FIFTY CENTS A YEAR

This is Number 887
Expiration Number 57

Half the Children Starving

Dr. W. J. B. Tarbell, the state health expert, at Topeka, Oct. 14, 1913, said:

"The proportion of children suffering from malnutrition in Kansas and the surrounding territory is alarming. The medical profession is in accord that a large percentage of the children are suffering from a lack of the proper diet."

Campaign of Lies

There has been a series of lies about the condition of the country and the way it is governed. The following are but a few.

Lie Number One

STORY: GENERAL JAMES A. WICKERSHAM is a liar. He is known to have said many lies about John F. McDougall, the man whom the honored Senator Warren, of Arizona, spoke so highly of.

Verification: It is true that Mr. Wickersham has told several falsehoods about Mr. McDougall. The latter has been known to be a liar himself, and it is not surprising that Wickersham should tell lies about him.

Lie Number Two

CHARLES BRIDEU, deputy United States Marshal for the Southern District of California, who was for some time President of the United States, was never President. He is not even a citizen of the United States.

Verification: It is true that Mr. Brideu was never President of the United States. He was discharged from the service of the United States due to fraud and bribery.

Lie Number Three

HARRY GRAY OTIS, the current editor of the Appeal to Reason, is a liar.

Verification: It is true that Mr. Gray Otis has told several lies in his editorials.

Lie Number Four

COMRADE FRED STANTON was not a citizen of the United States.

Verification: It is true that Mr. Stanton was a citizen of the United States.

The Easy Winner

The Appeal to Reason is easily the most powerful newspaper in the world. It is read by millions of people in every part of the country.

Verification: It is not true that the Appeal to Reason is the most powerful newspaper in the world. The New York Times is the most powerful newspaper in the world.

Text effort to "show the lies"

"The evidence introduced before the House committee in the case of the United States v. New York Times showed that the paper was not acting as a news organization but as a political machine."

Verification: It is not true that the New York Times was acting as a political machine. The paper is a news organization and has always acted as such.
