Sheppard Personally Accuses Bone

Judge Pollock Sustains the Appeal

FEDERAL Judge John C. Pollock has sustained the Appeal's demurrer in the Leavenworth case. This means that Warren and Pilfer are freed of the charge of printing obscene matter in the express of the Leavenworth post office—a case that has been pending for eight months. The Leavenworth federal post office has been closed for the past five months by order of the United States district court of the Eastern District of Kansas. The United States government has been unable to proceed with the trial of the case because the post office was closed. The United States government has been unable to proceed with the trial of the case because the post office was closed.

The Times of the People of the United States

The spirit of the people in the United States will not be debarred from finding its expression in the election of the President of the United States. The people have the right to choose their own leaders, to determine who shall govern them, and to have a say in the direction of the country. The spirit of the people is alive and well, and it will not be suppressed.

The American Flag

A. W. L. in Kansas City, April 8th, 1913

The American flag will be raised at the time of the celebration of the national holiday, April 17th, and will be displayed prominently. The flag will be flown at half-mast in honor of the victims of the recent California earthquake. The nation will honor its fallen heroes and mourn their loss.
