The Army Captures the Appeal

The Warren Expansion

The Warren expansion is active. The Army has taken over a large number of the Appeal's offices. This is the way they will proceed with the expansion. They plan to take over all the Appeal's property, including the printing plant, the offices, and the distribution network.

They Are Traitors

The most important act of the recent national convention of the United Mine Workers was the adoption of the Civil Federation. The question as to whether or not this action is beneficial has been discussed in the press, and the decision is that the convention has the right to do anything that is legal and right in the interests of the people. The convention has adopted a resolution that the state should be under the control of the people. If the principle holds, then two or three states that have a right to determine the action of the convention in the interests of the people. If the principle holds, then two or three states that have a right to determine the action of the convention in the interests of the people.
