A Story of Corruption, Robbery and Crime!

First of all, we reproduce an article from the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, dated February 24. It is entitled: "A BAD RING.... OUR CONGRESSIONAL REPRESENTATIVE..."

The article, which is reproduced in full, is written by a Mr. Anthony, who claims that Congressmen and their friends are engaged in a scheme to benefit themselves at the expense of the people. He states that the Union Overland Company, a railway company, has been paying bribes to Congressmen to secure legislation favorable to its interests. Mr. Anthony alleges that this corruption is widespread and involves many prominent politicians.

The article also includes several cartoons and drawings that illustrate the corrupt practices described. The cartoons depict politicians and railway executives in a series of humorous and satirical scenes, highlighting the alleged corruption.

The full text of the article and the cartoons are reproduced on this page, providing a detailed account of the alleged corruption and its impact on the railway industry and the politicians involved.
