BETRAYED THE PEOPLE

In his campaign of 1910 both the democratic and republican candidates made promises to the people. But how many of those promises have been fulfilled? How many of those promises will be kept? How many of those promises will be broken? How many of those promises will be forgotten? These are questions that all must have in mind. But how many of those promises will be kept? MATTER OF UNDERSTANDING

Why is it that people can't have the same understanding of things? The problem is not so much the difference in the way people think, but the lack of common understanding. When people are not sure of what they are talking about, they tend to misunderstand each other. This misunderstanding can lead to conflict, which can be avoided if people have a common understanding of the subject.

The Agitation League

The Agitation League is a group of men who make agitation part of their daily life. The league has set up a system of agitation that can be used by anyone who wants to promote a cause. The league's system is based on the idea that agitation is a powerful tool for change. The league's system is designed to help people understand the power of agitation and how to use it effectively.
