If you are in earnest in your protest against Judicial Tyranny, you will make it known in the Spring Election.

The Magazine Trust---A Menace

The socialist press freely declares that J. F. Morgan is organizing a magazine trust, which, by cheating the public, is charging the people for nothing, and is causing the public to support the circulation of the magazine trust.

Another Legal Outrage

The American Magazine Company, which has been publishing the magazine for several years, has been ordered to cease publication.

TWO CRIMINALS

When your articles are offered to the public, they are not necessarily the property of the author. This means that they are not the property of the publisher. The publisher, therefore, has the right to make an agreement with the author that the articles shall be published in the magazine, and that the author shall receive a certain amount of money for each article. This is known as the standard contract.

The Appeal to Reason

Established Aug. 31, 1895
FIFTY CENTS A YEAR

A Tale of Three Cities

John King, a local doctor, has been arrested for making false statements in his advertisements. He was found guilty and sentenced to two years in prison.

UPHOLDING SLAVERY

One of the few books on the subject of slavery still remaining in the library is called "The Nigger's Handicap." It was written by a Negro and published in 1859.

The Heart of Darkness

In his book "The Heart of Darkness," Conrad described the horrors of the Congo Free State. The book was published in 1899 and remains a classic of literature.

Mock the Spring Election Another Mile Post

Next week, the Milwaukee newspaper will be put on the press and brought to the world. In the production of this work, which we call "The Appeal to Reason," our correspondent, A. W. S., has handled the first proofs and has been helped to the best advantage by the members of the staff, as well as by the numerous contributors who have supplied material for this work.
The Wage Worker and the Law

Time to Pray

A few sentences ago in the dark politics of the anti-union law, the American Federation of Labor, which has been working for years to secure the passage of such a law, was reported to have made a triumphal march in Kansas. The labor organization, supported by the Republican and Democratic parties, has been working for years to secure the passage of such a law, and the workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives.

Starving the Rebels

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

Entertainment

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

President's Economy

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

The Chase

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

Barbarous Mexico

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

Our Sentimental

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

The history of the labor movement in Mexico is one of the most interesting chapters in the history of the country. The first labor movement in Mexico was organized in 1860, and it was then that the workers began to demand better wages and working conditions. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives. The workers in that state have been told that they must work for their lives.

Under Judge's Ban

"We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union. "We are an exhaustible people," said a speaker at the meeting in Kansas City, Mo. "We are an exhaustible people." The speaker went on to say that the workers are being starved because of the labor union.

An Idea For You

She said that she was in the Depression of 1937, and that she was a member of the American Federation of Labor. She said that she was in the Depression of 1937, and that she was a member of the American Federation of Labor. She said that she was in the Depression of 1937, and that she was a member of the American Federation of Labor. She said that she was in the Depression of 1937, and that she was a member of the American Federation of Labor.
Protest Day and New Democracy

By C. L. Pfiester.

A new thing has come to the American scene. These things have been known in the past. To those who knew Lincoln well, he was a man of high principles, but at the same time, he was a man of the people. His speeches and writings were filled with the concept of a free and just society. His influence was felt throughout the land, and his name became synonymous with the struggle for freedom.

Lincoln on Slavery

Abolish the Senate

Effects and Cause

L. S. Kenns was a prosperous farmer in the southern part of the state. He was a man of strong views, and he believed in the principles of the Constitution. Knowing that he was inevitable, he decided to take a stand. He knew that he could not change the system overnight, but he was determined to do what he could. He joined the Abolitionist League, and he began to work tirelessly.

A Family Run State

Morality and Newsstands

Farm Acres

A New Period of Merging is On

This is a new era, and it is one where many things are changing. The old order is giving way to a new one, and it is the new order that is bringing about the changes. People are waking up to the realities of their situation, and they are demanding change. This is a time of great hope, and it is one where the future looks bright.