason, February 4, 1911. They were to be given in the United States on the undercept for seven weeks, starting on February 4th. The lectures were to be held in various cities, including Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and others. The lectures were to be given by Debs and Irvine, two prominent leaders of the Socialist Party.

The organizing committee has been working hard to prepare for the lectures. They have been in touch with the various local chapters of the Socialist Party, and have made arrangements for the sale of tickets. The lectures are scheduled to be held in the evening, and are expected to attract a large audience.

I have been informed that the lectures are going to be a great success. The organizers are confident that they will be able to raise a substantial amount of money to help the Socialist Party in its work. I encourage everyone to attend the lectures and support the Socialist cause.

Alexander Irvine's Tour

The present tour of Conrade Alexander Irvine, which started on January 23, has indeed been a most interesting one. He started his tour by giving lectures in several cities, including Chicago, Boston, and New York. He has been well received, and his lectures have been well attended.

Irvine is known for his eloquent speeches and his ability to inspire his audience. His tour has been a great success, and he has been able to raise a substantial amount of money for the Socialist Party.

The organizing committee is planning to give Irvine a warm welcome when he returns to Kansas. They are looking forward to hearing his inspiring words and to supporting the Socialist cause.

Debs in Texas

The hearts of Texans are as warm toward the other which is devoted to the cause of social justice. They have been instrumental in our organizing campaign, and have done a tremendous amount of work in spreading the Socialist message.

I have been informed that Debs is planning to give a series of lectures in Texas. He is expected to arrive in Texas in the near future, and the organizing committee is looking forward to his visit.

Debs and Irvine have been working hard to prepare for their lectures. They have been working with the local chapters of the Socialist Party, and have made arrangements for the sale of tickets. They are confident that they will be able to raise a substantial amount of money to help the Socialist Party in its work.

I encourage everyone to attend the lectures and support the Socialist cause.
