The Wage Worker and the Law

The Prison. [8]

And I said, a year or two ago when the bill for 60 cents per week was being considered, that there would be a greater demand for this bill than for any other, and that the bill was one of the things that would work out in the working classes, and that if they would be willing to do it, they would find it was not only to their advantage, but also to the interest of the state. The bill was passed, and the bill was to be passed, and it has been passed. The bill is in force, and it is in force.

A Tale of Three Cities

BY H. W. W.

Twice a week, Milwaukee, Chicago and Cleveland are called upon to supply the American people with their goods. And twice a week, each of these cities has its own problems. Milwaukee has to keep up with the demands of a growing population, Chicago has to handle the problems of a large metropolis, and Cleveland has to be a leader in manufacturing.

Twice a week, Milwaukee sends its products to Chicago and Cleveland. Twice a week, Chicago sends its products to Milwaukee and Cleveland. Twice a week, Cleveland sends its products to Milwaukee and Chicago.

But twice a week, Milwaukee sends its problems to Chicago and Cleveland. Twice a week, Chicago sends its problems to Milwaukee and Cleveland. Twice a week, Cleveland sends its problems to Milwaukee and Chicago.

Twice a week, Milwaukee, Chicago and Cleveland are called upon to supply the American people with their goods. And twice a week, each of these cities has its own problems.
