ASK you to keep your eye on ex-President Roosevelt. His convention meets in Chicago on Monday, Aug. 5. He is preparing a surprise that will take the breath out of most of the politicians and sweep the unthinking people off their feet. Even as it is, some men who have been counted as Socialists are identifying themselves with the so-called progressive movement. It is true that some of the politicians who early allied themselves with Roosevelt have deserted, the man Roosevelt stronger with the man in the mine (and his name is laborer) who is angry at conditions but who is not wise enough to place the responsibility where it belongs. There never was such a game of "Stop This" played before.

WILSON ENDSORES TAMMANY

IT must be a matter for congratulation on the part of all lovers of the democratic spirit in the United States to note that the late Alphonse O'Leary, whose death on August 3 was announced, has been honored by his friends. He was a man who did much to promote the cause of democracy in the United States and to retard the progress of progressivism.

The Appeal's Work

The work of this paper is to advance socialism. With a staff of over 50 persons, it is well organized and efficiently worked. The Appeal has never missed a single week since it began publication, except for two weeks, and in those two weeks it was due to the civil war. The Appeal is read by over 100,000 people in this country.

The Appeal is not only a newspaper, but also a publishing company. It publishes books, pamphlets, and other literature on socialism and related topics. The Appeal is also a member of the Socialist Labor Party, which is the socialist party of the United States.

All Turned Upside Down

It is a common practice to turn the tables and make the people believe in what they are being told. The Appeal is trying to make the people see that the capitalist system is broken and that socialism is the only way to solve the problems of society.

The Appeal is not afraid to speak the truth, even if it means upsetting some of its readers. The Appeal is a true friend of the working class and will always fight for their rights.

Wilson and Snell Street

It is true that there are many problems in the world today, but we must not lose sight of the fact that socialism is the solution to these problems. The Appeal is working hard to make the people understand this.
