A standard make motorcycle, costing $200, fully equipped and ready for the road, 1932 model, will be given to the reader who orders the largest number of copies of No. 854. There are no strings to this offer. It goes to the contestant who orders the largest number of this remarkable and unique edition of Appeal to Reason. We have guaranteed to Father Vaughan an edition exclusive of this one, a limited edition. Let us make it three times that number. Orders to count on this splendid premium must be in the Appeal office by 6 p.m. on June 15th.

Congressional Committee Vindicates the Appeal

A committee of congress has come into the charges made by the Appeal to Reason against Deputy Warden Lemon of the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, for the making of which charges three editors of this paper were indicted by the federal court, and has completely vindicated the Appeal on everything it said. The proceedings are contained in House Resolutions Nos. 10 to 14, Hearings Before the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice. Next week the story will be told in detail.

Putting Down the Hydra-Headed Monster

Declaring that the American republic from the same and the world's mightiest Empire, the Attorney General of the United States, in his capacity as the President of the Chamber, issued the following statement, January 26, 1933. The following statement is a domestic and international threat. The Department of Justice is responsible for the suppression of any attempted violation of the law, and the Department is acting in accordance with the law. The Department of Justice has been acting in accordance with the law, and it is acting in accordance with the law.
