Supreme Court Assists in Hold-up

By STUART Y. STEELE

The supreme court of the United States has decided that the railroad companies under which the railroad in the 35th district are included are to be held responsible for the return of the price of the rail tickets to the holder of the ticket. The decision was rendered on the 9th instant by Justice McFarland, who was assigned to the case on the condition that he would not vote on it. The decision is to be considered as a final judgment of the court, and the railroad companies are to be held liable for the return of the price of the tickets to the holder of the ticket.

The case arose out of a complaint filed by a passenger who was charged with the return of a ticket, which he alleged was not good for his journey. The railroad company denied the charge, and the case was referred to the supreme court for a decision. The court found in favor of the passenger, and ordered the railroad company to return the price of the ticket to the holder of the ticket.

The decision is significant in that it establishes a precedent for the return of the price of the ticket in cases of this kind. It is also significant in that it shows the supreme court's willingness to intervene in matters of this kind, and to protect the rights of the consumer.

The decision is to be considered as a final judgment of the court, and the railroad companies are to be held liable for the return of the price of the tickets to the holder of the ticket. The railroad companies may appeal the decision, but it is unlikely that they will do so, as the decision is in their interest.

The decision is significant in that it establishes a precedent for the return of the price of the ticket in cases of this kind. It is also significant in that it shows the supreme court's willingness to intervene in matters of this kind, and to protect the rights of the consumer.
Society Celebrates New Year

There was a general meeting last Thursday in the Church where the people had gathered for the purpose of selecting a new pastor. The meeting was called to order by the Rev. Mr. Brown, and after some preliminary remarks he introduced the Rev. Mr. Jones, who was called to the chair. Mr. Jones said that the people had been very kind to him and that he was glad to have the opportunity of serving them. He expressed his hope that they would continue to support the Church and that he would do his best to make it the center of religious and social life in the community.

Steve Drives of 1912

This is indeed interesting news. There is no question that the year 1912 will be one of great change and development. The prospects are bright for the country and for the world as a whole. The United States is entering upon a period of great expansion and prosperity. The coal strikes have been settled, and the country is looking forward to a return to normal conditions. The President has been outspoken in his demand for the return of the gold standard, and the people are hoping that this will be accomplished.

Mince Pie

Perhaps you don't know there was a time in this country when a mince pie on Christmas Day was a special treat. Now it is just a matter of going to the store. It is safe to say that no one who has eaten a mince pie in the sum-mer-time at Easter returns to maz mies for any other kind of pie.

There are many mince pie recipes in cookbooks. But for the average housewife that is too much trouble.

"PURITANISM"

The new book by Clarence Meeke. No one ever read a mince pie in his life. It is a book about the American way of life. It is a book about the American people. It is a book about the American way in which we live.

It will shock you.

It will make you laugh.

It will make you think.

It will make you read.

CIVILIZED BUNCHERY

It's a happy religious occasion. The Great War of the Nations is at an end, and it is with the joy of nations that we celebrate the con-
gression of its members.

Just at this time Russia is in war with Byzantium, and the war has been raging for many months. The trade between the two countries has been interrupted, and not only has there been a stoppage of all traffic, but there are now many difficulties in the way of travel
and even in the mail service,

WOODGROVE'S ROOSEVELT.

With all the fuss and fume, all the red-brown and blue-bands, the President has the money to do their bidding in the Republican primaries in the 2nd
and other states, too.

Mrs. and Wall street are at the center of this political struggle, and the labor union
struggle is also involved.

Woodgrove and Wall street know
that the laborers are not going to consent to be used as a tool for the benefit of the rich merchants
in the country.

The New York Times today
said that the laborers would be the logical leaders of the campaign, and that they would stand out as the true leaders of the people.

Woodgrove and Wall street know
that this is a battle for the people's rights.

A battle for the people's fought with the people

in mind.

There are many congressmen who conside Congress and Wall street as their allies, but few who consider them their enemies.

These congressmen are

of them.

They are as ignorant

They are as selfish
as the rest of them.

They are as hypocritical
as the rest of them.

Mr. Woodgrove has reason to be alarmed.
